The novelty and pleasurableness of week. Mrs. Nash's "tin shower" tea on Thursday were only equalled by the surprise of the bride-to-be, Miss Ethel Herchmer, in whose honor the affair was given, when she was led up open, and she was confronted with a glittering array of tinware, of varipainted bread box, to an infinitesimal sponge cake tin, and was told that avenue, Westmount, Montreal. all was hers. Some of the gifts bore most witty and appropriate legends on the cards attached. A funnel carried the wish "that the stream of your bliss, may be always too large for a funnel like this"; a cake cutter, that the bride's troubles might be always as light as the cakes that shell bake; an apple corer, that her crosses might "never be larger than this," all from the brains of the poet amongst a clever trio of sisters. A breadpan bore a tragic allusion to sorrowing Kingston friends who will be left be hind, and the hope that the briceelect would realize that she was 'leaving all this for a man," stocking full of cake tins, tin forks, etc., was "as full of good wishes from top to toe." One thoughtful little lady had had a long-handled dustpan specially made so that the new housekeeper might not be compelled to stoop to conquer dust." And so on. Miss Herchmer received with Mrs. Nash, and in the tea room were Miss Lorraine Lesslie, who poured coffee and Miss Alice King, who made the tea. Miss Nannie Skinner serving ices. Those assisting were Mrs. Arthur Evans, Miss Grace Evans, Miss Callaghan, Miss Irene Kent, Miss Edith Folger, and Miss Constance Cooke. The tea table was very prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums. Amongst those present were Mrs. Buxton Smith, Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Pense. Worry Over Little Things.

Feelings of Languor and Despondency the First Symptoms of Nervous Exhaustion -- Reconstruct the Wasted Nerve Tissues by Using

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

When you become restless and peevish, worry over little things, and are afficted with dyspepsia, which cannot be attributed to error in diet, you may be sure that the trouble arises from nervous disorders. Other symptoms are sleeplessness, headache, low spirits, and a tendency to put off the duties of the day. Life seems to lose its brightness, and things go wrong. When in such a condition you will find yourself very sus ceptible to change of air. When the at mosphere is fresh and clear you have plenty of vitality, but with heavy weather you drag yourself about feeling more dead than alive.

The first necessity is rest from work and worry, and as much fresh air as possible. "Then the system must built up and the wasted nerve force restored by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

So much mystery and uncertainty has formerly surrounded diseases the nerves that people often make the dreadful mistake of neglecting them. They feel weak, miserable, and nerv ous, but try to console themselves that it will wear away. No so. Nervous diseases do not get well of them selves, but gradually weaken the sys until there is nothing left to

No Money Is Wanted.

I ask only a postal card naming someone who is sick. Tell me the book to send. I ask it as an act of humanity. Write it to-day, and I will do all the rest.

I will do this :- I will mail the sick one an order - good at any drug store - for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. He may take it a month at my rlsk. If it succeeds, it costs $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself. And the sick one's mere word shall decide it.

Don't think that too fair to be possible, for I do just as I say. I do it to convince those who don't know me, and so that everyone who needs help will accept it.

I have learned that the cured ones are fair. I have furnished my Restorative to hundreds of thousands on just those terms, and 39 out of each 40 have paid gladly, because they were cured. I have willingly prid for the rest.

And I spent a lifetime in perfecting the remedy before I ever offered it to anyone. At thousands of bedsides, in hos pitals and homes. I have watched it cure the most difficult cases that physicians ever meet. I learned that it does not fail, save where some cause-like cancer-makes a cure impos

My success comes from strengthening the inside nerves, My Restorative brings back that the nerve power which alone operates every vital organ of the body. Common treatments merely doctor the organs, and the results at best are but temporary. My remedy restores the nerve power that makes these organs act. No other treatment does that, and there is positively no other way to make weak vital organs well. My book will explain this, It tells about the only remedy
