TO BE NEW TRIAL

WILCOX ACCUSED OF MUR-DERING CROPSEY

The Prisoner Once Convicted and Sentenced to be Hanged—An Appeal Taken and the New Trial Ordered.

Elizabeth City, N.J., Nov. 17.—The term of court which commenced here to-day promises to be of extraordinary interest as the case of James Wilcox, once convicted of the murder of Nellie Cropsey, comes up for trial again.

Without having said anything to the jury during the evening Wilcox put on his hat shortly after Miss Carrie had retired and asked Nellie if she would not speak to him in the hall. She said nothing but went. The door was closed behind her. The girl disappeared and was never seen alive again by anyone except Wilcox. Her body was found thirty-seven days later in the Pasquotank river, not more than 100 yards from the house.

TOLL GATES ARE BARRIERS.

Reasons Why the Roads Should Be Free.
I noticed R. H. Toye's argument in the Whig a night or two ago, against the abolition of the toll gates," remarked a Kingston merchant this morning. "Let me tell you of an experience I met with this summer: At Odessa I met some people with whom I was acquainted, and asked them why they did not do their marketing in Kingston. 'Oh,' said they, 'Kingston has not so much improved that we need pay twenty-five cents to see it. That is what our toll amounts to if we market in Kingston, and we can do as well in Odessa as in Kingston.' The result is that farmers who would ordinarily come to Kingston trade their produce at Odessa, and twice a week several loads of farm stuff are dumped off at the doors of Kingston—commission merchants, that, under ordinary circumstances, if toll gates were removed, would be marketed in the city in the ordinary way."

The Westminster Choir Concert.

Kingston, Nov. 17.—(To the Editor.) Referring to a paragraph in the Whig of Friday evening, in which a trustee of Chalmers church complains of the secular songs, on the programme of the concert given by the Westminster choir, I beg to say that the trustees exonerate Mrs. Dobbs, the organist, of all responsibility for the choice of programme. Mrs. Dobbs, from the very outset of negotiations with the choir, stipulated for a purely sacred concert, and was indignant that such was not insisted on Thursday evening.

"The Ivy Leaf."

Mr. Denton is noted for his sweet tenor voice. No maiden could resist the combination of a manly presence and tender voice, such as Mr. Den-ton's and when, in addition, he dar-ingly rescues the heroine from a ruining tower, where she has been attached by a vengeful suitor, his victory is complete and all ends as it should.
This scene in the tower, where Denton sings the famous Ivy Leaf song and then leaps to seeming certain death to save the heroine, is one of unusual power. At the Grand tomorrow.

Desert Lake Tidings.
Desert Lake, Nov. 14.—Farmers are through ploughing and many are cutting wood to haul to the station as-soon as sleighing comes. Mining experts visit this vicinity occasionally and with favorable results. Albert Aney has moved from Kingston back to his farm here. Mrs. William Snook and her niece, Miss Lottie Snook, have returned from visiting friends in Sydenham. John Snook has returned from the United States, where he spent the summer. Miss Hyland, Kingston, visited friends here recently. A fine baby boy has come to stat the residence of E. H. Snook. E.
Albertson is quite ill. The cheese factory has closed for the season. John H. W. Reynolds as proprietor, and N.
Norris for cheesemaker, the patronage are well satisfied with the season's make of cheese.

A Great Magazine.

The Christmas Delinquent, published by the Butterick company, New York, marks the thirtieth anniversary of the publication. It is a great number, and is declared by critics to be the most complete, and at the same time the most beautiful magazine for women ever produced at a popular price. It contains over 200 pages of interesting matter, including thirty-four full-page illustrations, of which twenty are in color. The magnitude of this number, for which 728 tons of paper and six hundred of ink have been used, may be understood from the fact that ninety-one presses running fourteen hours a day, have been required to print it.
The binding alone of the edition of 915,000 copies representing over 20, 000,000 sections which had to be gethered individually by human hands.

Met With Painful Accident.

Chailey's Locks, Nov. 14.—A party of local duck hunters have returned; they captured about one hundred ducks. On Monday last, while Lillian Flanagan was returning from school, she was thrown from the wagon, the wheel running over her back and fracturing, breaking one of her ribs and fracturing her collar bone. T. F.
Gray and T. Simmons have returned home after spending the season on steamer Rideau King, which made her last trip on Tuesday last. Visitors: Misses Kennedy, Mrs. McGuire, Phillipsville, Misses Mary and Maud Simmons, Newboro.

What Is Being Done.

The management committee of the Board of Education is discussing teachers' salaries, and it hopes to bring down a scheme giving increases as well as shortening the number of years in reaching the maximum salary.
The maximum salary may also be increased.

CANNOT BE DIVIDED.

Anglo-Saxons Stand Back to Back
For Good Cause.
W. P. F. Ferguson, who spoke in the city hall, Sunday afternoon, in behalf of the cause of temperance, has the happy gift of being able to tell a good story and always at the proper time. In opening his address he took up the question of kinship of the Anglo-Saxons in the United States and so well did he bind the Union Jack and Star Spangled banner together, that the audience became en-thusiased, and "warmed" to him at once. Graphically he described the entrance of Admiral Dewey's fleet into Manila Bay, and the preparation to do battle. Then he mentioned another of his kinships taking up a position in the bay, and from their backs brass bands discoursed "Yankee Doodle," to cheer the American soldiers, while overhead floated the Union Jack of old England.

Another incident dealt with a small lad in Chicago, who had wandered into a district occupied by foreigners and was instantly made the object of scraps. "Though the average Yankee boy feels that at all times he is good for fifteen or twenty foreigners, still this boy knew that he was outclassed in numbers." Taking up a position on a flight of steps he called out, "Is there a Yankee boy in this crowd?" No answer. Again he called, "Is there an American boy in this crowd?" Again no answer. Presently a small boy advanced and said, "Here he a British boy." "Come up here, then," said the Yankee boy, "and stand to my back, and we'll lick the whole darn pack of them." That was the position of the United States and Canada in relation to the prejudicial questions," said Mr. Ferguson.
"We'll stand back to back and lick the life out of the run devil. You cannot fix an effective boundary between the Anglo-Saxons, though it be, in imagination, as wide as the Atlantic."

DEATH AT NAPANEE.

An Insane Man Was Lodged in Jail.

Napanee, Nov. 17.—Donald McLiver, one of Napanee's oldest and most respected citizens, passed away on Saturday morning. For several weeks he had been confined to his bed, having suffered a slight stroke of paralysis about three weeks ago. Deceased was in his eighty-first year. A wife and two daughters are left to mourn. Deceased was one of the charter members of the I.O.O.F. lodge. The funeral takes place this afternoon.

Mrs. William Tilley, mother of Mrs.
W. S. Herrington, lies quite low at the residence of her daughter. She also suffered a stroke of paralysis recently and very little hopes are entertained of her recovery. E. A. Rikley is very little better, although some hopes are entertained of his recovery. John Nicolle, D.D.G.M., of Kingston, paid a fraternal visit on Friday night last to Union lodge, A. F. & A. M., Napanee.

The evening was spent with toasts and speeches, and an oyster supper at the close marked a very pleasant and profitable time to all present.

John McTiern, of Marysville, was yesterday taken in charge and lodged in jail as being of unsound mind. For several weeks past he has been around the town and acting "queer."

Late H. H. Allison.

Napanee Express.
Henry Hovey Allison died at Adol-phustown, November 11th, 1902, in his seventy-eighth year. Mr. Allison was born on lot 17, 1st concession, which place was drawn by Joseph Allison the first as a United States Loyalist and on which farm he lived and died. For many years Mr. Allison was engaged as grain merchant, he having owned what is known as Alli-son's wharf and storehouse, and has handled the principal part of the grain grown in his locality, and has as well held many offices of trust, having been reeve of the township for years, and for twenty-five years continually held the office of school trustee, and during that time was secretary-treasurer of same, and with all his dealings with and for the people he was considered an honest man. He married Martha Wright, daughter of the late Solomon Wright, who survives him, with two sons, Fred, who lives at the homestead, and Harry, who lives in South Frederickburgh. Mr. Allison was a Methodist in principle and in politics a staunch reformer. On the 13th of November, Rev. R. Allen conducted service at his late residence, and he was followed to his last resting place, the family mausoleum, by many surviving friends. Thus ends the life of a good citizen, a true friend and a loyal subject of our country.

Edna—Do you think your marriage with Miss Lotta Coyne, the heiress, will have a pleasant outcome?
Edward—I can't say—but the thing that attracts me is the income.

The Nurse
Testifies
To Personal Benefit As Well as That of Patients
Who Have Used
Dr. Chase's Kidney-
Liver Pills.

None are better qualified to point to results obtained from any particular treatment than the nurse in attendance, especially if the nurse is experienced and observant.

The doctor may have a better idea of what a certain medicine is expected to do, but he is not present to study the case and observe the actual results.

The work of a nurse is often heavy and trying. Mrs. Nash's back gave out and her kidneys were strained and deranged so as to cause much keen suffering. She proved for herself the prompt and lasting benefit to be obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and has since witnessed many remarkable cures among her patients.

Mrs. C. Nash, the well-known nurse, 331 King street, Ottawa, Ont., states:
"I consider Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills a splendid family medicine. I keep them on hand all the time, and do not think I could do without them. I used to suffer a great deal from weak back, caused by deranged kidneys and at times had severe sick headaches, but this medicine always brings relief. I never knew it to fail.
Several friends have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, on my recommendation with equally good results."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are considered an invaluable family medicine in a hundred thousand houses.
One pill a dose; 25 cents a box. At all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

flagging spirits for the passing hour. It is a highly nourishing food, containing all the strength-giving properties of the best lean beef in the most palatable and
