HELPING ON THE CENSUS.

Three Pairs of Twins and Quadruplets.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—News has just been received of a remarkable family in the village of Dozenkova. Until recently it consisted of father and mother and three pairs of twins, but it has been increased by the birth of quadruplets—three boys and one girl. All the infants are alive and apparently thriving.

The application for summonses against certain alleged liberal bribers was not gone on with on Saturday.

What is Going On in the Business World—The Market News.

The gold output in the Yukon this year will aggregate $12,000,000.

The Dominion Coal company, by the end of this week, will have sent 1,200,000 tons to the St. Lawrence markets this season.

A mill for the manufacture of a grade of Portland cement, with a daily capacity of 10,000 barrels, will be erected in Manitoba next year.

The decline in stocks for the past month is said to have cost speculators in Toronto many millions of coin. It is said 10,000 Canadians are dealing in stocks in Toronto and their losses would aggregate $1,000,000.

It is said that the net earnings of the Dominion Coal company for October showed an increase of $30,000 in comparison with the same month of 1901. The output for October, 1902, exceeded the output of the same month of 1901 by 50,000 tons.

The three great coal producing countries of the world are the United States, the United Kingdom and Germany. These three countries produce practically eighty per cent. of the world's coal.

Since 1880 the United States has increased her output by 221,000,000 short tons, Germany by 103,000,000 tons, and the United Kingdom by 80,000,000.

Farewelled On Sunday.

A farewell service was held in the Salvation Army barracks on Sunday to mark the departure of Staff-Capt. Maenamara and Lieut. Hoole.

The attendance was large, both morning and evening. A farewell social is to be held this evening. Staff-Capt. Maenamara has had charge of the Kingston corps and the district for the past year, and has proved himself to be a faithful and able officer.

She goes from here to the Pictou corps and Belleville district, and will be succeeded here by Adj. and Mrs. Bloss, Ottawa. Adj. Bloss is well known in Kingston, having been stationed here about six years ago as an assistant to Staff-Capt. Archibald. Staff-Capt. Maenamara will leave for Pictou on Wednesday, after which she will enjoy a two weeks' furlough.

"The Show Girl."

This performance on Thursday night next is described by a Montreal paper: Three hours of music, song and drollery, with never a minute that is slow and dull, comedians who are genuinely funny and chorus girls that have some point to them and music that rings pleasantly in the ear long after one has heard it.

She goes from here to the Pictou corps and Belleville district, and will be succeeded here by Adj. and Mrs. Bloss, Ottawa. Adj. Bloss is well known in Kingston, having been stationed here about six years ago as an assistant to Staff-Capt. Archibald.

Terrific Heat in Africa.

Letters received to-day from Kingston boys serving in the South African Constabulary state that all the boys are well. A number of the Canadians who were in troops farther north, passed through the lines on their way home. These men were, for the most part, from the North-West. One writer states that the heat in Africa now is terrific. This is summer in that country, and the soldiers, confined in barracks as they are, suffer much more from the heat than they did while on active service.

Addressed The Students.

At Saturday night's meeting of the Alma Mater Society of Queen's College, J. Frasz, Wyatt, representative of the British Empire Navy League, addressed the students on the aims of the league. He has secured a great many new members in Kingston.

Found Guilty.

E. P. Jenkins, fit reform clothier in this city, was found guilty last week of selling a man an overcoat for $12 which was worth $18 elsewhere. The penalty inflicted was the loss of $6 which he might have charged. Lots more come and see them.

Broke His Arm.

While playing football, on Saturday, Howard Asseltine, son of W. H. Asseltine, corner of Johnston and Alfred streets, had the misfortune to break his arm.

AVERT ACTION BY WHICH HEAVY DUTY PUT ON LUMBER

The Matter May Be Discussed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier—Hopes That Provincial Government Will Act.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—The Mail and Empire to-day says that negotiations are on foot to avert the threatened imposition of a duty of $1 per 1,000 feet on Canadian sawn lumber by the United States government, as a reprisal for the action of the provincial governments of Ontario and Quebec in placing an embargo on the export of pulpwood. The visit of Premier Ross to Ottawa, a few days ago, according to the paper, was in connection with the matter. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier says, is anxious that the governments of both Ontario and Quebec should take some steps that will mitigate the alleged grievance of the United States pulp men. It is possible that on his coming trip to Virginia Sir Wilfrid will discuss the matter with the United States government.

The court of appeal, to-day, is hearing the Bell Telephone company's appeal from the judgment of Justice Street in its action against the city regarding the erection of poles and wires without leave from the city. Judge Street held against the company and the appellants rely on a recent judgment in an action between the city of Montreal and the Standard Light and Power company.

Charles H. Cornell, a butcher, 200 Robert street, was seen to shoot himself through the mouth with a revolver in the Rosedale Ravine drive this morning. When the police arrived he was still alive, but died shortly. He was a married man.

The provincial secretary reports a great increase in the amount received for fees for the incorporation of companies in Ontario. The fees for ten months, this year, have been $89,725 and it is expected the twelve months will total $105,000. Last year $88,613 was received in 277 months, in 1900, the amount was $78,997, in 1899, $67,551, and in 1898, only $28,520.

The dental student, named Herbert Brown, arrested on Saturday night for disorderly conduct, was, this morning, fined $1. There is no connection between this affair and the Halloween fracas.

When the case of Alfred McDougall, the former Ontario solicitor to the treasury, was called in the police court this morning, a doctor's certificate was presented that he was much too ill to attend. The case was enlarged a week.

Asked, regarding the case of Walter Herbert, who pleaded guilty as assisting in the murder of Joseph Sifton, for which Gerald Sifton has just been acquitted at London, Attorney-General Gibson, this morning, said that Herbert would be brought up for sentence at the next London assizes. After the sentence it would be for the minister of justice to consider how far the sentence should be mitigated in consideration of Herbert's evidence for the crown at the Sifton trial. However, the verdict of "not guilty" in the Sifton case left Herbert's testimony disbelieved by the jury and complicated the case considerably.

DEATH OF CAPT. R. L. SEWELL

A Well-known Belleville Man Who Served in the Northwest.

Belleville, Nov. 17.—By the death of Capt. R. L. Sewell on Friday night this city lost one of its best-known and most respected citizens. Deceased was a son of the late Dr. James A. Sewell, for many years dean of the faculty of medicine at Laval University, Montreal, and was born in Quebec fifty years ago. Capt. Sewell was a veteran of the North-West rebellion, having served as captain with Col. Williams. He was at the battle of Fish Creek, where his company lost heavily. Deceased was formerly teller of the Bank of Montreal in this city, being transferred to Winnipeg. Later he returned to live here, and married Mrs. Charles Bell, daughter of the late city treasurer, who with three children survives him. The late Mr. Sewell was an enthusiastic lover of sport, and introduced the game of golf in this city.

COSTLY POTATOES.

Northern Star Now Brings $2,500 a Ton in England.

London, Nov. 17.—Country Life describes the history of the potato known as the Northern Star as one of the romances of finance. It was brought out in 1901 by a Fifeshire grower, who parted with a few tons at the extraordinary price of £1,120 a ton. This is about ten shillings a pound, at which rate potatoes were purchased by a Lincolnshire dealer. From this two pounds there will be grown this year 130 pounds. The dealer was so pleased with the result that he bought a further quantity at £500 a ton, which is the rate of 1902.

To Can 5,000 Indian Ponies.

Salt Lake, Nov. 17.—A firm, which does an immense business in "beefed beef," proposes to improve its output by using fat Indian ponies in the manufacture of its "beefed beef." Within the past week the firm has closed a contract for 5,000 Indian ponies, which are running wild. The greater portion of the "beef" manufactured from the Indian ponies will be sent to Japan for the use of the Japanese army.

Killed On The Railway.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 17.—Stephen Corbett, an old man and a laborer of this city, was struck and killed, by an east bound Grand Trunk express train and instantly killed, about two miles east of the depot. The body was badly mangled. In stepping out of the way of a west bound freight, Corbett got in the way of the limited express.

Has Been Remanded.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 17.—"Billy" Boyd was, this morning, arraigned on the charge of larceny. Mr. Herri-man, Winnipeg, out of $2,000. As the complainant did not appear Boyd was further remanded for a week, while Mr. Herri-man will be summoned.

"Weary of Earth," by Dudley Buck, was the title of an anthem rendered by the choir of St. James' church at evening service Sunday. The tenor solo was acceptably taken by Herbert Tandy. The anthem was creditably rendered by the efficient choir.

SENT CONSCIENCE MONEY.

Young Minister Pays For Purse He Stole.

St. Catharines, Ont., Nov. 17.—A "young minister" has sent Ald. Pettie $1 conscience money with the confession that when a boy he had stole a purse worth 10c. from the elder man's store. The letter continues: "I am now a young minister and I feel that God will not bless my work unless I make right what I can with my fellow man. I shall not sign my name to this letter. The Holy Spirit has told me many a time to write you and make it right, but I did not do so. I wait my ministry to be a fruitful one, and I feel that this has kept me from receiving many a blessing which I should have received."

The Late Capt. Knapp.

Wolfe Island lost one of its best residents on November 8th, in the person of Capt. James Knapp, deceased, born at Cherry Valley, N.Y., came to Wolfe Island when three years old with his parents, and lived for over fifty years on Knapp's Point. About fifteen years ago he removed to Marysville. In his early days Capt. Knapp, somewhat various steamer, several having been built by himself, and were used for transporting stone for the fine masonry in the Rideau and Beauharnois canals. He was also a man of military spirit, and in 1857, saw active service in Kingston. He rose to the rank of captain before he retired. He was known for his sterling character. The deceased was married twenty-four years ago to Miss Mary McDougall, of Williamsburg, Ont. In politics he was a conservative and in religion a Roman Catholic. Only Surviving Member.

Mrs. Robinson, widow of ex-Alderman William Robinson, is the only surviving member of the original congregation of Cooke's Presbyterian church, when it was opened fifty-six years ago. During service in the church yesterday prayers were offered that Mrs. Robinson might long continue to remain an attendant. Mrs. Robinson is a link that connects the past with the present.

CAMPAIGN ON REMEMBER THE DATES FOR PUBLIC MEETINGS.

The Anti-Bar-Room Crusade—The Aim Is to Save the Boys—Hear the Great Advocates of Prohibition.

W. P. F. Ferguson, of Chicago, will address mass meetings this week in the city at follows:

To-night (Monday), Nov. 17th—Ontario hall, at eight o'clock.

Tuesday, Nov. 18th—Salvation Army barracks, at eight o'clock.

Thursday, Nov. 20th—Cooke's Presbyterian church, at eight o'clock.

Friday, Nov. 21st—City Hall, at eight o'clock.

On Tuesday at 3 p.m., Mr. Ferguson will address a women's meeting in the old collegiate rooms.

Come and hear this great advocate of prohibition. Now is the opportunity for the indolent to be aroused, the undecided to come to full decision, those lacking information to be informed and those opposed to state their views. Mr. Ferguson is anxious to meet them all. Come and hear. Remember these meetings!

The mass meetings yesterday were magnificent. The addresses were convincing in argument and persuasive in spirit and power.

Let no citizen miss this opportunity of hearing this question clearly, candidly and fully discussed by one who states what he knows.

Meeting of the special polling subdivision committees at the prohibition headquarters at seven o'clock to-night.

Kingston Skating Club.

The reorganizing meeting of the Skating Club was held on Saturday evening with a very good attendance. Reports were read and the election of officers for the coming season took place: Honorary president, H. Richardson, re-elected; vice-presidents, Mesdames J. B. Caruthers, R. E. Kent, J. M. Strange, and R. Mackenzie; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. H. L. Fogart; manager, Mr. Almon. The executive is all new and will be composed of the following: Mrs. R. W. Garrett, Miss Frances Macaulay, Miss Brownfield, Capt. Symons, representing the R.M.C., Capt. Bogart, Queen's, and E. Gildersleeve, the city. There is some talk of having the refreshments looked after by a caterer, and if this is done the fees will have to be raised. A meeting will be held on Friday evening to discuss this question.

Accepted Service.

The writ in the action brought by M. J. Haney, of Toronto, against Hon. William Harty, J. Harty and Cornelius Bermingham, was served Monday morning upon J. L. Whiting, K.C., on behalf of the first two named defendants. Trial is set down for Toronto.

Hon. Mr. Harty was interviewed with respect to the suit brought against the company by Mr. Haney, but he refused absolutely to say anything about the matter.

A Large Gift To St. Mary's.

The late Mrs. Ward, Johnston street, bequeathed, in her will, a considerable sum of money to St. Mary's cathedral. Though the exact amount is not yet known, it is likely to be in the neighborhood of $8,000 to $10,000. It was only a few months ago that the now deceased lady contributed $1,000 to the building fund of the cathedral. Her latest gift comes at a time in the history of the church when it will be greatly appreciated.

Wanted It For The Boarders.

A funny incident occurred on the Market Square on Saturday. A farmer offered for sale a large owl, which he had recently captured. An old lady approached him and enquired: "How much for that cat-faced turkey?"

"It's an owl," the farmer explained.

"I don't care how old it might be; I want it for the boarders," replied the woman.

Notes From Queen's.

The Alma Mater Society has decided to appoint a board of arbitration, whose duty it will be to assess the damage done to the college property in student scrapes, to the right parties. In past years, science and medical students have come to the arts' consouris and broken property, for which the arts' society always had to pay. Now a system of arbitration will be established.

Returned To Asylum.

Patrick McDonald, a resident of Bedford, was brought to the city on Monday morning, with arms and legs bound. Ten or twelve years ago, he was liberated from Rockwood asylum, but is again seriously wrong mentally. After examination by physicians here, he was removed to the asylum.

Was Elected Senator.
