

A GOOD SAMARITAN.

Being Helped Himself Wishes to Help Others.

The papers were never so filled with advertisements of remedies that will cure every known disease, as they are today.

We are glad however to vouch for the reliability of the following from William Lichenwaller, proprietor of the largest printing house in Canton, Ohio, regarding the Pyramid Pile Cure, for which nothing is claimed except that it will cure any and every form of Piles.

"For several months past I have received so many enquiries from sufferers asking if my testimonial is authentic, that I am inclined to send in a bill to you for postage and stationery."

It is now two years since I was last troubled, and my rectum is as clear and clean as any man who never had piles, although I suffered with them for twenty-seven years. I will not attempt to detail the agony I suffered, being too happy to say I believe I am cured, after two years of evidence.

What will cure one man will sometimes not cure another; whether it was the Pyramid Pile Cure that cured me, I cannot say; but I have been free from piles for two years after using your treatment. I leave sufferers to draw their own conclusions.

I will answer any communication that a sufferer may ask, and will refer to any business house, bank or manufacturer of Canton, Ohio, concerning my identity, among whom I have lived for forty-eight years.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., upon receipt of price.

Drop this firm a card, asking for their little book describing the cause and cure of piles.

CITY BUSINESS

TRANSACTION AT TWO COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

Board of Works Will Recommend Construction of a Sewer—A Small Surplus on Hand—No Water for Residents of Russell Street.

Chairman McLeod presided at a regular meeting of the board of works Thursday afternoon, the other members present being: Aids, McCammon, Harkness, Craig, Walkem, and City Engineer Kirkpatrick. There was quite a state of business prepared for the consideration of the committee, but the members cleared up the list expeditiously, owing largely to the executive ability displayed by the chairman, who held the members down to actual business. The chairman announced also, that although the board had performed considerable good work during the year, a substantial surplus remained. The members expressed their gratification at the good showing of the financial report.

R. W. Allen petitioned on the ground that he did not use the sewer in Montreal street. He was billed for $15.90, with an annual rental of $159. "No action" was decided, upon motion of Aids, Harkness and Walkem.

The next business considered was the request of the local board of health, that a sewer be constructed in upper William street, on sanitary grounds.

William McNamee appeared before the board and protested against the building of the drain. There are only three cellars in the street, and his is one; his cellar is as dry as the proverbial home. In his opinion there was not any need of a new sewer.

William J. Paul appeared for the affirmative. The cellar beneath his dwelling was constantly filled with water, and water residents found it impossible to use sinks in their houses. The old sewer was built over fifty years ago, and is not serviceable.

The city engineer informed the board that the old sewer was only four feet, six inches deep. Mr. Paul's cellar and that beneath Mrs. McMahon's dwelling were about four feet deep.

Chairman McLeod wound up the debate by stating that the board had to be governed by the request of the board of health, and report to council that the sewer be built. It would then rest with the property owners affected, who did not desire the sewer, to petition the judges that the sewer be not built. On motion of Aid, Walkem, it was decided to recommend the construction of the sewer; it was the only course open to the board, the mover stated.

Noel Kent, 55 George street, petitioned against being charged for a sewer in O'Kill street. The petitioner was present and stated that the sewer from his dwelling was constructed by private parties, and did not cost the city one cent to build.

Chairman McLeod pointed out that the complainant was being charged for sewer rent only, for the use of the O'Kill street sewer. This rental could have been collected since 1882. "No action" was decided upon on motion of Aid, Harkness.

A recommendation of the board of health that a sewer be built in Lower Rideau street, was referred to the city solicitor and city engineer for a report, on motion of Aid, Craig. The chairman stated that it was almost a year in the year to begin the construction of sewers.

John Gleason, ice dealer, complained of the dangerous condition of a cross-in on Brock St., entering premises of the Dominion Fish company. It was a menace to the life and limb of horses passing over it.

The chairman announced that the dock was to be rectified by the city engineer at once. The matter was referred to the city engineer to have the improvement carried out.

Aid, Craig suggested that if the board had any money to spare, it should be used in keeping the cesspings clean. This work could be done at a very small cost. The committee thought well of the suggestion.

The chairman announced that the board had stopped all general work, as the controllable finances were getting low. Provision had to be made for snow shovelling, and towards the outlay the board had only about $700 on hand.

Touching the condition of streets, Aids, McCammon, McLeod and Walkem stated that they had been in Montreal recently and found the streets there in a deplorable condition. Kingston streets were much superior and cleaner than those of Montreal.

A number of accounts were passed, including the pay list for the past two weeks, amounting to $431.50.

Water Works Committee.

At five o'clock Thursday afternoon Aid, King held a meeting of the committee on water works, when only a small bill of particulars was presented to the members for their consideration. Those who attended, besides the chairman, were: Aids, Sears, Abbott, Mallen and Tait.

After a few accounts had been passed, petition from residents of Russell street, asking that the water works system be extended to the residents of that thoroughfare.

Aid, King informed the committee that the petition was an old one, having been first presented in September, 1901, but the request was not granted then because the revenue guaranteed would not yield the necessary amount to warrant the undertaking of the work. In any event, the names on the petition could not be treated as valid; some had been pencilled out. The revenue guaranteed was $45 a year, or less than three per cent on the expenditure, which would be about $1,676, for a four-inch main.

Aid, Sears was of opinion that the committee could not deal with the petition; it would be a mistake to put down a four-inch main, as it would not give fire protection, stated the superintendent. Hewitt stated that the law compelled the committee to exact six per cent on all outlay. If the general revenue would permit of it, the committee might lay the main by that means.

Aid, Sears considered that it would be an injustice to the other consumers to grant the prayer of the petition as the cost would have to come out of the general revenue.

Aid, Tait held that there should not be a reduction of rates until all citizens desiring water services should be supplied from the surplus money.

All the aldermen present sympathized with the petitioners, but regretted that under the circumstances the prayer of their petition could not be granted.

Aids, Tait and Sears expressed themselves as willing to pay even a higher rate if, by so doing, it would enable those who desired the water service to get it.

Aid, Abbott could not see any way of overcoming the law, so as to grant the request of the petitioners. He moved that no action be taken, which the committee affirmed.

All, Sears brought up the question of what he termed the "exorbitant charge" made for water supplied for hose used during the summer term at Victoria house. The amount, $17.37, was out of proportion to the usual charge.

Superintendent Hewitt stated that the charge was determined by meter. The board could dispense with the meter and pay according to area, by which system the cost would be about $5.

Aid, Sears pointed out that the school was a public building and the water was used to help beautify the city, which fact should appeal to the consideration of the committee.

Aid, Abbott took the ground that in cases where hose was used for sprinkling lawns, and thereby improving the appearance of the city, water should be provided free.

Chairman King did not like to see water used in hose charged for by meter. Superintendent Hewitt said that if $17.37 was considered exorbitant for use of hose in such a wet season as the past proved to be, what would the charge be considered for a dry season?

Aid, Sears said he would recommend the board of education to have a special tap laid in Victoria school, the use of hose, and would see that water for this be charged at the schedule rate.

It was decided to allow the matter to stand until the committee had received a communication from the board of education.

AFTER MARRIAGE.

Different Living Affects Some People.

"I never drank coffee until after I was married," says a lady from Adairville, Ga.

"My husband drank coffee and I thought it was nice to drink with him and we enjoyed it together. After a while I found that my digestive organs were much disturbed, but not knowing the cause, I went on drinking coffee and growing more wretched each day."

In due time, three little girls came to what ought to have been a happy home, but I was nervous and unhappy myself and could not make any use of my little girls' had spasms, and I, a nervous wreck, found it impossible to eat anything that did not hurt my stomach.

"I finally concluded I had heart disease, my heart pained me so much after eating, and my head was so dizzy. I often thought I would fall when trying to walk across the room. After a while I tried a medicine I heard of, and had different doctors treat me, but with no benefit. I could not sleep half the night, and never slept sound—I would wake out of a frightful dream only to doze and wake again."

"Finally, I read of Postum Food Coffee and my husband got a package from our grocer. I made some according to directions. I liked its flavor very much and the first cup seemed to help my stomach. I used it every meal, sometimes making a whole meal on Postum and a bit of bread."

"I improved so fast that I could soon eat anything I wanted. I began to look so much better my friends were surprised and said I looked as well as when I was first married. I could sleep as sweetly as a child. Of course the children quit coffee and I was able to eat anything I liked. I wish I could impress it on every weak, nervous person to abandon coffee and use Postum. I feel that every nervous person could have seen me in my nervous affliction from drinking coffee, and now see me and my little ones around the table enjoying our Postum. They surely would never indulge in coffee again, for there is no more nervous prostration; no more headaches; no more spasms, and I am able to do my own work and care for my children." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

FINAL MATCHES

TO BE PLAYED IN KINGSTON TO-MORROW.

Queen's II. Meet McGill II., and Limestones Have a Brush With Toronto Welleseys—Notes and Comments.

To-morrow's Intercollegiate and O.R.F.U. matches will conclude the rugby season in Kingston. Both are McGill II., playing the final of the intermediate series, and Limestones the O.R.F.U. junior semi-final, with Toronto Welleseys. The latter is a "sudden death game." Queen's II defeated McGill II last Saturday in Montreal by seven to nothing, and should easily win the round. There are great hopes, too, of the Limestones being victorious, and entering the final week hence with either Galt or Hamilton.

Unfortunately both matches will be played in the afternoon, but this was unavoidable. Limestones would have preferred playing at Queen's athletic grounds in the morning, but as the Toronto juniors will not be here in time, the match has to be played on the cricket field. The Kingston teams will likely be composed thus:

Queen's II.—Full-back, Millar; half-backs, Smith, Strachan, Crothers; quarter, Pannell; scrum, Thompson, Gillies, Malloch; wings, Harpell, Patterson, Bailey, Reid, Mahood, Malone, Murphy.

Limestones—Full back, Bews; half-backs, Bearne, Betts, Hiscock, O'Brien, Moxley, Fitzpatrick, Page, Hamilton, Patterson; wings, piked from Robert, Crozier, Clark, Walsh, Varney, O'Brien, Woodrow, O'Leary, Williams.

Notes And Comments. A record crowd will attend the great Harvard-Yale rugby match to-morrow. The play will be about as interesting as a dry sermon on a sultry day.

Over $20,000 in wages have been made in New York on the result of the Yale-Harvard match, which will be played to-morrow. Yale are two to one favorites.

The Canadian rugby team will play Dalhousie and Halifax matches under the English rules on November 29th and December 1st. They sail for England on December 5th.

The Ottawa Rough Riders are talking of a new athletic field. They do not intend to allow the Ottawa College authorities to charge $250 for the use of their oval again.

The Ottawa Citizen announces that Jeanon is apt to drop into rugby again, and that he will assist Ottawa College next season to gain its lost laurels. So long as the "beef syndicate" (apologizes to the Toronto Telegram) holds out, there will be no hope for the college.

The Welleseys will not arrive for to-morrow's match with Limestones till the afternoon train from west. If the train be late, and the match does not start by 2.45 o'clock, as ordered by the O.R.F.U. executive, the Limestones may claim a default, or in case of darkness a protest will be in order, if necessary.

The Intercollegiate Hockey Union will have three senior teams—McGill, Queen's and Varsity, which will play home and home matches. The intermediates will be Lennoxville, McGill II, Queen's II, Royal Military College, Varsity II, Trinity and McMaster. In the latter the first two, second and last the last three will form groups.

There is little likelihood of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union reconsidering its decision regarding the Burnside rules. The matter may be brought up again next year. Queen's are determined not to support any change in the present playing rules, and this will be their decision in spite of the fact that they send representatives to view to-morrow's match in Toronto.

The Journal: George Kennedy has once more announced his retirement, but like wine the big scrimmager gets better with age. The Rough Riders would suffer a great loss if his intentions are carried out, and they are to consider his resignation. Very much of the success attained by the Jub this year was owing to Kennedy.

Killed At Mallorytown. A fatal accident occurred at Mallorytown on Wednesday evening when Miss Susan Goodbody, an aged resident, was struck by a G.T.R. freight train and instantly killed on the crossing. The deceased was one of the oldest school teachers in Leeds county, and on her retirement some years ago received a superannuation allowance from the department of education. She is survived by two brothers and two sisters: William Goodbody, Gannanque; Edward Goodbody and Miss Isabella Goodbody, Mallorytown Landing; and Mrs. McCormack, McIntosh Mills. The deceased, a very estimable lady, was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral took place on Friday, interment being made in the cemetery at Mallorytown.

The Other Side Of It. "It is one thing to declare that the loafers on street corners should be punished and quite another thing to do it," remarked a policeman this morning. "We must first order them to move on. They do so, but as soon as we get to the next corner they move back again. Take a Saturday night for an instance. Two officers patrol a mile beat, taking in Princess street. You can see that these men cannot be everywhere. News of their approach is passed along, and the loafers are gone before the constables get near them. We have often, in the past, summoned loafers to court, but they gave excuses for their conduct and were let off. As soon as they got out side the court room they laughed at us, and the action of the court only made our work all the more difficult. You saw the stand the boys they gave every man on the force. We have some encouragement now to go ahead and do better work, knowing that our efforts will not be wasted."

A Poor Business Week. Trade has been very quiet in the city this week. In fact, several merchants declare that this has been the poorest week for business that they have experienced in years. The disagreeable weather and bad roads are mainly responsible, inasmuch as they prevent the farmers from coming into the city.

Want Police Protection. Last night some persons on mischief lent, tore down the signs, bunting, etc., outside the Prohibition Campaign rooms on Princess street. The damage amounted to seven or eight dollars. This morning, Rev. Mr. Boyd, the secretary, reported the matter to the police, and asked Chief Bailie that protection be given the place.

J. C. R. Superintendent Here. J. E. Price, general superintendent of the Intercolonial railway of Canada, was in the city on Wednesday and Thursday in company with General Manager Pottinger on business connected with the Locomotive Works. During his stay in the city, Mr. Price was the guest of his nephew, J. A. Lawrence, the Y.M.C.A. general secretary, at his home on Alfred street.

They Mean Business. It looks as though Gillies Bros., of Brasserie, mean business, and that they will eventually have cement works in operation. Besides the purchase of the Harkness farm, north east of the Grand Trunk Junction, for which they paid $3,000, handing over ten per cent of the purchase money, they have offered a farmer named Abbott, whose land adjoins the Harkness farm, $1,700 for his plot; he is considering the offer. In addition they have offered another farmer, who owns a piece of land contiguous to the above farms, $800 for the lot.

Reduced By One-Third. At yesterday's meeting of the water works committee, in answer to a question by Alderman Sears, Superintendent Hewitt stated that in 1887, in which year the city acquired the system, there were 900 consumers, with an annual revenue of $25,000. Now there are 3,500 consumers, with an annual revenue of $30,000. Consumers now get their water supply for one-third the cost as under the old system. Of the present revenue, $5,500 goes towards redeeming debentures. When these have been paid off, the consumers will "get their supply for about one-half the present cost."

In The Y.M.C.A. Rooms. Eight applications for the position of janitor have already been received. AN ANSWER MADE.

To Kansas Man's Statements Re Prohibition. The temperance meeting held in Cooke's Presbyterian church last night was well attended. John McIntyre, K.C., occupied the chair. Rev. A. Laird read the deliverances of the general assembly and the presbytery of Kingston upon the subject. W. P. E. Ferguson then delivered an able address, first answering the statements of the Kansas man as published in Tuesday's Whig. He endeavored to show that there was no truth in the statements. Those that had in their face any appearance of truth were only half truths. The man who uttered them, he went on to say, was not competent to analyze facts and give causes therefor. The speaker declared that prohibition could have no effect on the price of wheat in the Kansas market because the price was ruled by the outside world. A fall in the market was caused by the speculators getting a "corner" on wheat. The speaker took up each of the Kansas man's arguments in turn, and sought to show that they were unfounded and illogical.

Mr. Ferguson then, for an hour or more, launched forth into a general exposition of the temperance question, quoting from many authorities and marshalling statistics gleaned from many fields of information. He declared that prohibition would not mean a diminution in the revenue of the country, and that it would not be a disadvantage to the community.
