

AT FIRST GLANCE
It Would Appear That Local Remedies Would Be Best For Cure of Cataract.

It would seem at first glance that cataract being a disease of the mucous membrane, at salves, sprays, etc., being applied directly to the membranes of the nose and throat, would be the most rational treatment but this has been proven not to be true.

The mucous membrane is made and repaired from the blood and cataract is a blood disease and any remedy to make a permanent cure must act on the blood, and when the blood is purified from catarrhal poison, the secretions from the mucous membrane will become natural and healthy.

In this climate, thousands of people seem scarcely ever free from some form of cataract. It gets better at times but each winter becomes gradually deeper seated and after a time the sufferer resigns himself to it as a necessary evil.

Cataract cures are almost as numerous as cataract sufferers, but are nearly all so inconvenient and ineffective as to render their use a nuisance nearly as annoying as cataract itself; anyone who has used douches, sprays and powders will bear witness to their inconvenience and failure to really cure.

There are a number of excellent internal remedies for cataract, but probably the best and certainly the safest is a new remedy, composed of Iodine, Blood Root and similar antiseptic remedies and other valuable cataract specifics.

This remedy is in tablet form, pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Cataract Tablets, and any one suffering from cataract, opiate nor any poisonous mineral whatever.

A leading druggist in Albany speaking of cataract cures says, "I have sold various cataract cures for years, but have never sold any which gave such general satisfaction as Stuart's Cataract Tablets. They contain in a pleasant, concentrated form all the best and latest cataract remedies, and cataract sufferers, who have used douches, sprays and salves, have been astonished at the quick relief and permanent results obtained after a week's use of Stuart's Cataract Tablets."

TO BUY HELMETS FOR USE OF THE BRAVE FIREMEN.

Old Horse to be Sold and New One Purchased—What the Insurance Underwriters Want—No Action Taken.

A regular meeting of the civic committee on fire and light was held in the city engineer's office, Friday afternoon. Those attending were: Chairman Bell, Ald. McCammon, Klug, Craig, and Harkness, with City Engineer Kirkpatrick.

An account for forty-three bags of oats at sixty-five cents per bag, bought at different times, was presented and passed.

A letter and catalogue from S. F. Hayward & Co., New York, were presented. The catalogue quoted prices of aluminum helmets and other supplies for firemen. The committee some time ago considered the question of purchasing fire proof helmets for the firemen. The Hayward firm quoted a price of $5.52 each, in lading duty, freight to be added. Chairman Bell said that about twelve helmets would be required.

After a short discussion, it was moved by Ald. Harkness that twelve aluminum helmets be purchased, the total cost not to exceed $67. Carried.

John A. Gardiner called the attention of the committee to the necessity of making such improvements to the fire department as would ensure the city being kept in class "A" of the insurance schedule.

Ald. Craig asked what was meant by the assertion that some water mains would not stand a direct pressure from the pumping station.

The city engineer replied that the Underwriters had asked that a valve be placed on the water main at the pumping station could be obtained in the event of fire. Some of the old mains would not stand the pressure demanded, 200 pounds; they now stand a pressure of about eighty pounds. The steam fire engines develop a pressure of about 200 pounds.

Ald. King informed the members that the question of increased insurance rates had been considered by the water works committee. At his request the city had written to the secretary of the fire insurance Underwriters enquiring as to what would be necessary to be done here in order to secure reduction of the rates.

The secretary's reply stated that the underwriters would recognize improvements to the fire apparatus that would warrant the reduction of the rate by five per cent. But this reduction would only be granted after a thorough inspection and approval of the fire appliances and water works system, and upon condition that these would be found satisfactory. The letter stated in conclusion, that if insurance business in Ontario is not found more profitable in the future than in the past, the Underwriters might find it necessary to again increase the rates.

Ald. King gave the committee some information touching the making up of the insurance rates. There is a standard charge of fifty-eight cents to begin with, and then there are other charges due to local conditions. There was not any guarantee that, in the event of the city going to considerable expense to meet the further demands of the Underwriters, the rate would not soon after be again increased.

Chairman Bell stated that Kingston was in class "A" of the insurance schedule, and was affected by the rates which the underwriters imposed upon all cities. Kingston was not made an exception of.

Ald. Harkness expressed the opinion that it was high time that the city began to think about carrying its own insurance. To which Chairman Bell replied that a committee of the council already had that question under consideration.

On motion of Ald. Craig, "no action" was decided upon Mr. Gardiner's letter.

Chairman Bell announced that he had been offered $110 for one of the grey horses of the fire department, the one that became nervous when used on any of the appliances. A good horse, which could be purchased reasonably, had been secured free of charge to do work in the department for the time being. Another horse was laid up sick, awaiting the growing of a new hoof. The committee thought well of the chairman's suggestion, that the grey horse be sold and a new one purchased, and on motion of Ald. Craig a sub-committee, comprising the chairman, Aldermen McCammon, Harkness, together with the veterinary surgeon of the department, was appointed to exchange the grey horse in question, for the horse the chairman had in view, the cost not to exceed $25.—Carried.

Alderman Harkness wanted a new pair of wheels purchased for the hook and ladder truck, but the committee thought the matter might well be left to the incoming committee to deal with.

Chief Elmer said that a pair of ball-bearing wheels would cost about $160 or $200. A pair of ordinary wheels would cost about $80.

THE WARDEN'S ADDRESS.

At the Final Session of the County Council.

Warden Spoor made this address to the county council at its closing session, Saturday morning:

"Before leaving the chair, I wish to thank the members of the council for the great honor conferred on me in January last, and for their hearty co-operation in transacting the business of the county the ensuing year.

"I appreciate your vote of thanks to me gentlemen, and beg to add that, while I have endeavored to be fair and just to all, the unflinching courtesy with which you have always treated me, has made my duties as presiding officer of this council comparatively easy.

"I congratulate this council on the fine appearance and condition of our county buildings, which are a credit to Frontenac and to your efforts as councillors. The Kirkpatrick memorial fountain towards the completion of which you have generously voted of the county funds, has greatly improved the appearance of your court house and grounds. In connection with the erection of this very fitting tribute to a worthy man, I desire to make special mention of the efforts put forth by E. J. B. Pense.

"I am pleased to say that the finances of the county are in a healthy state, notwithstanding extraordinary expenses, during the past four years, and I think that the council of 1903, will be in a position to reduce the county rate. Our present system of financing as shown by the special audit has proved very satisfactory.

"It will be to the lasting credit of this council, that they have taken the first step in dealing with the much discussed question of tolls, and while the scheme presented may not be approved by all, yet I confidently expect that the matter will be finally adjusted, so as to deal justly with every municipality in the county.

"I cannot close without expressing my personal regret at the loss which this council and county sustained in the death of our esteemed colleague, the late George Wright Arain. I thank you for your strict attention to business during the year and for the valuable assistance you have rendered me in carrying out the duties of my office."

SPECIAL AUDIT SHOWS COUNTY FINANCES IN GOOD ORDER.

Grants to Charitable Institutions—Ask Government to Establish a School of Forestry Here.

The county council met again on Friday afternoon. On motion of Councillors Toner and Avery, these nominating officers were appointed for the January elections: J. G. Foster, Archibald Hutton Joyceville; No. 2, James Russell, Wolfe Island; No. 3, William Blacklock, Glenburnie; No. 4, Hugh Croighton, Snylenham; No. 5, Joseph Rogers, Burridge; No. 6, Alexander Munro, Arroy.

William J. Maday addressed the council, regarding auctioneer's licenses in the county, and on motion of Councillors Sproule and Pillar, the clerk was instructed to look into the matter and report at the January session.

The Queen's bonus by-law account was settled at $735.

These grants were made to the charitable institutions: General Hospital, $700; Hotel Dieu, $100; Infants' Home, $75; House of Providence, $100; House of Industry, $75; Orphans' Home, $75. The General Hospital receives 100 more than last year, and the Infants' Home and Orphans' Home each an increase of $25.

J. S. R. McCann, appointed to make a special audit of the county accounts from July, 1897, to November 1st, reported this:

"In accordance with your instructions I have made a special audit of the books of your treasurer, David Purdy, covering the period from the date of the last special audit, viz, July 13th, 1897, to October 31st, 1902, and beg to report:

"I have traced all entries from the cash book and journal to the ledger and found each item to be correctly posted.

An account in the name of the county is opened in the Ontario Bank to which all moneys received are deposited and all payments made by cheque. The balance, in the bank to the credit of the county on the 31st of October, 1902, is $2,233.94.

"I would recommend by your auditor and finance committee and passed by the council before payment, and that a by-law be passed to give this effect.

"An account of Joseph Doust for supplies for jailer in October is missing, a duplicate for which has been written for.

"There has been borrowed from the bank the sum of $10,000 to meet present requirements; this will be met by the county rate which is payable in December. As the finances of the county are improving each year, it is not likely that your treasurer will require to borrow money in future.

"I submit herewith, a cash statement of receipts and disbursements for the period above mentioned, showing a balance on hand of $145.44.

"I have to report the payment of an account of $41 for linoleum for jailer's quarters in June last, which is illegal.

"As accounts at this date in the ledger are open a complete report cannot be made until the close of the year, at which time I beg leave to make my final report. I wish to bear testimony to the courtesy and attention shown me by your treasurer, whose books and papers are kept with neatness and accuracy, facilitating the work of your auditor—very material.

"Mr. McCann gave the assets as $170,683.56, the liabilities as $137,613.95, and the surplus as $33,069.61. On December 31st next, he said, after this year's taxes had been paid, the county would have a clear cash surplus of $29,062.

Councillor Avery expressed satisfaction that the county affairs were found to be going on so smoothly. If a general audit were made every few years, it would be a good protection to the county. Hitherto, the council had been too stingy in that regard, and the long time it had taken. The amount being paid to Mr. McCann, he said, was not too much for a man of his ability.

On motion of Councillors Pillar and Toner, the special auditor's report was adopted.

Moved by Councillor Wood, seconded by Councillor Reynolds, that the

IN HUMANITY'S NAME

I Ask You to Tell Me a Sick One Who Needs Help.

No money is wanted. I ask simply a postal card stating which book to send, I will do all the rest, and accept all the risk, to see that your friend gets well.

I will do this:—I will mail the sick one an order—good at any drug store—for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. He may take it a month at my risk. If it succeeds, it costs $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself. And the sick one's mere word shall decide it.

I do what so that those who need help will accept it. I have that those sick ones must have to get well, and I want them to have it. I make my offer so fair that no sick one can neglect it.

I do just as I say, and trust the cured ones to be fair with me. I have furnished my Restorative to hundreds of thousands on these terms, and 25 out of each 40 have paid gladly, because they were cured. I want not a penny otherwise.

My Restorative is my "discovery," the result of my lifetime's work. I have personally tested it in thousands of cases as difficult as physicians ever met. In my vast experience I have so perfected it that it does not fail, save when a cause-like cancer—makes a cure impossible.

My success comes from strengthening the inside nerves. Common treatments merely doctor the organs, and the best results are but temporary. My treatment restores the nerve power which alone makes those organs act. It is like giving a weak engine more steam. Any weak vital organ does its duty when given the power to act, and there is no other way to make weak organs well.

No other remedy strengthens weak inside nerves, and for this reason there is no other treatment for chronic diseases which any man will offer on a plan like mine. Please tell me who needs a remedy like that.

Simply state which book you want, and address Dr. Shoop, Box 40, Racine, Wis.

The Toronto Telegram makes a very bad break when it remarks in reference to the opposition by Queen's and McGill to the snap back system: "They are not at all familiar with the game, and went it blindly in opposition to something they knew so little about as to be utterly incompetent to judge of it." Well, if they knew nothing about the new game, and were incompetent to judge, how then could they be supposed to vote blindly in favor of it? Their course in opposing the unknown new, and sticking to the known old, was the wise method. The Telegram must admit the logic of this.
