He was born in Prince Edward about sixty years ago. Deceased was a member of the Masonic order and the A.O.U.W., an adherent of the Church of England, and a man much respected by those who knew him. A widow and one son survive.

Gave Three Reasons.

There was a very large attendance at the temperance lecture in the City hall last evening when W. P. Ferguson discussed the merits of prohibition. He appealed to the citizens to abolish the bar rooms for three reasons: For self, neighbors, and Christ. A chorus of children, under the direction of Arthur Ellis, rendered three songs very acceptably.

The tent grown Sumatra crop has cured finely, and growers expect better prices than were procured in 1901. The sales are below the usual volume, but growers expect remunerative prices before spring.

A TEMPERANCE LESSON FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS

From the Local Prohibition Committee.

To-morrow is the day appointed by the International Sunday committee for "The World's Temperance Lesson." The text is Isaiah xxvii, 1-7. If you read it, you will find that drinking intoxicating liquors was a curse 7,000 years ago, as it is now. They cannot be taken as beverages, without making drunkards.
