STRICTURE

I guarantee my Latest Method Treatment to be a permanent and positive cure for Varicocele and Stricture, without cutting, stretching or loss of time. In Varicocele I absorb the bagging, or wormy condition, equalize circulation, stop pains in the groin, also all drains, thereby giving the organs their proper nutrition, vitalizes the parts and restores lost power. In Stricture I absorb the Stricture tissue, stop penetrating sensation, arrhythmic weakness, backache, etc., while in all prostatic troubles it is the treatment of excellence. So positive am I that my treatment will cure you, you see.

PAY WHEN CURED
You need pay nothing until you are convinced that a thorough and complete cure has been established. This should convince you that I have confidence in my Latest Method Treatment, otherwise I could not make you this proposition. It makes no difference who has failed to cure you, call or write me.

The Late Mrs. A. G. Davey.
At about 12.30 p.m. on November 10th, Ellen Eliza Davey, nee Ella Walker, of Enterprise, passed quietly to rest from toils and cares of this world, to her place among the angels. She was thirty-eight years of age and had been a member of the Methodist church here for over twenty-five years. During her earlier life, shortly before her marriage and for a short time after her marriage she was a faithful worker in both the church and Sunday school. She leaves a husband and four small children, two boys and two girls, to mourn her loss, besides numerous friends and acquaintances. She was universally liked by all who knew her.

Ladies were out in force at the city hall on Saturday night. They enjoyed the debate.

THE CHURCHES.

THE WORKMEN WENT TO BETHEL CHURCH

And Heard An Able Discourse—Prohibition a Topic in Churches—Dean Norton at St. George's.

On Sunday morning the United Workmen of the city attended divine service at Bethel Congregational church. There was a splendid turnout of the members, including about 150 of the many who occupied the centre pews of the church. The pastor, Rev. D. N. Morden, welcomed them on behalf of the officials and congregation of the church. He reviewed the history of the order, and commented favorably upon the good work it had done and was still doing. The preacher's able sermon that followed, was based upon the text "God forbid that I should glory except in the cross of Christ." He laid especial emphasis on principle that the cross represented self-sacrifice—the living for other's good. The A.O.U.W. was an illustration of this principle that meant so much for mankind. They existed that they might help their brethren. Special music was prepared for the occasion. A quartet composed of Messrs. Arthur Ellis, Mr. Robertson, of Queen's College, Sergt. Grey and A. D. Nelson, of St. Paul's church choir, rendered two selections which were much appreciated.

St. George's Cathedral.
The preacher at matins at St. George's cathedral on Sunday was Ven. Archdeacon Norton, Montreal, his text being Numbers xxiii, 6, "What hath God wrought." The speaker dwelt upon the fact of the Sunday being the last in the church year, and upon the many blessings which have come in the year about gone. The close of the war, honorable peace, the restoration to health to King Edward, who was proving a sovereign no mean rival to his great mother. We should recognize the fact that these blessings, and our liberty and just administration, were from God, and render him the thanks of noble Christian life.

At evening, the Lord Bishop of Ontario preached eloquently from Canticles ii, 16, "My Beloved is mine and I am His." Of the numerous songs of Solomon, only this beautiful one is preserved to us. It is called the song of songs, and is no mere love song, but is typical of the relationship of Christ and His church. The bishop divided the text into two parts, the first showing the relationship of Christ to the individual and to the church, the latter half showing the relationship of the church and the individual to Christ. The preacher elaborated both these points.

Prohibition Day.
Yesterday was prohibition day in the First Baptist church. The temperance lesson was taken up during the Sunday school hour, and at the re-assembling of the school, the Rev. Anglin presented by special invitation, a very interesting talk on the "Physiological Aspect of the Prohibition Question." Then followed a brief programme of prohibition exercises. There was a recitation by Master Jack Dickson, a song by Master Harold Singleton, a reading by Miss Abell, a chorale by the school, and a telling prohibition cartoon in chalk by Miss Jean Laing.

In the evening, the pastor spoke strongly in favor of the Liquor Act of 1902. He pointed out the obligation resting upon every voter to exercise his franchise on the present occasion. The electorate, said Mr. Laing is the power behind the government. If by our government makes our laws, we make the government. It is now our privilege to say whether the saloon with its attendant evils shall be continued or not. As Christian men we owe it to our country, to our fellow citizens, to the homes of our province to ourselves and to our Saviour, to banish the bar-room evil, by marking our ballots in the "Yes" column or Dec. 4th.

Church Paragraphs.
The venerable Archdeacon of Montreal will preach in St. James' church next Sunday morning.

Rev. Prof. Macnaughton preached in St. Andrew's church on Sunday morning, and Rev. Prof. Ferguson in the evening.

A week of prayer has been arranged to be held in St. George's cathedral during next week. Services will be held each evening.

During the offertory at service in St. James' church last evening Miss B. Tandy rendered in good voice and sweet effect Allison's beautiful solo, "Like as the Heart Desires."

In St. John's church, Port-mouth last evening, Rev. J. O. Crisp preached a sermon in favor of prohibition.

PEACE IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Ring softly, bells; life blooms from death to-day;
Your notes remind sad hearts of lonely
On furrowed fields of battle far away.
That mutely say: "His sacrifice that saves."
Then softly sing on this calm summer air,
"Mid falling bloom, where fruits will soon appear;
Tell of the ceasing of war's huge battle,
And victories of peace, sublime and near.

Ring softly, bells; good comes through toil and tears;
The heritage we claim of Freedom's
dower
Is fruitage of the struggle of long years.
Born of the dying throes of cherished
power,
And in fields now ploughed by cruel war
More splendid fruits than e'er those lands could show
Will prove that not the greatest ill by far
Is brave surrender to a worthy foe.

Ring softly, bells, a sacred Sabbath day,
From lofty tower and from temple tower;
Your notes foretell the coming of that day
When truth and grace shall wield imperial power.
When Justice, with her even scales in hand,
Shall order the world extend her boundless sway.
While Mercy's wings, outspread o'er every land,
Shall herald in the world's millennial day,
Toronto, 1902. W. H. Porter.
