

CHANGE OF CLIMATE.

Not Necessary in Order to Cure Catarrh.

The popular idea that the only cure for chronic catarrh is a change of climate, is a mistake because catarrh is found in all climates in all sections of the country...

The treatment by inhalers, sprays, powders and washes has been proven almost useless in making a permanent cure...

A new discovery which is meeting with remarkable success in curing catarrh of the head, throat and bronchial tubes and also catarrh of the stomach...

My nostrils were almost always clogged and I had to breathe through the mouth causing an inflamed, irritated throat.

My druggist advised me to try a fifty cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of Catarrh by the use of these tablets...

I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head.

With our children we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets to ward off croup and colds and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy.

THE FIRST PAPER

IN KINGSTON WENT TO PRESS IN 1810.

A Sketch of the Beginning of Kingston Journalism—Gazette For a Time Was Only Paper in Ontario.

W. A. Craik, in Toronto Printer and Publisher. On September 25th, 1810, the first newspaper published in the historic old "Limestone City" of Kingston went to press.

In 1810 there were but two other newspapers in the whole of Upper Canada, and these were soon destined to become extinct, leaving The Kingston Gazette the sole representative of the power of the press in the western province.

Hitherto no name has been mentioned in connection with The Gazette, but it is now time to revert to Kingston's pioneer printer, Stephen Miles. Just as Montreal owes its Gazette to an American, Benjamin Franklin, so Kingston owes its first newspaper to a native of New England.

A BRIEF REVIEW

OF THE VARIOUS SPORTING DOINGS.

Ground Cleared of Snow for Hamilton-Limestone Match—'Frenchy' Guay Thought a Stomach Was the Football.

The Queen's inter-year rugby match, scheduled for yesterday afternoon, did not take place.

The Hamilton rugby grounds were cleared of snow this morning, and sawdust scattered over the field.

The rink at Sault Ste. Marie has an ice surface of 186 feet by 64 feet. There is excellent accommodation for spectators.

Western paper declares that in Hamilton they don't play lacrosse, only second rate association football and hockey, and have but a stove factory baseball club.

The Peterboro Ladies' Golf championship was played between Mrs. E. M. Dennistoun and Mrs. Peter Campbell.

The Port Perry club has applied for admission to the O.H.A. intermediate series. Port Perry was in the Midland League last year, and won the trophy at the Markham tournament.

During the course of the week, Canine Commissioner Conley has gathered up half a dozen stray dogs. The merchants declare that there are a couple of hundred more he should look after.

George Booth, engineer of the SS; Bannockburn, when leaving on his last trip from Kingston, stated that he never expected to see his little girl live again.

For a year or more the upper end of John street, near Victoria street, was in a bad condition of repair, being full of pitch-holes.

Toronto Telegram: Kingston Limestone are assured of a merry time in Hamilton, for the Young Tigers have to give them a guarantee of $100. And when a Hamilton team have to take $100 worth out of their opponents in a single afternoon their actions leave little to be desired.

Peterboro is very badly in need of an athletic ground where a gate can be collected, which would relieve the management of the very unpleasant duty of constantly begging for money for or passing around the collection plate, which gives the Peterboro gridiron the appearance of a religious camp-meeting.

The winning of the Ontario, Quebec and Dominion rugby championships by Ottawa teams makes the twenty-fifth time that city has harbored a football championship since 1855.

Any one who is seeking a trustworthy and efficient executor and trustee to appoint in a will cannot do better than name The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, Toronto, whose business standing and experience in the handling of estates and estate moneys insures satisfactory results.

PERSONAL MENTION. Movements of The People—What They Are Saying and Doing.

Miss Mammie Wilmut, Bittersley, is visiting the Misses Whitney, Brock street.

James Deley, assistant collector of canal tolls at Ottawa, returned to the city yesterday.

Herb, Reymor and "Bike" Young left at noon today for Pittsburgh, Pa., to locate.

Mrs. Clara Taylor, Gananoque, returned home yesterday after spending a day or so in the city.

Frank Ely will leave early next week for McLeod, Man., to take up work on a cattle ranch.

Thomas Julian, Montreal, a former employee of Richardson Bros., is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. (Dr.) Stevenson and Mrs. (Dr.) Crow, Trenton, are in the city, to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Whiting.

Alderman Frank Taylor, of Ottawa, formerly a teller in the local branch of the Standard bank, is visiting in the city.

Edwards, Montreal, Bath, contemplates removing to Winnipeg in the spring. He owns valuable city property there and can better look after it by living in the west.

In Everybody's Mouth. "Tell me," said Mr. Watson, in examining a witness in the Lennox election trial at Napanee, "how the election of whiskey came to be introduced into your conversation?"

"Oh, everybody's talking about whiskey these days," jeeringly remarked Justice Osler, whereat the audience smiled broadly.

The same learned judge also checked the learned counsel, who was examining a witness, by asking him to "cut out" superlative questions. "This sticks" was another phrase the justice used in referring to evidence. "I desire to let the case rest on the evidence already submitted; you have heard it as presented," said counsel. "Oh, yes, we've heard it, and are sorry for it," replied Justice Osler.

This A Dangerous Place. "That bridge at Carrington's tannery is most dangerous," said a Ray of Quinze conductor yesterday. "The only accident that has more fatalities do not occur there. There are no warning signals on either side of the bridge, as there are on the G.T.R. track, to notify the trackman of its approach to the bridge. We had it necessary to frequently warn our men of this danger. However, when the whistle blows for 'on-tracks' a man anxious to do his duty will hurry out on top of the train, never thinking of the danger when he approaches the bridge. The bridge should either be raised or removed altogether."

"Bibby's" Overcoats. "Bibby's." If you want to pay $10 or $12.50 for an overcoat, you will have to buy an eye-opener. The H. D. Bibby Co.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Newly Paragraphs Picked Up By Reporters On Their Rounds.

Catawqui river, north of the bridge, is frozen over.

Read Harrison Co's list of Christmas gifts. Many are buying and having them stored until Christmas.

The "Span of Life" company gave a fine performance at this afternoon's matinee. The play will again be presented to-night.

It would be well for the purchasing public of Kingston to read our ad and strike for the store quickly and share in the many bargains Starr & Sutcliffe are offering.

The Carnovsky Wood Manufacturing company has about completed three mantels for Rev. Fr. Spratt's new presbytery on Wolfe Island.

The Sunday school rally in the City and Ontario halls to-morrow. Don't forget it. Doors open at 2:45 o'clock. Meetings begin at 3 o'clock.

It is said that ping-pong has been introduced among the members of the 11th Regiment. Is this to be taken as a sign that the regiment is retrogressing?

Summons have been issued requiring a number of citizens to appear before the police magistrate to answer the charge of keeping dogs without the necessary tags.

QUEEN'S NEWS.

TWO SOCIAL FUNCTIONS HELD LAST NIGHT.

Candidates For Alma Mater Presidency—Neglect to Wear Gowns in Classes Will Not be Tolerated.

The sophomore year in arts and science held an "At Home" in the new arts building last night. Darning took place in the reading room on the ground floor, while promenading went mostly on through the corridors.

There was fine-pong for those of indoor sportive tastes. Two orchestras filled the building with sweet music, and a caterer filled the palate desires of the large assembly. The patronesses were Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Shortt and Mrs. Goodwin.

The medical students also had a merry time last night. Their annual social entertainment, which has in the years past been held in their "den," was transferred to the dining hall of the Grand Union Hotel. A night of revelry was spent beneath the roof of hospitable Peter Devlin, who furnished the medicals with refreshments galore. Songs and speeches constituted a happy programme.

The Alma Mater annual elections are near at hand. They take place next Saturday, and a lively contest for the presidency is anticipated. The senior year in arts have brought forth G. B. McLennan, B.A., as their Goliath, while the Aesculapian Society have chosen J. H. Laidlaw, B.A., to be the standard-bearer of the skull and cross-bones. It is some time since Queen's had a good presidential battle.

The Arts Society has found it necessary to place on record its disapproval of the growing neglect to wear gowns at classes. The time was when the students were not only gowned, but also required to wear the mortar board, and this academic costume was worn to and from college. Fifteen years ago the mortar board fell into disuse.

The college regulations require gowns to be worn at classes, and the late Principal Grant always insisted upon it. Of late, the neglect has grown, and the Arts' Society's disapproval should have the desired effect. The medical and science students have never been required to be gowned; only the arts and divinity students have.

Secretary Melnes, of the athletic committee, expects to present his report to the Alma Mater Society this evening on the financial result of the present rugby season, which has been the best in the history of the college.

The report of the secretary of the Michigan medical board of registration shows that Queen's graduates, applying for admission, head the list of successful candidates, who were from many United States and Canadian medical colleges.

A Beautiful Apostrophe. To-morrow is Sunday, ever blessed and beautiful. Welcome to the halcyon influence, after six wearying days of business and selfish cares. Three welcome divinely appointed days of sweet repose and sweeter meditation, assayer of the world's thoughts, chastener of the world's desires, exalter of the world's reflections—but think to foster a deeper and purer life, in which the soul shall fold itself to expand in infinite light and knowledge and joy.
