SHE ESCAPED THE KNIFE.

Ten Months of Peace After Dreadful Suffering.

Operations are becoming a fad; every young man, as soon as he is graduated from a medical college, considers himself capable of undertaking the most serious and complicated surgical work, and hundreds of lives are sacrificed annually to this mad frenzy of incompetent men, to rush into work which should only be undertaken as a last resort, and then only by the most experienced and careful surgeons.

It is a pleasure, in view of these facts, to read the following letter from a woman who has been saved from one of these dangerous operations. "I know I should have informed you long ago regarding my case of piles and the good done me, and I believe I am cured. Last December I sent for your book. I have never been bothered since then, and before I had suffered for the last eleven years, and at the time I wrote I had given birth to a child, and they came down with the delivery of the child by the handful. I could not get them back and I suffered everything; and the doctor said nothing but an operation would ever relieve me; but I read of your remedy in our daily newspaper and I told my husband to get me a box and I would give it a trial before consenting to the knife, and thanks be to your wonderful medicine, I was saved from the operating table.

Every person suffering from piles that my husband and myself hear of, we recommend your wonderful medicine. I just used one $1.00 box of Pyramid Ointment and two boxes of Pyramid Pills, and I was, I hope, completely cured. If they ever show the slightest return I will certainly get some more of medicine, but I hardly think I will need any more for it will be a year the 8th day of December, since I had them and that makes it ten months and past now. Thanking you again and wishing you abundant success, I remain, Mrs. S. Hodgson, 105 W 17th St., Des Moines, Iowa."

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package or will be mailed to any address on receipt of price, by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich. Write this firm for little book describing the cause and cure of piles.

KINGSTON GAVE 97 MAJORITY AGAINST.

For 1483, Against 1580—At The Prohibition Rooms—The Liquor Men Disappointed — Stuffed Ballot Boxes.

On Thursday the Kingston electorate, by a majority of ninety-seven votes, decided against prohibition. To the question of the Ontario government, Are you in favor of bringing into effect the Liquor Act of 1902? there were 1,483 voters who answered Yes, and 1,580 who said No.

The contest was warmly waged, and the interest became keener after the prohibitionists had effected the arrest of two alleged personators and were hot on the trail of several others. Never were the two parties so well organized, each realizing that the fight was to the death. But the liquor men were far more confident, and, before the polls closed, declared that they would have 400 majority. Accordingly, the result was somewhat disappointing to them. The prohibitionists, however, were jubilant, as they had not anticipated getting so large a vote as that recorded on their side.

Compared with the vote in 1898 the prohibitionists gained over 300, while the anti-prohibitionists just held their own. Of course it is to be remembered that the antis did not require to vote. The result depended entirely upon how many votes were cast in favor of the act, and not upon a majority. In order to contribute her share of the provincial vote, Kingston required to secure 1,980, but this number was not reached by much less than 500. However, its realization was never expected.

The vote cast here in 1898 was 2,710, while the present one totalled 3,063, an increase of 353. The anti-prohibition majority of 417 in 1898 was pulled down to below the 100 mark.

At five o'clock in the evening, a large crowd assembled in front of the Whig office to watch the result of the day's voting bulletined. A constant round of cheering was maintained as the returns were one by one posted. At first the tide seemed to be strongly in favor of the liquor party, the down town polls rolling up a majority of 200 when half the returns were received. Then when the up-town results came to hand, this majority gradually decreased, dropping at the lowest to sixty-two, and then advancing to ninety-seven, the final result.

The prohibitionists went home to their evening meal quite happy over their campaign work and the result of the day's voting. The figures by subdivisions and wards are:

At The Prohibition Rooms.

Scores of citizens gathered outside the prohibition committee rooms, last evening, to learn the returns as they were posted on the windows. Many of the hardest workers in the cause were inside the rooms, including Rev. John Boyd, the energetic campaign secretary, John McIntyre, K.C., Alderman Francis King, W. J. Savage, Lieut.-Col. Hunter, D. E. Starr, Dr. Lake, and others. Some of them were disappointed at the result, for they expected to get a majority; others were pleased, because the majority against them this time was less than a hundred, while in was over 400 in 1898. That was something to be thankful for, they reasoned.

Alderman King figured up the returns, and arrived at the following totals: For the act, 1,484; against, 1,575; majority against, 91. There were no speeches, and when Rev. Mr. Boyd was asked what his opinion of the result was he replied:

"I am not one whit disappointed. Why, we pulled down the liquor men's majority of 400, in 1898, to 91. And we'll pull that down, too. Deputy returning officers told me a few minutes ago that they were willing to swear that there were about thirty stuffed ballots."

While he was talking the voice of another man was distinctly to be heard, as he talked to a group of workingmen before him. He was young—not more than twenty-five years of age—but bore the marks of a dissipated life.

"I know what it is to like whiskey," he said. "I've chosen a bottle of it instead of my dinner many a time."

"Well, I never cared as much for it as that," remarked a man whose face was black with the dust and dirt of the shops.

"I do, though," went on the young fellow. "I couldn't help it. I can't let it alone when it's around. That's why I wanted to see the act passed and the stuff removed from my sight."

"Men"—it was Rev. Mr. Boyd who was speaking this time—"since I have been in charge of this campaign over 200 men have come in here and said the same thing as this man has. Is it any wonder that we want to wipe the traffic out? Some of them have given me their money to keep, because they knew that they would spend it in drink."

Notes On The Contest.

The vote cast was 896 less than in the Harty-Smythe election of 1898, and 887 less than in the Pense-Shaw election of May last. However, it is fully as large as was expected.

Rev. J. D. Boyd, the prohibition campaign secretary, considers that the prohibitionists really won the battle in Kingston. He points out that the ballot box stuffing and personations gave the anti-side fully 100 more votes than they really were entitled to.

The prohibition scrutineers declare that a peculiar state of things exist as far as the ballot box in No. 5 subdivision, St. Lawrence ward, is concerned. In that division eighty-five men voted, yet when the ballot box was opened it was found to contain ninety-five ballots, all bearing what was supposed to be the deputy-returning officer's signature. One ballot was rejected, because it was marked both "yes" and "no"; seventy-three votes were against prohibition and twenty-one in favor of it. This means that there were twelve stuffed ballots in the box, if the statements of the prohibitionists are correct.

AT THE GRAND.

A Splendid Company And a Small House.

It occasionally happens that a poor attraction draws a crowded house, and that a first-class company is obliged to play to almost vacant seats. That is another illustration of the iron of fate, and it occurred again last evening. Charles A. Taylor's "Queen of the Highway," an excellent attraction put on by a strong company, drew a very small house, whereas it deserved the best support the city could give. "The Queen of the Highway" is a picturesque drama of western life in the '49s. The post-rider, the old-fashioned overland stage coach and many other scenes typical of the wild, free, careless life of the great plains and mountains, were deeply interesting. No more beautiful or appropriate scenery could have been wished for. It is difficult from such a well balanced company to select any individual for special mention. Yet, perhaps, J. L. Ungerer, as Manitona, a renegade Sioux Indian; Albertha Lee, as Rainbow, a half-breed Sioux girl, and W. A. Bechtel, as Cohen, the Hebrew who sold liquor to the Indians, deserve the most credit. Their work was clever, especially that of Ungerer. Charlotte Severson, had a difficult role as the bandit queen, but she played it well. William Trainor, the government scout, Ruth Reuck, a western wild-flower, and George Sharkey, as the hero, lent splendid aid. The play is highly interesting, while the "lucky" Hebrew furnished a healthy streak of humor. It is to be regretted that the play was not more liberally patronized.

DISCOVERY OF COFFEE.

Made by an Arabian Shepherd.

Coffee was first discovered in the sixth century by an Arabian shepherd who having observed the goats of his flock skip about and display other signs of intoxication after eating the coffee berry, concluded to try its effects on himself, and thus discovered its exhilarating property.

This discovery proved the poor shepherd's undoing, for he indiscriminately used large quantities, green, for its exhilarating effect and soon died, poisoned by its use.

In the sixteenth century, it was introduced into France, and was used so strong and excessively, particularly by the Parisians that it was found to injure alike the complexion and digestion. This discovery prevented its general introduction into other European countries for the next century.

Since that period, its growth has gradually spread through the civilized world, despite the fact that pain and destruction follow its path, dyspepsia having been hardly known before its introduction. It is a "nerve stimulant" and narcotic poison, and though in no sense a food, is used for its stimulating principle. Caffeine, which excites the nerves unnaturally and wastes the reserve force of the body. Coffee drives the nerves for a time, stimulating them beyond their natural function, and using up all their reserve force. After the first effects are past, comes breaking down of the nerve centres and general nervous derangement. Following this in many but not all cases is a long train of misery, among which the principal symptoms are dryness in mouth and throat, headache, biliousness, pains in stomach or abdomen, pain in eyes and head, loss of appetite, dyspepsia and so on through a long, long list, but the one cause of all the different symptoms is the same.

The nerves have been broken down; their reserve force is gone. Many of the symptoms of poisoning are—extreme nervousness, restlessness, anguish of mind and heart, excessive relaxation of body and brain, gloominess, inability to think correctly, sleeplessness at night, drowsiness in the morning, etc.

A lady from Sebastopol, Cal., writes, "I was a sick and poisoned woman when I began to use Postum Food Coffee in place of coffee and after two years' steady use, I find that Postum soothes the nerves and builds them up, storing reserve force and strength for time of need, enabling one to sleep well, awake refreshed and bright for each day's task; it digests easily, builds and tones up the stomach and also builds up a good, strong brain, ready for any mental strain or toil." CITY MATTERS

CONSIDERED BY THE BOARD OF WORKS.

Alleged That Property Owners in Clergy Street West Are Exempt From Payment of Sewer Rental—Request of the Street Railway Company Considered.

Around the oblong table in the office of the city engineer were gathered Aldermen McLeod, chairman; Craig, Macfarlane, McCammon, Walkem, City Solicitor McIntyre and City Engineer Kirkpatrick, at a regular convocation of the board of works, Thursday afternoon.

The first item of business considered was a communication from D. A. Givens, in behalf of property owners of Clergy street west, complaining that recently the property owners had been called upon to pay charges for use of a sewer in that street, which was an injustice, as the land had been given by the owners for the street and sewer, on the condition that they would not be asked to pay for the street construction or use of the sewer.

Mr. Givens was in attendance and presented statutory declarations, setting forth the above facts, and showing the property owners to have the right to use the sewer, free of charge, in consideration of having given the land for street and sewer. Mr. Givens maintained that there was no documentary evidence in the city's archives to show that the city had ever acquired the Wadsworth land, comprising the westerly portion of Clergy street west, at the time of the street opening being owned by R. J. Carson. Mr. Carson had asked the council $550 for the land.

Mr. Givens went into the question in minute detail and made out a strong case for the property owners.

Chairman McLeod pointed out that the matter was one of great importance, but one almost entirely involving points of law.

Upon resolution of Ald. Craig, the question was referred to the city engineer and city solicitor for a report.

The recommendation of the board of health, that a sewer be constructed in Rideau street north, to drain houses Nos. 172 to 184, on sanitary grounds, was next considered.

The city engineer stated that he had inspected the property affected and he was of opinion that a sewer was a necessity; the houses drain into a crevice in the rock. There are a couple of cases of diphtheria in the neighborhood.

The construction of the sewer was recommended to council, on motion of Ald. Macfarlane.

The cross petition of property owners in Upper William street, against the construction of a sewer in that thoroughfare, was ordered fyled. It was also decided to bring into council a resolution, asking that the Upper William street sewer question be re-opened for further consideration.

It was decided, on motion of Ald. Craig, to grant the request of William Newlands, and to remove a tree fronting the new residence of Dr. Sands.

The request of the street railway company for permission to stop cars in front of the opera house, and asking that the city build a crossing from the curbing on the south side of the street to the street company's rails, was considered in great detail.

Ald. Walkem moved that the request be granted and that a crossing be constructed.

Ald. Craig moved in amendment that the question of constructing a crossing be deferred.

The engineer stated that a wooden crossing would cost about $23.

Ald. McFarland considered the outlay too great for a temporary walk.

Ald. Craig favored a permanent crossing, but in the failure of supplying this, he considered that if the street was kept swept, it would answer the purpose for the time being.

It was suggested that the crossing be constructed if the company would take up the blind switch at that point and straighten the used track, but this was not acted upon.

The city solicitor informed the board that it was within the power of the city to construct a crossing there and to allow the company to stop cars there, for the purpose of taking on and letting off passengers. If the company allowed the cars to stand on the track at that point longer than was necessary to take on or let off passengers, it could assume the risk of prosecution under the terms of its agreement with the city.

Ald. Craig's amendment was carried, Ald. McCammon refusing to vote, but being opposed to a temporary walk.

The complaint of E. C. Hiscock, that he was charged for forty-four feet frontage for sewer rental instead of twenty-two feet only, was referred to the city solicitor and city engineer for a report.

The communication of W. Smith, offering to contract for five years to supply the city with broken stone, was referred to the city engineer for a report.

It was decided to call a special meeting of the board to take up consideration of report of the city engineer upon the needs of the board for the coming year.

The labor account for the week ending November 29th was presented and passed, the sum being $319.71.

SPORT IN GENERAL.

Notes About the Various Sporting Fields.

The Trent Valley and the Toronto leagues will probably affiliate with the O.H.A.

Mattawa, Sturgeon Falls and North Bay have intimated that they want to be grouped in an intermediate series in the O.H.A.

Rochester yachtsmen have subscribed $10,000 to build a Canada cup challenger from the plans of Hanley, the well-known eastern designer. The challenger will be built in Rochester.

The girls are taking up lacrosse in England, and the first match at the Canadian game between school teams is reported. It was played at Hampton Wick, and Heathfield Ladies College, Ascot, won from Rodeane College Brighton, by twelve games to four.

A joint meeting of the hockeyists of the bicycle club and the members of the Rambler Hockey club, has been called for Monday night at the Bicycle club rooms to consider the question of either entering a team in the O.H.A. or remaining in the Quinte District League.

In order to prevent defaulting, clubs in the O.R.F.U. senior series will be asked to deposit bonds of $100 that they will finish the season, and intermediate and junior clubs $25. This will have a tendency to prevent the disruption of a series after a club once enters.

Toronto 'Varsity has adopted a new slogan, and its composition is another proof of western town's right to the name of Hogtown. The word Toronto appears in it five times, while 'Varsity is mentioned but twice. Here it is: 'Var-si-ty, To-ron-to, T-o-r-o-n-t-o; 'Var-si-ty, To-ron-to; T-o-r-o-n-t-o, T-o-r-o-n-t-o, To-ron-to. Rah! Rah! Rah!

Ottawa Citizen: And now for a farewell crack at the Ontario Rugby Football union. It made a sweet mess of the season's business but capped the climax when it ordered the Limestones, of Kingston, to play the Hamilton III in Hamilton for the junior championship. This was unfair to the Limestones, who otherwise would have won the game and the championship. This practically means that the championship was handed over to Hamilton by the union.

Speaking of the senior series secretary A. H. Beaton says he expects both Queen's and 'Varsity to enter teams in the O.H.A. There was nothing to prevent individual clubs from playing in as many leagues as they liked. He says that there seems to be a misconception on this point, arising from the rule barring individual players taking part in different teams in different leagues. Queen's players have already expressed themselves as favorable to continuing in the O.H.A. series as well as joining the Intercollegiate league.

Toronto Mail-Empire: Judging from the opinion expressed by the twenty-two clubs which will be represented at the annual meeting of the O.R.F.U., on December 13th, the snapback system, with a reduction of the teams to twelve men a side, will be carried, with only a few dissenting voices. In the west, Sarnia, Petrolea, London, Galt, Guelph, O.A.C., Dundas, Westend Pleasure Club, Hamilton, Argonauts, Torontos, 'Varsity, Kendons, Wellesleys, Victorias, St. Michael's, and in the east, Peterboro, Ramblers, Limestones, Deseronto, and R. M. C., have all declared in favor of their adoption. The opposition rests with Ottawa and possibly Queen's juniors. With the new rules adopted, the O.R.F.U. next season will have a senior series worthy of name. Already assurances are received from Hamilton, London, Torontos, Peterboro and Limestones, of Kingston, that they will be found in senior company next year, if the new rules find favor at the annual meeting.

The A.M.C. Inspected.

The Army Medical Corps paraded at the armouries last evening for their annual inspection, which was conducted by Lieut.-Col. Fiset, Ottawa, the successor to Col. Neilson as surgeon-general of the Canadian militia. This was Lieut.-Col. Fiset's first visit to Kingston, and he created a good impression. After a careful inspection of the corps, he expressed his opinion that the men were in fine condition and behaved splendidly on parade. Afterwards the commanding officer, Surgeon-Major Abbott, entertained Lieut.-Col. Fiset, Col. Montizambert, D.O.C., Lieuts. Mundell, Sands and Williamson, non-commissioned officers and men of the corps. The fine spread was prepared by T. H. Ferguson, caterer, and an enjoyable time was spent.

There Is A Difference.

Chairman McLeod, of the board of works, claims that the parks' committee owes his committee $200 for sprinkling performed in the parks during the past summer. It has been customary, hitherto, to "saw-off" this account against one presented by the parks' committee for trimming trees throughout the city. Alderman McLeod claims that the parks' committee did not trim any trees this year, and that, therefore, payment should be made for sprinkling performed in the parks. In reply, Alderman Walkem states that Superintendent Phillips kept account of the time expended by drivers of watering carts in the parks, and the result is that the parks' committee owes the board of works only $7.

Prohibitionists Will Prosecute Prisoners.

The prohibitionists are determined to prosecute the two men arrested, Thursday, on charges of personation. They were in the police court Friday morning ready to proceed with the cases against the two men, W. Burton and E. Murphy, who pleaded not guilty to the charge of attempting to personate other voters.

J. M. Mowat appeared for the prisoners and asked for an adjournment, saying that he had been consulted at an hour too late to permit of him preparing a defence. Francis King and John McIntyre appeared for the prosecution, and pressed to have the cases tried at the earliest time possible. After some parley, an adjournment to Saturday was agreed to.

Our Coal is as Clean as Though It Were Washed and Brushed.

Each lump stands by itself. Good solid coal—so much solid fire. After coal reaches the surface of the earth from the mines, impurities are picked out by hand. Thereafter it is screened several times before it reaches you, and dirt, slate, etc., really have no chance, if the dealers are careful.
We are very careful.
