Practice Experience

Has taught us, that the best way to succeed in business is to say what we mean.

When selling a suit, overcoat, or in fact, anything we handle, we explain the qualities of the goods as well as the faults, if there are any.

Knowing the nature of the article, you can judge for yourself. You'll get what you expect. Here are the facts We keep clothing that is up-to-date. Our gent's furnishings are the latest, and the furs we sell have no rival. Don't miss it.

The al phabet alone has been engraved fre quently heretofore on a pin head, but the difficult task of adding eight other letters almost surpasses belief. The pin head has on it the alphabet, 1902, and R. H. M. J., the engraver's initials, and under a microscope can easily be read. Three-quar ters of an hour was required to com plete the task.

PREMIER ROSS SPEAKS.

Thinks the Conservatives Aided the Prohibitionists.

Toronto, Dec. 5.-Premier Ross, in an interview, this morning, states he considers the returns from the cities of the province are a mandate "to close the bars." At the same time considering the large vote in Toronto, Mr. Ross is inclined to accept the view of the licensed victuallers that conservatives had worked for the act for ulterior motives. For instance, North Toronto, last May, defeated the prohibitionist candidate, G. F. Marter, by 232 and, vesterday, it carried prohibition by 1,574. The returns Stratford, Mr. Ross says, show the ame conduct by conservatives. Stratford had voted last May as did vesterday, the result would have been very different at the general elec-
