SOMETHING TO REFLECT ON. A fact has to be remembered, and it has its quieting effects upon those who protest against the bigness of the majority required in the adoption of the Liquor Act of 1902.

The majority in Toronto for the liquor act was 1,703, in West York, 605. It is said Lord Milner will succeed Lord Minto as governor-general of Canada.

The Masonic Temple at Laconia, N. H., was burned on Saturday. Loss $125,000. Gripe is unusually severe in England. All who can afford it are leaving London.

The maulers of Cleveland are on strike. They demand a raise of fifteen cents an hour. Jacob Brill, Sr., Underwood, Ont., aged ninety-nine, voted for the liquor act on Thursday.

EDITORIAL TIPS. Events says the Globe nearly wrecked the liberal government in 1898 by starting Mr. Whitney. How was that?

Of the 80,000,000 silver dollars in circulation in the United States it is estimated that one-half are counterfeit. They are pretty good to pass detection.

Goldwin Smith interprets the vote of last week to mean a more stringent regulation of the liquor trade. In the west the vote is taken to mean that the bar-room must go.

No one can tell how the majority candidates in Kingston are getting along, and they cannot tell themselves. They dread a dark horse, and he may be in the running any day.

The crops in Sweden having failed there is a terrible famine, and thousands of people are on the verge of starvation. Canadians are not sufficiently thankful for the plenty which they enjoy.

Mr. Glocking has settled his sixteenth labour dispute since the establishment of the Ontario Labour Bureau in March. It is certainly deserving of the kind things that are being said about it.

The gamblers of New York are on the run. They are being pursued by Jerome, the district attorney, and a man of infinite tact and courage. He seems to possess about all the nerve there is in the civic administration.

Punch has a good cartoon illustrative of the motto, "Charity begins at home." It represents Mr. Punch bringing a wounded veteran to John Bull, and observing: "Look here, John, if you can afford to set up all those Boers in business again, surely you can spare a little to keep this good fellow out of the workhouse."

WHAT PAPERS SAY. Should Wake Up. A Toronto man died the other night while suffering with nightmare. Really, the people of Toronto ought to wake up.

SPECULATION THE DANGER.

Prof. Shortt's Address Before Canadian Club.

Toronto Globe. Prof. Adam Shortt, of Queen's, was the guest of the Canadian Club, on Friday evening, at a special meeting, and delivered a remarkably clear address, mainly devoted to the commercial relations between Great Britain and Germany and the United States respectively.

He concluded with a review of present conditions in this country, which included a consideration of the question as to whether there is a prospect of hard times visiting this quarter of the world, and a warning that the only danger now visible in the situation is to be found in speculation.

Prof. Shortt described in detail and with great clearness and force the conditions in Germany and the United States, holding that Great Britain is in no danger whatever from the former until she has revolutionized her social and political system, and has little to fear from the growth of the United States, owing to the peculiarly close relations which are springing up between them.

These usually come in cycles of from nine to eleven years. The last period of depression came in its climax in 1893, and 1903 should be precedent by a particularly bad year, with the beginning of the depression due in 1899 and 1909. Germany, Russia, Belgium, etc., had answered "Here" when hard times called, but Great Britain, the United States and Canada had continued to prosper. No crisis is in sight, and the building trades, etc., have orders booked for the whole of 1903.

There seems, he said, quite a possibility of getting past the hard times period if only the speculators will give the industries a chance. Speculation in stocks, he pointed out, has no necessary connection with individuals, and trade may be paralyzed illegitimately when the country is really in a sound condition. The speculative element is the only danger of the future.

Lottery Tickets By Express. Washington, D.C., Dec. 8.—Hearing on the question of trusts and involving the right of congress to regulate commerce between the states, the lottery case, which came up for re-argument, to-day, before the United States supreme court, is of special interest.

The case is that of Francis vs. United States. Francis was convicted in a circuit court of carrying lottery tickets across the Ohio line into Kentucky. The question is whether congress can regulate interstate commerce to the extent of preventing lottery gambling by the aid of express companies. Coupled with this case is one from Chicago—Charles F. Champion vs. John C. Ames, United States marshal—which involves the constitutionality of the lottery act of 1885. Eminent lawyers and jurists regard the two cases as having bearing on the future policy of courts and of congress.

Hides, Wool, Tallow, Etc. Toronto, Dec. 6.—Hide receipts fair, and prices steady. No. 1 green steers, 60 lbs. and upwards, 9 1/2c. No. 1 cows, 8 1/2c. No. 2 cows, 7 1/2c. No. 3 cows, 6 1/2c. Cured, 8 1/2c. for cows, and 9 1/2c. for steers.

Calfskin prices are nominal. Skins up to 14 lbs. bring 10c. for No. 1, and 8c. for No. 2. Above this weight prices are 1c. lower.

Sheepskin offerings are moderate, and prices firm at 70c. to 75c. Wool market dull, with very little offering. The best washed fleece brings 3 1/2c. to 4c. and unwashed, 7c. to 7 1/2c. Pulled wools are quoted at 15c. to 16c., and extras, 18c. to 19c.

Tallow market continues dull. Dealers are paying 6 1/2c. for rendered, and 3 1/2c. for rough. Rendered sells at 6 1/2c. in small lots.

THE WHOLE SECRET

Of the Remarkable Success of a Remedy for Indigestion and Stomach Troubles.

A NEW REMEDY WHICH MAY REVOLUTIONIZE THE TREATMENT OF STOMACH TROUBLES

Now Placed Before the Public and Bears the Endorsement of Many Leading Physicians and Scientific Men.

This preparation is not a wonderful discovery nor yet a secret patent medicine. It is claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles with which nine-tenths of our nation are more or less afflicted. The remedy is in the form of pleasant-tasting tablets or lozenges containing vegetable and fruit essences, pure aspartic acid (free from animal impurities), Golden Seal and diastase. They are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Many interesting experiments made with these tablets show that they possess remarkable digestive power. One grain of the active principle in one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets being sufficient to thoroughly digest 3,000 grains of lean meat, eggs, oatmeal or similar wholesome food.

Stuart's Tablets do not act upon the bowels like after dinner pills and cheap cathartics, which simply irritate and inflame the bowels by pills and cathartics.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, catarrh of the stomach, gas and bloating after meals because they furnish the digestive power, which is the one thing that weak stomachs lack, and unless it can be made to do so by irritating and inflaming the bowels by pills and cathartics, it is useless to attempt to assist it by the use of "tonics," pills and cathartics which have absolutely no digestive power and do not claim to have any.

The regular use of one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals will demonstrate their merit and efficiency better than any other argument. They are sold by druggists everywhere and a little booklet on cause and cure of stomach troubles will be mailed free by addressing T. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
