TOLD IN THE TWILIGHT. The afternoon tea and sale given by the members of the Church Women's Aid of St. George's cathedral, was very successful indeed. Mrs. George McGowan was at the door and the tea-table, the next attraction, looking very pretty with its color schemes, white and yellow, and its gleaming silver, was in charge of Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Easton Burns, Mrs. Hubbell, Mrs. Jory, and Miss Annie Muckleston. Miss Lorraine Dalton reigned alone at a little table where were doilies and fancy work of various kinds. Farther on Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Brownfield, and Mrs. Herbert Robinson dispensed the most toothsome of sweets, and the work table, which was full of all kinds of useful and pretty work, which found a ready sale, was under the management of Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Bampfield, Mrs. Harry Tandy, Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mrs. Noel Kent, Mrs. Routley, and Miss Lillian Dalton. In the evening a delightful musical programme under the management of Mr. R. F. Harvey was rendered, those taking part being: Mrs. Martin, Miss Grace Ely, Miss Waldron, Miss Mona Knight, Messrs. Charles Harvey and Kelso. Invitations to Miss Jeff's carni-ent exhibit have drawn many of this clever little Trenton lady's admirers to Kirkpatrick's this week. Her display is very large, and many of her pieces of work very pretty, indeed. Perhaps her most ambitious article is a large and handsome jardiniere, in the gallery the prettiest things are two tea sets done in tones of brown, one of a quaint little grandmother shape, the other moulded in an odd design. A vase in burnt olive, and a set of half a dozen desert plates are very pretty. Some bread and butter plates, and a sugar bowl and creamer work were also attractive bits. Altogether Miss Jeff is to be congratulated on her work, for which she is pretty sure to find numerous purchasers with the holiday season so close at hand, and the difficulty of finding suitable gifts so very difficult. They have the courage of their convictions in a city not a hundred miles from the Estabon canal. In writing up the Musical Club's concert the remark was made that while a certain pianist's playing was classical in the extreme it was somewhat over the heads of the audience, and speaking of some one else's singing, the brave scribe says it would be much more appreciated if he would pronounce his words so that they could be understood occasionally. Lots of us feel just this way. The prize winners at the Rideau Euchre club last evening, were Mrs. Smythe, Mrs. Hughes, Messrs. Bampfield and J. S. Skinner. The West End Euchre club holds its fortnightly meeting to-night at Miss Macaulay's, King street, in the Hotel Deseronto, sailed for England last week. The last reception of the sets which their excellencies have given in Montreal took place at the viceregal residence on Friday evening, and was a most pleasurable success. The hands were thrown open for the occasion. Fires blazed in the big fireplaces, water rippled from the fountain in the conservatory, palms and exquisite blooms filled the recesses in the drawing-room and reception hall and beautiful refreshment table in the large dining-room. An orchestra was in attendance, and the whole mansion was ablaze with lights, making it an altogether brilliant scene. The Hon. Senator and the Misses Fullford arrived in London, England, from the steamship Oceanic on Thursday, November 27th, just in time to be among the honored guests of the Thanksgiving dinner at the Hotel Cecil. The Senator and his daughters remain there a week, proceeding to Monte Carlo for a few days, going to Egypt for the Christmas holidays and continuing their journey to India on January 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Kohl have taken a house on Wakefield street, Ottawa. Mr. Kohl, having lately been transferred to the Brantford branch of the Bank of Montreal, to that city. Mrs. Kohl, who is a charming little lady, will be a great addition to Ottawa society. Mrs. Franklin Dawson was hostess at a tea last week in Toronto in honor of her two friends, Miss Grace Dudley and Miss Edna Hunter, who were with the Floradora company, as one of the attractions of the hour. Mrs. Campbell Reeves will not receive until the first Tuesday and Wednesday of the New Year. She and her husband returned to Toronto, last week from their trip abroad and are the guests of Mrs. Reeves. Lady Grant was hostess last Saturday in Ottawa, in honor of Mrs. E. C. Grant, who left that city on Monday with her husband and little son for England. Mrs. Osborne, "Gloverhill" Toronto, entertained at a dinner and theatre party on Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. Hugh Fleming and Miss Gornally. Mrs. Haver Reed gave a charming little dinner in Quebec last week for Captain Rogers, who is on his way from China and Japan. Mrs. O'Hara was hostess at an enjoyable little tea this week, in honor of Mrs. O'Hara's mother and Miss Kathleen O'Hara. Mrs. Jessie Scott, of Quebec, who has been staying with Mrs. George O'Murich, in Toronto, has gone to visit Mrs. Rathbun, in Deseronto. Miss Higginson, who has been with Sir Sandford Fleming, is now in Halifax, where she is the guest of Mrs. Albion. An Anglo-American wedding, in which society has been greatly interested, took place in London, England, last week, when Miss Alice Constance Ward, daughter of the late Mr. Andrew Henshaw Ward, of Boston, Mass., was married to Captain Cyril Blackburn Tew, of the West Yorkshire Regiment. Mr. Reginald Ward gave away his sister. Captain Tew was accompanied by a number of officers of his regiment. A thousand invited guests attended a reception at the Hyde Park Hotel after the ceremony, given by Mr. Ward. The marriage of Miss Violet M. Madill, daughter of Rev. J. C. Madill, of C. Liscom, will take place on the 15th of December, 1902, at the Manse, Lower Fort Garry, Man. The engagement is announced in Montreal of Miss Laura Gray, youngest daughter of Mr. W. Gray, of Montreal West, to Mr. W. T. Box, of Sherbrooke street. The marriage took place in Ottawa yesterday of Miss Florence Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gray, and Mr. James McEvoy, of Fernie, B.C. The engagement is announced of Miss Julia Dunsmore, of Stratford, to Mr. Hugh Combe, of Clinton. Lady Mary Lygon, the popular sister of the Earl of Beauchamp, is lady-in-waiting to the Princess of Wales, and is well remembered in Canada, having accompanied her Royal Highness on the tour of the Ohio. Lady Mary has had an active life. In addition to her position in the Princess's household, she was her brother's chief helper and companion until his marriage last year. When he once before held the position—as he does now—of mayor of Worcester, Lady Mary made a capital mayoress, and was most popular. During Lord Beauchamp's term in New South Wales as governor, his sister procured leave of absence from the Princess of Wales, and went out to him for several months, during which time she was a graceful, charming, and efficient hostess for all his entertainments. Lady Mary is a favorite with all who know her, and her tact and perfect courtesy go far in making that popularity which has been so universally gained by the household of her royal highness the Princess of Wales, and which was conspicuous during the colonial tour. A London letter says the first political reception of the winter season was given by Lady Colebrook, who herself was quite the loveliest woman present, in white satin, touched with silver, a pearl rope and dog collar and a high, all-round diamond crown on her beautiful dark hair. Lord Rosebery stood beside her at the head of the stairs, with the blue ribbon on the Garter across his breast. The house is famous for its pictures and collection of enameled. Girls are taking up lacrosse in England, and the first match of the Canadian game between school teams is reported. It was played at Hampton Wick, and Heathfield Ladies' College, Ascot, won from Rodene College, Brighton, by twelve goals to four. From Paris comes the leading novelty in head dress. It is the coronation wreath, made of small ivy leaves perfect in imitation of the real English ivy, and edged with silver spangles like a rim of diamonds. Some are edged with gold. The wreaths are made in small bunches of the leaves, ending in a spray of single ones that fall upon the hair, as though fresh gathered from the garden and placed there. Du Barry wreaths are so much in vogue that all manner of materials are made up into the Du Barry head dress. These half wreaths are of flowers of leaves, of wreaths of willow branches of the grass on each side of the hair, and are also of satin ribbon, with or without floral effects. Holly berries glow amid green or frosted leaves in the Du Barry wreath, or in the simple wreath worn in front, and not round the back of the hair. Little bows of red velvet, less than half an inch in width, are used in the back of the mistletoe and holly wreaths, and give a pretty touch of color to them. The newest ball dress fabric is called "crepe netone," a beautiful material, to be trimmed with silver tissue on the bodice, the garniture of which is getting daily more important. A gown of pink chiffon is described as "shaded up from palest pink to a deep rose, with a berbe of jeweled lace." Course grape lace, made partly of wool, arranged on a white silk frock, touched with emerald green velvet, is another creation. Most Penetrating. The quickest-soother of pain, and most penetrating liniment on the market today, is Smith's White Liniment. A positive cure for sprains, swellings, inflammation, neuralgia, rheumatism, and lumbago. Big bottles, 25c., at Wadsworth's. Cardinal Gibbons and several eminent American prelates will leave for Rome in January. The sacred college desires their presence. In The Literary World. In Country Lanes. O country lanes, white starred with bloom! Where wild things nestle, shy and sweet, When all your waving grasses laugh And part before my eager feet— Could I forever dwell with you, Letting the mad old world rush by; And just be glad of wind and sun, Of rocking nest and brooding sky! How often in the crowded streets, I dream of you, sweet country lane, And feel once more your soft breeze My soothing balm, My soothed breast and worried brain— Ever above the city's din, I hear the clink of yellow gold, I hear a wild bird's ringing call, I catch the breath of leaf-strewn woods! Your grasses kiss my fevered cheek, Your hawthorn droops her scented rain; I am a child again and dream That Heaven hides here, O flower-starred lane. A "New Thought" Book. Some time ago the Whig favorably reviewed "The Law of the New Thought," by William W. Atkinson, and published by the Psychic Research Company, of Chicago. From the same source has come "The Heart of the New Thought," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, but why the company ever published this volume is a mystery. The type is large, every two or three lines are broken up into a paragraph, and the thoughts are repeated time and time again with little or no change of expression. This seems to have been necessary to fill out the book, and a man's head in case you were angry. Old axioms and rules of living, that we are accustomed to see confined to one or two lines, are prefixed and affixed until they occupy pages. There are some paragraphs very amusing to a sensible reader. For instance the author says: "If you want to train your mind to the new thought, the thought of your divine inheritance of all God's vast universe of wealth, you can do it. Begin by giving away your old clothes." Here, then, is a new recipe for the training of the mind! After reading this remarkable book one is inclined to believe that its ninety odd pages could have been summed up in the rapid words: "Be a good boy, Good-by!" and that nothing of importance would have been omitted. In a chapter on "High Noon," Mrs. Wilcox says that the wage-earning woman is an evil that should be abolished. We agree with her on this point. Trade Competition. A pamphlet entitled "The Competition of the United States With Great Britain," reprinted from Popular Science Monthly, of October last, has reached the Whig office. The writer is Prof. John Waddell, D. Sc., Ph.D., of the School of Mining, Kingston. He reviews the keen competition given by the United States in the production and exporting of such commodities as coal, cement, soda, salt, iron and steel, tin plate, rolling stock for railroads, machinery, shiping, bridge construction, etc. All of this has been injurious to British trade. He gives as a reason for the United States' advance, her natural advantages and the characteristics of her people. The objection of British trades unions to a man looking after more than one trade, where it might be possible for him to look after half a dozen, in-creases the cost of production, and prevents the Britisher from meeting other American prices or time limits. The cheaper cost of transportation and the more advanced technical training in the United States are advantages in her favor, says the writer. "Probably the greatest hindrance to advance in British trades unionism," says Mr. Waddell, "but the fallacy of their doctrine may soon be realized by the workmen." The writer, however, takes an optimistic view of the future. If British manufactures increase and if Britain grows commercially it will be to the interest of the United States, because Britain is her best customer. "There is room for all the growth possible in both Britain and America," he concludes, "and it is to be hoped that civilization may be advanced and the world benefited by the competition of the United States with the United Kingdom." Mr. Waddell presents facts and figures to prove his every statement, and the conclusions he draws are logical and sound. The One Thing Needed. If you want to live to a green old age, take care to keep your blood pure. Impoverished blood is accountable for nearly all bodily ills. Take Wade's Iron Tonic Pills, and you will find your health benefited, your blood purified and nerves strengthened. 50 pills for 25c., at Wade's. "Bibby's." Oak Hall. "Bibby's." Norris, the Devonshire novelist, started on Wednesday, from Paris, on the first stage of his journey around the world, which includes a year hence passage from Vancouver to Chicago, thence by Toronto and Washington to New York. Hon. Arthur Elliott, M.P., states that so far as he is aware, there is no foundation for the report in circulation that his brother Lord Minto is about to resign the governor-generalship of Canada. Ladies' gold watch, with long gold chain, complete, only $25. Guaranteed. C. L. Bass, Princess street. Bargains in Taylor's 25c. window on Saturday.

I have used it in consumption, Asthma, Diarrhoea, and other diseases; and I am perfectly satisfied with the result." "Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians that he received a despatch from Her Majesty's Council at Manila to the effect that Cholera has been raging fearfully, and that the only REMEDY of any service was CHLOROXYNE.— See Lancet, December 1st, 1864. CAUTION—BEWARE OF PIRACY AND IMITATIONS. CAUTION—Vice Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that DR. J. SOLDER and BABBIT ALL GRADES. THE CANADA-METAL CO., WILLIAM STREET, TORONTO, ONT. DR. MAGGS RESIGNS. Principal of Wesleyan Theological College Will Go Back. Montreal, Dec. 11.—Rev. J. T. L. Maggs, D.D., principal of Wesleyan Theological College, who has resigned, effective May, 1903, and will return to England, whence he came three years ago. Family sickness is the cause of his resignation. Dr. Maggs is still a member of the English Wesleyan conference and will return to work under its auspices, but the actual scene of his future labors has not yet been settled. Rev. Dr. Maggs has been principal of the Wesleyan College for nearly three years, having been here since the beginning of the session of 1900. He came to Montreal from the pastoral charge of one of the largest Wesleyan churches in Sheffield, Eng., where he had gained a high reputation as a preacher. He has fully justified the expectations of all in the college by his scholarship. While the representative men of Canadian Methodism have always had the apprehension that he would return to England before long, his resignation at the present moment has caused much regret for the loss the church sustains thereby. Rev. Dr. Maggs was granted the degree of D.D. by Victoria University last spring, and was already a graduate in arts honors of London and in divinity of Edinburgh universities. Not A Quarter. But 10 cents, and 40 doses in a vial of Dr. Agnew's Little Pills. No pain, pleasure in every dose—little, but awfully good. Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Nausea, Sal-lowness. Sold by Henry Wade and H. B. Taylor.—117. H. Cunningham, piano tuner from Chickerling, New York. Orders received at McAuley's bookstore. Many fancy vests at Jenkins'. Many people were frozen to death in Germany.

WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP. About a year ago I was attacked by a hacking cough. It was so distressing that I was almost racked to pieces by its violence. I saw DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP highly recommended for coughs like mine, so I purchased a bottle, and it completely cured me. I find it equally beneficial for colds in the head, and any obstruction of the nasal passages. It is an excellent preparation, and too much cannot be said in its favor.—Sadie E. Rusk. DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP contains all the essential lung healing principles of the pine tree, and is a wonderful cure for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pain or Tightness of the Chest, and all Throat and Lung Troubles.
