SAVAGE WOLVES.
 Are Doing Damage in Rou-mania.

Bucharest, Jan. 5.—Every day, as the winter advances, accounts are received of the ravages of wolves all over Roumania. Hardly a newspaper appears without reports of half a dozen cases where persons have been attacked and devoured by wolves. Last Wednesday eight officials left Tulcea on their way to Galatz, on their sledges, when their arrival was reported the mounted police started a search for them on Thursday, they found three broken sledges, a number of empty revolvers and the trampled bloody snow told the story of the tragedy that had happened.
 Even the harness had been devoured by the famished beasts.

ROBBED THE MAILS.
 An Eight-Year-Old Boy Arrested
 At Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 5.—An eight-year-old boy has been arrested on a charge of robbing the mails in Windsor. He discovered the combination of one of the private boxes in the post office, and extracted from it a box containing three handkerchiefs sent as a Christmas present. Small boys have been opening the mail boxes in the post-office lobby for a month. They stand near some elderly or careless person when he is getting his mail and decipher the combination. Then they help themselves when no one is looking.

Result of Elections.
 Paris, Jan. 5.—The elections were held yesterday in ninety-eight senatorial districts. The returns are not yet completed, but it is apparent that the ministerial majority has been materially strengthened. Prime Minister Combes was elected in two departments. M. Rouvier, minister of finance, who is now a deputy, was elected to the senate. M. Hanotaux was defeated.

Fifty Years A Nun.
 New York, Jan. 5.—A golden jubiconvent of the Order of the Sisters of Mercy for Sister M. Frances Murray, in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of her entrance into the order. Many prominent priests and prelates of the Roman Catholic church took part in the celebration.

 LORD ROBERTS IS NOT COM-ING ACROSS.
 A Fiancee For the Crown Prince of Germany—The Death Rate From Cancer Smaller Than the Year Previous, But Still Very High—General Notes.

London, Jan. 5.—The dean of St. Alban's, preaching in the cathedral, yesterday, announced, in connection with the recent death of the Bishop of St. Alban's, that the latter, a few months ago, when apparently in sound health, declared that he had a pre-sentiment that his death was not far distant. The apprehension was so real that he set his affairs in order to the minutest detail, investing his arrangements with special solemnity.
 Then he resumed his duties in his dioc-es, which continued unremittently until the day of his fatal seizure, which the dean and others ascribe to overwork.

Statistics printed by the London county council of the mortality of cancer in this city during 1902 shows that the death rate, the percentage being ninety-three per 1,000, as compared with ninety-five in the previous year. The proportion, however, has been more than doubled within fifty years, the rate between 1851 and being forty-two per cent.

Karl Roberts, commander-in-chief of the British army, has told an enquirer that the report that he had accepted an invitation from the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company, of Boston, to visit that city, next fall, is not true.

The Berlin correspondent of the Standard contributes the latest rumor in reference to a fiancee for the Crown Prince of Germany who will be twenty-one years old, on May 6th, saying that she will be shortly betrothed to Princess Alice of Albany.

The Daily Mail has received a telegram from Gen. Viljeon, the Boer leader, who is now in New York, expressing his willingness to command the Boers, who are now in the service against the Mad Mullah in Somaliland if he is asked to do so.

The report of the conference between Irish landlords and tenants has been assessed. The reports which are significant, and which are signed by Lord Dufferin, the chairman, John Redmond, M.P., William O'Brien, M.P., and all the other members of the conference declare that the only satisfactory solution of the land question lies in the abolition of dual ownership and the substitution of an occupying proprietary. It is proposed that an equitable price be paid to the owners, based on their own valuation represented by "second time" rents.
 This proposal being aimed to induce sellers to continue residing in Ireland.
 Other inducements are also specified.
 The report recommends a method of payment for purchasing tenants which will secure a reduction of from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. in rents; it advises state help in order to enable new occupants to start well, and to pay their instalments as they fall due. Other recommendations deal with evicted tenants and the housing of laborers.

In co-operation with the movement, begun in Paris, to give President Roosevelt a work of art in recognition of his services in the cause of international arbitration, a fund has been started in political circles in London to present a testimonial to the American president.

The attitude of the Venezuelan affair is appreciated, very warmly, not only by members of both political parties but also by the king and royal family. A member of parliament will act as secretary of the persons who are getting up the testimonial.

ENTERED FEZ.
 The Pretender Has Met a Favorable Reception.

Madrid, Jan. 3.—A telegram received here, from Fez, says the pretender to the Moroccan throne, has entered the capital and that he met a favorable reception.

Will Punish Them.
 Tangier, Jan. 3.—A letter from the sultan was read in the Mosque to-day.
 He acknowledged his recent defeat, but promising to punish the rebels soon.

Agreement Reached.
 London, Jan. 3.—The Birmingham Post says that England and Spain have reached an agreement, guaranteeing Spain's interest in Morocco and providing for the dispatch of a Spanish commissioner to Fez to assist in the settlement of the revolution.

New Departmental Store.
 Toronto, Jan. 5.—It is stated, on good authority, that Siegel, Cooper & Co., the big United States retail merchants, have perfected arrangements for the opening of a departmental store in Toronto on a scale in-keeping with their New York and Chicago businesses. According to this authority opinions have been secured on property on the north-east corner of Queen and Yonge streets, and it is expected that some time in the early spring building operations will be well under way.

Trouble in China Spreads.
 Shanghai, Jan. 5.—The disturbances in the interior of China are spreading.
 Five thousand troops have been sent to suppress the disorders in the province of Che-Kiang.

TO SOLVE PROBLEM.
 A Great Step Towards Settling Dispute.

New York, Jan. 5.—The Tribune's London cable says: A great step has been taken towards the settlement of the Irish land question. This is the general opinion in Dublin with regard to the result of the conference presided over by Lord Dufferin. The report has been sent to the chief secretary for Ireland, who has undertaken to introduce a land purchase bill into parliament during the coming session and he will, undoubtedly, be considerably influenced by its suggestions. It is not, however, to be expected that Mr. Wyndham will adopt all the recommendations contained in the report as he is well aware that the conference has not been thoroughly representative. Still he has an unique opportunity for solving the Irish land problem.

Matters That Interest Everybody —Notes From All Over—Little of Everything Easily Read and Remembered By The Dear Public.

Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier have arrived at Miami, Fla.
 The Moorish vessel, which had retired from its position around Fez, President Castro is reported to have indicated or to be about to do so.
 Three new and promising oil wells are reported in Raleigh township, Kent county.

Thirteen anarchists have been put under a roof for holding a conference at Dusseldorf.
 The Toronto Laurier Club's banquet arranged for to-morrow night has been postponed.

Canada is being asked to provide exhibits for twenty odd exhibitions throughout the world.
 It is said that the pope will appeal to all christian governments to take steps to stop duelling.

It is more than likely that a Halli-fax man will succeed the late Senator Primrose, of Pittsburg, N.S., as George Third, of Scarborough township, a prominent football player, died very suddenly at Toronto.

L. C. David, Montreal, and Mr.
 Legris, M.P., for Markham, are spokesmen of coming senators.
 The Fort Brady barracks at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., were destroyed by fire on Saturday. Loss $80,000.

Peter Blinky, a well-to-do farmer of Plambers Centre, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn.
 W. H. Biggar, Belleville, has been appointed assistant general solicitor for the Grand Trunk railway system.

Engineers for a British company began to construct a tubular tunnel under the East River, New York, into Brooklyn.

WORD NEWS
 Comes To Us From All
 Quarters.
FEW BRIEF ITEMS
TELEGRAMS FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF EARTH.

CASTRO WILL NOT RESIGN.
 Denies Rumor—British Officers
 Szeze Outgoing Mail.

Caracas, Jan. 5.—The report that President Castro proposes to abdicate, or resign the presidency of Venezuela, is untrue. A correspondent saw the president with regard to this matter and he said:
 "I will no more abdicate than I will resign. The Matos revolution, without assistance from foreign powers, will soon be a lost story."

Bound To Hold On.
 New York, N.Y., Jan. 5.—According to the Herald's correspondent in Williamstadt, the revolutionists are advancing in three columns on Gen.
 Cervera's army. A desperate fight occurred on Saturday night within eight miles of the city of Caracas, resulting favorably to the revolutionists. A committee of the most prominent citizens has gone to President Castro and made representations to him of how hopelessly untenable is his position, but the president insists on holding on until his forces are defeated in a decisive battle. It seems that this cannot be far distant. The correspondent adds that no attempt is now being made by the allies to conceal the fact that they are affording assistance to the Revolutionists.

LADY SARAH IN KILTS.
 Created a Sensation at a Fancy Dress Party.

New York, Jan. 5.—The Herald's London correspondent says: Among various Christmas parties in the smart set none was more amusing than that given by Lord and Lady Howe at Gopshall. Upon one occasion the guests appeared in fancy costume, and as a number of ladies were male attire the scene was, to say the least, quite interesting.

Lady Howe appeared as a Knight Templar, but her sister, Lady Sarah Wilson, was quite the sensation of the evening as a very dashing Prince Charlie, with a kilt and all the accessories of Highland dress. So keen was she that there should be no detail lacking that her knees were quite bare.

UPSET KILLED HIM.
 The Strange Death of a Guelph Man.

Guelph, Ont., Jan. 5.—John Boyle, a well known farmer in Puslinch township, met with an accident Saturday afternoon, which resulted in his death at the General Hospital. He was driving on Devonshire street, when the hind wheels of the wagon slipped and upset him into an unprotected creek on the street, the wagon box upsetting on top of him. He apparently received only a few slight scratches, but he was to-day seized with hemorrhage of the lungs, which, with the shock, caused his death. He was sixty-nine years of age and leaves a widow, son and daughter.

Affects Only a Small Portion.
 Toronto, Jan. 5.—With reference to the Butte, Montana, dispatch, announcing that the Great Falls, Kan-ada railway had been transferred to the Great Northern R.R. Elias Rogers, one of the directors of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co., states that the transfer affects only a small portion of the railway from the Great Falls to the boundary. The same interests which control the Lethbridge mines, he says, own the railway on the Canadian side of the border.

Jews Will Support Pretender.
 Madrid, Jan. 5.—Telegrams received here from Tangier agree that the situation is more serious. The post office refuses to be responsible for registered letters. One despatch says the Sultan's position is extremely critical, as the Jews, of whom there are 10,000 in Fez, smarting from injustice and cruelty, are inclined to support the Pretender, and an outbreak in the city is apprehended.

When Knights Were Bold.
 Berlin, Jan. 5.—It just became known that the English Roman Catholic peers, when Emperor William was at Sandringham, presented him, through one of his entourage, with a petition asking him to repeal all laws against monastic orders and allow monks to settle in any part of Prussia. The kaiser was hurt and King Edward was angry. The incident created a bad impression in Berlin.

Fatal Fire In Hastings.
 Pelleville, Ont., Jan. 5.—In a fire which destroyed the residence of John Craig, a farmer of Hastings county, residing near Madoc, one of Mr.
 Craig's children were burned to death.
 The mother, who managed to escape, clad only in her night dress, suffered severely from exposure, both of her feet being badly frozen.

After A Canadian Road.
 New York, Jan. 5.—A syndicate of New York capitalists, including John Gerkin, Henry W. Genesee, William F. Hencken, Christopher E. Bode and Frederick W. Saltzberger, has been formed for the purpose of buying the Brockville, Westport and Sault Ste.
 Marie railway in Canada at the receiver's sale on January 20th.

A Corner In Cheese.
 Montreal, Jan. 5.—Messrs. Alexander and McPherson, two of the largest cheese dealers in Canada, have, it is reported, secured the control of all the cheese stock in Canada; and a sharp advance in price is anticipated. The price advanced to thirteen cents yesterday, and thirteen and one-half cents a pound is asked.

There is a rumor that one of the Morgan steamship lines is likely to make Bristol a port of call.
 Mrs. Baker, relict of the late Thomas Baker, a pioneer of Kitley, died on Friday night.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

DEAD.
 JOYCE—On Saturday evening, Mrs.
 Ann Joyce, widow of the late Robert Joyce, aged seventy-seven years, passed away at her residence, at 230 o'clock, to Catawara cemetery.
 Aged in Kingston, Ont., January 4th, 1903. Family Augustus Hamilton, widow of the late R. H. Hamilton.

FUNERAL PRIVATE. No flowers.
 O'DONNELL—in Kingston, January 4th, 1903. Patrick O'Donnell, late storekeeper for Kingston penitentary, aged sixty-eight years.
 Funeral private, to St. Mary's cathedral, on Monday, January 5th, at 2:30 p.m.

WALL—In Kingston, January 4th, Margaret Wall, aged sixty-eight years.
 Funeral from her late residence, No. 29 Arch street, Tuesday afternoon, at
