THE WHIG—70th YEAR DAILY BRITISH WHIG, published each evening, at 306-310 King Street, Kingston, Ontario, at $6 per year.

THE DAILY WHIG "Opifer per Orbem Dicor." EFFECTS OF REVIVALS. The question of revivals comes up for consideration. Are they of special or marked advantage? Are men and women "converted" by hundreds in the space of a month?

Mr. Gurney is having some hard things said about him by the conservative press. But he doesn't mind it. He is used to varied and even superfluous language. He has been an insurance agent.

NOT UP FOR HEARING. The Dominion Presbyterian quotes approvingly the sentiments of Rev. Dr. Caven, that the large vote of the people on the referendum campaign meant something, and that it involved, as a minimum, the abolition of the public bar.

ASKING TOO MUCH. Toronto Star. What's the matter with the railways of North America? Why these daily collisions?

IT ALWAYS HAS. Toronto Star. Some citizens may object to the contribution of Andrew Carnegie, but money talks, and it happens to have the floor just now.

A Suggestive Letter. Brantford Expositor. My dear Foy, I have just learned, that Hugh Clark has been unseated, and through bribery and corruption Centre Bruce election has been voided.

SPINSTERS DRINK LESS TEA. Along with other characteristics of spinsterhood that have gone glimmering down the sides of memory and tradition is that of devotion to tea.

NOT TO SELL FOR TEN YEARS. Havana, Feb. 2.—Six of the principal independent cigar factories have now entered into an agreement not to sell their brands or plants to anybody for ten years, under a penalty of $200,000.

WHIGGINGS. The inspectors of Toronto have quarrelled over the merits of spelling matches. We thought the Toronto schools were progressive.

FROM OVER SEAS. A Look Through That Marvellous Building the British Museum—A Great and Varied Collection.

Hard coal is selling at $6.50 a ton at Buffalo, and at $8 a ton in Hamilton. Why the great difference is what no fellow in the ambitious city seems to be able to find out.
