

The Sunlight Maids have washed the Sunlight way.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

This is the best soap for washing clothes. It requires much less labor than common soap and makes the clothes snowy white. If you want to boil and scrub your clothes you will get much better results with Sunlight Soap than if you used common soap. If you wash according to the directions on the package you will know what the Sunlight way really means. You will give up boiling and scrubbing. Sunlight Soap is made of pure oils and fats and will not injure the most delicate fabric.

ALMOST A MIRACLE IN BOWMANVILLE

An Aged Resident Cured of Agonizing Kidney Trouble From Which He Suffered for Many Years.

EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS OF AGE NOT TOO OLD FOR DR. PITCHER'S BACK-ACHE KIDNEY TABLETS TO EFFECT A COMPLETE CURE.

MR. DAVID HUMBER.

The case of David Humber of Bowmanville, Ont., must certainly bring home the conviction to every reader of this paper that Dr. Pitcher's Back-ache Kidney Tablets are without doubt the most effective remedy in the world for kidney ailments.
Mr. Humber is a man in his eighty-seventh year, and although somewhat crippled by an injury he received a number of years ago, is able to get around remarkably well and still retains the mental vigor of one of much younger years.
He is a member of the Methodist Church, and has for twenty years been a resident of Bowmanville, and is known to all as an honorable, upright and conscientious man.

MR. HUMBER'S OWN STATEMENT.

When spoken to recently about his ailments he gladly gave the following statement of his case: "I suffered for a great many years from my kidneys and bladder, latterly that trouble had become serious and I would have to walk the floor for hours in agony before I could make any water, and then it would only come a drop at a time. After it got started, though I would often have to get up many times during the night, and thus my rest was greatly disturbed.
The water I passed looked like blood, and I suffered great pain in the bladder. I tried all sorts of patent medicines and treatment from local doctors, but it did not seem to help me in the least. Some months ago I was recommended to try Dr. Pitcher's Back-ache Kidney Tablets, and from the very first I found them doing me good. I have taken in all several bottles and I consider them the most wonderful kidney medicine made.
I can now make my water freely and regularly without any straining or pain. I sleep well at night, as my rest is no longer disturbed. I consider the action of the remedy in my case, especially to be remarkable, as I am in my eighty-seventh year and have been affected a long time.
Any one who wishes to know anything further about how Dr. Pitcher's Tablets have helped me, need only write me and I will be pleased to answer them."
(Signed) DAVID HUMBER.

WHAT MRS. HUMBER SAYS.

Mrs. Humber, when spoken to said that her husband had derived decided and wonderful benefit from Dr. Pitcher's Tablets. She said he used to pace the floor nights in great pain, on account of his kidney trouble, but now he could rest quietly all night.

A BOON TO AGED PEOPLE.

No other remedy has proven itself such a blessing to old people as Dr. Pitcher's Back-ache Kidney Tablets. They relieve all pain, distress, and irritability of the bladder, cure frequent rising at night, and going often during the day. They strengthen the weak kidneys, bladder, and urinary organs, take the severe pain out of the back and hips and practically give old folks a new lease of life.
The Tablets are 50c. a bottle, or 3 for $1.25, at Druggists, or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

PRINCESS CAROLINE, OF REUSS, AND THE GRAND DUKE OF SAXE-WEIMAR.

Their engagement has just been announced. The princess, who is only eighteen, has sturdy, independent blood in her veins, and comes from one of the unique lineage of German royalty. She is the youngest daughter of Prince Henry XIII. of Reuss, the picture of a national asset. We have talked about reforestation for years. It is really not time for us to do something? Probably nothing that could now be done would in our time repair the loss from fire and various forms of wastes in the past, and from the failure to replant. They, however, only accentuate the necessity for immediate action, rather than excusing further delay. If we could induce our legislators to really grapple with the situation in an adequate manner, to ascertain fully the very many forms of waste, and to what extent some of them could be avoided; to map out the areas requiring reforestation which in some parts even in Eastern Canada include large districts where the lumberman has never operated; and having done so, to act with the greatest possible vigor, we might hope to witness the end of this shameful national loss, and in time we would undoubtedly be amply repaid for doing what is, in any event, our plain duty.

This is the view of a man, in a position which perhaps presents the widest opportunities for obtaining a knowledge of the influences that affect the currents of business and the wider outlook on the sources and growth of our national prosperity. When such a man speaks as quoted above, his words are worthy of the fullest consideration by not merely those interested in the lumber industry, but by every business man by our legislators, by every patriotic Canadian.

Anyone who has travelled through the forest districts of Canada, east or west, has seen sufficient evidence of the destruction that has been caused. Wherever civilization has advanced, the forest has suffered, needlessly, wantonly, uselessly. Along the lines of railway, the routes of travel, and in the path of advancing settlement, the way is marked by burnt and tangled woods, by waste of bare rock or grim ramparts standing bare above a mass of tangled shrubs and briars. Canada is proud of the work of her pioneers who, out of gloomy woods and pathless forests created peaceful farms and happy homesteads, the results of an advancing civilization in our woods for the last quarter of a century have been such as to cause little pride to any true citizen of the Dominion. It is rather humiliating to read the statement by distinguished European foresters, and one which is almost invariably made in attempting to estimate the future timber supply of the world, that Canada is one of the countries blessed with the greatest national resources in this respect, but so little care is taken of them that they can hardly be counted on to be a great or lasting feature in the supply. The Creator has been bountiful, the Canadian has been a child, knowing no to-morrow and wasting what it cannot use.

The past year in Eastern Canada has been characterized by considerable rainfall so that the loss from fire has not been great, but the ever-present danger has been exemplified by the forest fires in the Western United States. In Washington State alone over five billion feet of Douglas fir was destroyed by fire, a quantity greater than the whole annual product of Canada, about equal to the annual pine product of the states of Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin, and equal to the estimate of mine for the whole of the magami districts of Ontario. The deliberate statement of the official of the bureau of forestry, who made an enquiry into these fires is that with a proper staff of fire rangers, all this destruction might have been prevented, for the fires were allowed to run for days without attention before they assumed a dangerous character. Under favorable circumstances, a few great fires might sweep down our few remaining great lumber districts and reduce them to a desolate waste for generations to come. The destruction has gone far enough. A true patriot, a true appreciation of that upon which depends the nation's prosperity and welfare should demand that the necessary preventive measures be taken. And, given protection and time sufficient, the question of reforestation will largely solve itself, for the trees will grow if only they are allowed to do so, though the process may be hastened by judicious management of natural re-seeding or even by replanting when the expense of such artificial means is warranted.
