AT THE REVIVAL.

Messrs. Crossley And Hunter's Meetings.

As usual the Sydenham Street Methodist church was filled, last evening and the congregation entered heartily into the service. The singing was especially good, and the dust by Mr. Crossley and Miss Bailey, entitled "He is One," was rendered with much arctic expression.

Mr. Hunter read and expounded part of the fourteenth chapter of St. Matthew, commencing at the twenty-second verse. He called attention to the contents of the chapter, as showing that Jesus made provision for His people, by feeding the multitude, and protection by delivering the disciples in the storm. In quite a dramatic way he pictured Peter walking on the waters, and when about to sink being rescued by Jesus. Christ's words, "Fear not," were applicable to the church in times of distress and rebuke, and also to the individuals whom Christ would take care of both in life and death.

PREACHERS TO BLAME.

The Cause of a Lot of Drunkenness—Chairman's Views.

When the temperance deputation was about withdrawing from the police court, chairman last evening, after having interviewed the license commissioners, Chairman Crawford expressed a "bit of his mind" on the temperance question. "You preachers are responsible for a lot of drunkenness which exists in this city," said he. "You back up the unions in all their demands for shorter hours, less work, and a weekly half holiday. Now, it is a well-known fact that just as soon as a man becomes idle he becomes vicious and addicted to the drinking habit. The result is that when a man quits work at five o'clock he says to himself, 'There is no use going home now, supper will not be ready,' and he goes to a saloon and puts in the hour there. On Saturday afternoons what do we find? Why simply this, that working men, for want of better employment, haunt the saloons and drink whisky. That condition would not exist if the men were at work. And here you preachers of the gospel back up the unions in their demands and bring about this condition. I have had the wives of workmen come to me and beg for fuel, not having the money to pay for it, simply because their husbands spent an hour in the saloons every evening after work and squandered the money, which should go to support their families."

THIRTY ENTRIES RECEIVED.

An Effort Will be Made to Lower the Ice Record.

The secretary of the local ice trotting association has received thirty entries for the races to-morrow and Thursday. They include some of the fastest trotters and pacers in this section. A horseman who went over the track yesterday says it is the finest track he ever rode over. The two sides of the "bite" are each one-third of a mile while the outer, or rounding end, is also a third of a mile, making the whole one mile in extent. The track is fifty feet wide all around. Seemed A Close Call.

Lieut. "Chairmont," attached to the garrison batteries, ate duck on Sunday which had been kept too long to be wholesome. He was taken violently ill, and the speedy arrival of a physician brought him the far from comforting assurance that it would be at least five minutes before he would survive poisoning. He did live, but one with a less robust constitution might have been a martyr to antiquated duck.

The Call Authorized.

At a largely attended meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's church, Lindsay, Ont., on February 23rd, it was unanimously decided to extend a call to Rev. James Wallace, M.A., B.D., of Queen's University, Kingston, to become pastor of the church in succession to Rev. W. J. McMillan, who has gone to Winnipeg.

YUKON OFFICIALS SUSPENDED

Miners Make Charges Against Two Former Men.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—The department of the interior has been advised that two Yukon officials, Messrs. Hinton and Young, formerly belonged to the Ottawa, and who were employed in connection with the recording of claims on Duncan Creek about two hundred miles from Dawson, are accused by the miners of beating them out of their claims. The complaints are made to the department on behalf of the miners.

As soon as the complaints were made, Mr. Sifton ordered Major Ward, the acting commissioner of the Yukon, to suspend both officials.

Instructions have also gone forward ordering an investigation to the fullest possible extent, and providing, if the complaints are well founded, that both civil and criminal actions should be ordered against Hinton and Young.

Uncovered Old Vaults.

New York, Feb. 21.—Workmen tearing down the old hall of records in City Hall Park have uncovered six gloomy vaults, which were long a part of light in nearly a century. The dungeons were built 147 years ago by the British as a part of a prison, on what was then the northern limit of the city. It is known that Ethan Allen, the hero of Ticonderoga, was an occupant of one of the cells.

Mother and daughter will go on trial at the circuit court at Whiteburg to-day.

Colebrook's Conclusions.

Colebrooke, Feb. 23.—The young people had a very pleasant time Friday evening at the home of Arthur Middleton. Games and music were the amusements of the evening. A little girl has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hart, a great many from here attending the concert given by the Swiss Bell Ringers at Yarker. Fletcher Huffman, teacher of public school at Petworth, is home, school being closed at Petworth on account of the small pox. There is a word reported at Yarker also. Oliver Cowdy has undergone an operation at Kingston General Hospital. It is hoped he will be well enough to return to his home next week. He was defeated by Major Clark in May last by five votes. The men of Bruce are expected to give a very different verdict this time.

Congratulated The Pope.

In his sermon at St. Andrew's church, Sunday evening, Rev. Prof. Jordan made a pleasing reference to the pope. He said he desired to congratulate "that fine old Italian gentleman" on such an auspicious anniversary as he had just celebrated. The pope represented a different system of religion from his own, but it was not his intention to attack it. Rather would he criticize narrowness among Protestants who had shabby little pores of their own. This fact he lamented.
