What Is Going On In the Business World—The Market News.

Canadian furniture manufacturers have advanced prices ten per cent.

C.P.R. traffic earnings for the week ending February 28th, $745,000, for the same week last year, $660,000. Increase $76,560.

Ontario & Western will double track its lines from Cornwall to Cedars at a cost of $4,500,000, to be paid for out of earnings.

British trade both imports and exports increased in 1903 to a total of £812,000,000, an increase of over £10,000,000 over the previous twelve months and was the record for the British trade.

The value of the mineral products of Ontario for 1903, according to the report of the bureau of mines, totalled $13,877,440, an increase of $1,746,845 over 1901. Metallic products contributed $6,585,259, and non-metallic $7,292,181, both classes showing an excess as compared with last year's figures.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce has absorbed the Halifax banking company which has a paid up capital of $600,000 and a reserve $525,000. The completion of the transaction will take place in April and the Bank of Commerce will thus gain fifteen additional posts in Nova Scotia. The Commerce assumes all liabilities.

Had A Boxing Bout.

The boxing club had a "go" in the Whig hall last evening before a critical audience. Six events were scheduled, and all were run off in a highly satisfactory manner. The events were: Dalton vs. Saunders; Dalton won. Cringle vs. Taylor; Taylor won. Finlayson vs. Mudie; Finlayson won. Jamieson vs. McGinnis; Jamieson won. Dalton vs. Cringle; Dalton won. An exhibition was given by Prince and Jamieson, which was very much appreciated. The judges were Sergts. Haney and Boutillier, of the Royal Military College staff.

A Coming Event.

The second match of a series arranged between the 14th Regiment and Y.M.C.A. basket ball teams will be played on Friday night in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at eight o'clock. The first game resulted in a victory for the Y. M. C. A., but the soldier lads have been materially strengthened of late, and a good fast game may be expected. Seating will be provided for those wishing to witness the game, which is free.

The Gay Lord Quex.

The one comedy that ever ran a year in London and three months in New York, is "The Gay Lord Quex," by Arthur W. Pinero, author of "Trelawney of the Wells," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "Iris," etc. This much discussed play will be presented at the Grand on Wednesday next, by Sylvia Lynden and her company of New York players.

Retired From Active Cares.

Rev. C. P. Emery has resigned the active care of the parish of Kemptville, with its beautiful memorial church. He will remain as rector emeritus, with use of the parsonage. The congregation have asked for Rev. W. P. Reeve, of Oxford Mills, as acting incumbent, and the bishop has tendered the appointment to him.

Demonstrations as to Pruning Fruit Trees—A Small Sum Involved in an Appeal Case.

Toronto March 5.—On March 23rd, under the auspices of the Fruit Growers Association, a series of demonstrations as to pruning fruit trees will begin in the apple belt. Later demonstrations will be given in spraying and afterwards in thinning fruit.

The sum of $2.70 only is involved in an appeal being heard by a divisional court, to-day, from the county court of Huron on the action of Jacob Wolefey and J. M. R. Spence, Wiarton, and B. T. Dean and T. E. Thomson, Goderich. The defendants paid $116 into court, but judgment was for $112.70, and now defendants appeal.

The street railway company have, for ten years, been operating their line over a small piece of track at the west end of Queen street and paying no mileage to the city, claiming that a suburban line had a franchise for this street. Judgment was given, this morning, ordering the company to pay the mileage.

A Canadian officer who had seen much distinguished and exciting service in the British army, died here, last night, in the person of Lieut.-Col. Jarvis, late of the 69th Hampshire Regiment. Lieut.-Col. Jarvis, who was the son of the late Sheriff Jarvis, entered the 100th Royal Canadian Regiment in 1859, but transferred to the 65th in 1862. He served with the red cross ambulance corps through the Franco-Prussian war, and afterwards received from the French government one of the only two gold crosses granted. He was in the Afghan war of 1878 to 1880, and marched with Roberts to Candahar. During these operations he was frequently mentioned in despatches and for gallantry at Candahar received his brevet major.

The G.T.R. solicitors are applying, to-day, at Osgoode Hall, to consolidate new actions brought against the company by the widows of Wilson Morton killed in the Wanstead disaster. Morton first lived in Toronto and later in Chicago. In 1900 he secured a divorce in Chicago from Amy Florence Morton, his Toronto wife, which the latter now claims was secured without notice to her. He then married Maud Morton, Chicago. Both women have issued writs against the railway and the company is seeking to consolidate the actions and first to have the issue tried as to which is the proper widow to press the claim against the company.

A committee of philanthropists waited on the government, this morning, asking that the Penetanguishene reformatory for boys be broken up. They pointed out that the number of committals is decreasing and suggested that the older boys be sent to the Central Prison where labor is scarce, that the younger be sent to farms throughout the province and that those of the intermediate ages be sent to the industrial school at Mimico.

TWO FIREMEN HURT.

Blaze Near Terrace Causes Loss of $50,000.

Buffalo, March 5.—Fire in the Dormer building, in Lock street, near the Terrace, early this morning, caused a loss of $50,000. Two firemen were injured. Lieut. Nitschel was struck in the back by a heavy weight. His injuries are serious, if not fatal. Capt. Whitman was hurled to the ground by the collapse of a wall, escape and badly injured. The heaviest losers are: The Dormer Fish company, the Buffalo Emery company, the Buffalo Gas Engine company and a mirror beveling company.

HAZEL NUT KILLS CHILD.

Chokes to Death in Arms of Agonized Mother.

New York, March 5.—While trying to swallow a small piece of hazel nut yesterday, Annie Voriziuk, two years old, choked to death, dying in her mother's arms as the agonized woman was rushing through the street to a physician. The child was the last of three, all of whom have died since Christmas. The mother is in a serious condition from the shock.

Another $5,000 Gift.

Watertown, N. Y., March 5.—The trustees of the city hospital have been notified that the hospital will receive an additional donation of $5,000 from the estate of the late Mrs. Fred Emerson. In acknowledgement of the two generous gifts a room in the hospital will be named the "Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emerson room." The hospital is considering plans for the erection of the new building for the care of contagious diseases, which Mrs. Emma Fowler Taylor is to erect this year, and hopes also to raise funds for the erection of a laundry building and a new stable and ambulance house this season.

Skeleton Of Missing Captain.

Rochester, March 5.—The skeleton of a man found on the bank of the Genesee river, Tuesday morning, has been identified as that of John Brown, an old sea and lake captain, missing since last June. His daughter, Mrs. Margaret Nolin, recognized laundry marks on his clothing. Brown was well-known in many lake ports, and had been living with his daughter for some time before his disappearance. He was in the habit of spending much of his time near the water.

A Little Child Drowned.

Guelph, March 5.—A number of children attempted to cross the ice in a field on the farm of Charles Goetz, near Winterbourne, while on their way home from school, when the ice gave way and the nine-year-old daughter of W. C. Bensenger was drowned. The schoolmates of the little girl endeavored to rescue her, but failed.

No Foundation For Proposals.

Washington, March 5.—The press is authorized by the British embassy to state that there is no foundation for the reports that Mrs. Maybrick's release is contemplated by the British authorities.

DEATH OF MRS. ELY.

Called Away at Good Age—Left Sorrowing Friends.

The sorrowful news was announced this morning of the death of Mrs. Samuel Ely, who passed away at eight o'clock this morning at the home of her son-in-law, Robert E. Aiken. The deceased, aged sixty-three years, was a daughter of the late Lawrence Herchimer, and was born at Herchimer Point, a few miles west of Kingston, in April, 1840. On September 13th, 1860, she married her now bereaved husband. Eight children blessed the union, all surviving, four boys and four girls: Herchmer, Chicago, Augustus, Battle Creek, Mich.; Dr. Edward North Dakota; Ernest, New York; Mrs. R. E. Aiken, city; Mrs. Miller, Toronto; Mrs. J. G. Dunlop, Japan, and Miss Laura, at home. Besides these and her sorrowful husband three sisters survive: Mrs. R. Dalton, Stafa; Mrs. G. Smyth, Watertown, N. Y.; Mrs. Herchmer, Collins Bay.

The deceased was an active member of Queen Street Methodist church, a devoted wife and loving mother. The deceased made many friends who deeply deplore her sudden summons from her earthly surroundings. The funeral will take place on Saturday and will be private.

WILL GET HIS CLAIM.

Arthur White Has Won His Case.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crate, landlady of the Strathcona hotel at Brockville, was in arrears of rent to the owner of the property and was also indebted to Arthur White to the extent of $200. Mr. Tompkins, the owner, seized the goods in the hotel, and they were sold by the sheriff to one Howison. Eventually, Howison sold to Mr. Tompkins. Mr. White alleged that Mr. Howison bought as the agent of Mr. Tompkins, and that, owing to the fiduciary position of Mr. Tompkins, as execution creditor, he was not legally entitled to be a purchaser of the goods, and that, therefore, the sale was void. In this contention Mr. White was upheld by the divisional court, and will be entitled to satisfy his claim out of the goods.

STORM KILLS HERDS.

Thousands of Dead and Dying Cattle.

Denver, Col., March 5.—Thousands of cattle, dead or dying, can be seen in the snow on the plains from every railroad throughout the range country. The storms of the last two weeks have wrought havoc among the herds. One train crew on the Missouri Pacific counted more than 1,000 dead cattle between the Kansas line and Pueblo. Rock Island trainmen estimate a similar number lying within sight of that line.

Says Home Rule Is Distant.

London, March 5.—The Birmingham papers credit Lord Spencer, the liberal leader in the House of Commons, with declaring, in the course of a speech that he made in that city last Saturday, that home rule for Ireland "was very distant and that it would be impolitic to bring it forward." He had always believed it to be more probable that the unionist party would eventually carry some measure of self-government for Ireland than that the liberals would do so.

Arran Isles Short Of Food.

Dublin, March 5.—The inhabitants of the Arran Isles are in a state of semi-starvation in consequence of the prolonged storms on the west coast of Ireland. The wants of the population are ordinarily supplied by steamer three times weekly, but communication with the islands has been completely cut off since February 21st, and all attempts to provision the islanders have had to be abandoned.

A Sudden Death.

Collingwood, Ont., March 5.—Alfred Northcott, a well known master painter, and for many years, a resident of the town, died this morning suddenly. He had just seated himself at the table for breakfast when he rolled off the chair and expired without warning. He was about forty-five years of age. Heart failure is the supposed cause of death.

Runaway On Princess Street.

A farmer's team took fright this afternoon, and dashed furiously up Princess street, sending pedestrians and sleighs flying into safety. Above Montreal street, one of the horses, evidently of Belleville breed, got tired, and the other had to almost drag its mate along. Fortunately the team kept the middle of the road, and no damage or accident resulted.

Disastrous Fire.

Madoc, Ont., March 5.—Fire broke out in the Wilson block, causing heavy loss by fire and water to B. O'Hara, dry goods. Insurance, $8,000. The stock was valued at $15,000. The greatest damage was from water, the fire being overhead. Damage to building light; fully covered by insurance.

Court Decision.

St. Louis, March 5.—In the matter of the threatened Wabash strike, everything now hinges on the injunction, which the labor leaders will attempt to have dissolved, and until this shall be done away with there can be no strike, for the leaders have agreed to obey the court's order.

He Is No Worse.

Rome, March 5.—Dr. Lapponi visited the pope, this morning, and found him no worse with regard to symptoms of any special illness.

The death took place in the General Hospital to-day of Oliver John Cowdy, township of Portland, of enlargement of the spleen. The deceased was aged sixteen years. The remains were taken to Portland township to-day for burial.

The death took place yesterday of Mrs. Lucy A. Perry, 151 Division street, of diabetes. She had been ailing for a long time, and was aged seventy-four years.

Miss Mary Jane Benson, aged ninety-four years, living with Henry Hitchins' O'Kill street, was found dead in her room this afternoon.

TIMBER LIMITS SOLD.

Rathbun Gets $50,000 For One On Upper Ottawa.

The Rathbun company, Deseronto, has sold to A. Barnett, Renfrew, a limit situated near Grand Lake, Victoria, in the Upper Ottawa country. The financial consideration was in the neighborhood of $50,000. The limit, seventy-one miles in extent, is well stocked with white pine and other woods. It is situated in the same district as the Hendrie limits, offered for sale and withdrawn a few months ago. The limit purchased by Mr. Barnett is an isolated one, and will probably be held for future cutting.

There Will Be An Investigation.

Two trade instructors of the Kingston penitentiary staff were yesterday found in possession of decoy letters addressed to convicts, from outside parties, and were suspended, pending a confirmation of their dismissal by the minister of justice. The capture was made by two Dominion police, one by the name of Chamberlain, who spent the night in the institution.

It is claimed that other officials have been guilty of a like offence, and that a rigid investigation will be made by Inspector Steward, which will result in a weeding out of the guilty parties.

Kidnapped Her Child.

The police, of Gouverneur, N.Y., want information as to the whereabouts of a woman who took a seven-year-old child from a school in that town. The child was her own, but had been adopted three years ago by a Mrs. Ricket. The mother chose that way of getting her youngster back. She left by the north bound train, and is supposed to have crossed into Canada. A woman with two young children came to Kingston this afternoon by stage, but whether she is the woman in question is not known.

The Priest's Admiration.

Father Sortori, a Roman Catholic priest of Maryland, says: "Great, today, is the admiration for the Methodists of the United States who raised $20,000,000 as a thank-offering, but greater still, is my admiration for them for their noble stand against any kind of dancing."
