HON. MR. ROSS' STAND

When Mr. Gurney had ceased himself of his story last week when he had told how he had sought patronage and got it, and, as he alleged, been lured to support the government...

Mr. Ross' appeal has been met with the obstruction of the opposition, and its members have been putting every obstacle in the way of an expedition and thorough investigation.

THE POOR AND INSANE

Toronto has done some good by the demonstration it has made on one question—the commit to jail of persons who are simple and sane, and not insane and criminal.

The statement of Dr. Chamberlain, the inspector of prisons and asylums, at the conference of civic representatives and members of the government, was startling.

THE MANITOBA DILEMMA

Two years ago the Manitoba legislature leased the Northern Railway company's lines in Manitoba for nine hundred and ninety-nine years at an annual rental of $250,000.

The inference was that the Northern Pacific Railway desired to withdraw from Manitoba, and the local government made the boast that it would see the people had what they most desired, namely simple railway facilities at reasonable rates.

But the Northern Railway company last year asked permission to again enter the province on its own account, and was refused the permission.

The railway enterprise of the province has so far turned out all right. The Canadian Railway company has made its system pay, and has handed over to the government enough to permit it to meet its obligations.

HIS DEFENCE.

VIEW OF THE PETERBORO EXAMINER.

How the Case is Put For Accused Minister by His Newspaper—The Charges Absolutely Denied.

Peterboro, March 16.—The Examiner, the paper owned by Mr. Stratton, publishes the following regarding the Gurney charges:

"Pending judicial investigation the Examiner does not desire to influence public opinion unduly, yet it is fair to state that Mr. Stratton absolutely and positively denies Mr. Gurney's statement to the effect that any corrupt consideration or money was given or promised."

Investigation will show that Mr. Gurney approaches the government and offers his support; that he goes to the government as a friend and is courteously received; that his correspondence, under these conditions, is promptly replied to with the courtesy that should regulate the amenities of intercourse between departments of the government and representatives of the people who profess to be friendly to their administration.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The government of Ontario is under great credit for the fact that it has not been described as "trial by newspaper."

The Educational Monthly is now a splendid publication, one of the best of its kind. It has been greatly improved since its recent enlargement.

A ship canal via the Falls, Oswego, and Oneida Lake to the Hudson, is on the tapis. The western states favour it. The cost will be about $200,000,000.

It is true, says the Toronto News, that Mr. Stratton has yet to be heard, but—the good name of the province demands that he go at once. Is that logical?

The conservative party of Manitoba was very hot for a decrease in the sessional allowance when it was in opposition. Now that it is in power the economy has been forgotten.

The Toronto News was formerly an independent conservative paper. Under its new management it appears to be doing the conservative party a service it may not sufficiently appreciate.

The Mail announces that Mr. Gurney is being shadowed by government men. Perhaps the opposition is interested in his movements also. What would happen to it now should Mr. Gurney disappear?

The Montreal Star complains because the government is making such slow headway with the Gurney charges. Who is to blame? Mr. Whitney, who is prolonging the debate for political effect.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has astonished the Commons with his intellectual and physical vigour. He was so frequently referred to as a sick man that his appearance in debate came as a great surprise to some people.

Dr. Bourne and Mr. Sutherland, of the local legislature, should either prefer charges against the government, specifically, of having attempted to bribe them, or sink into silence. They have advertised themselves enough.

According to La Patrie the opposition in the Commons needs a leader who will be a connecting link between the present and the past. Mr. Tarte could perhaps name the man which the place and the times demand.

Lord Lovat, a hero of the South African war, broke down when he assayed to address the House of Lords. He had only spoken a dozen words when the collapse came.

The British government has felt the uplift of Mr. Chamberlain's presence. The power of the man, was never so clearly manifested as it is now.

The Montreal Gazette talks of the loyalty of Mr. Sutherland, M.P.P., the party he represents. Did he not, in the local election, pose as an independent? Was it not this independence which suggested that he support the Ross government and that he interposed as a bribe?

OBSERVATIONS.

Real Fortunate.

The Sun says Mr. Foster can well afford to stay out of parliament. That's lucky, isn't it?

Living In History.

Toronto World.

William Munn lost his case at Aurora, and the verdict will go down in history as a great moral victory for dead skunks.

Longest Sermon.

The longest sermon on record was preached by Isaac Barrow, a Puritan preacher, of the seventeenth century, who once followed a sermon in Westminster Abbey lasting three and one-half hours.

The Londoners have lost, it is alleged $100,000,000, by the operation of the price of promoters, Whitaker Wright. And so one should offer a word of sympathy. The fool and his money are easily parted, and the fools appear to be very numerous in London.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months."

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS. All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham is inclined to believe that our girls are pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. —LILLIE E. SINKLAIR, 17 E. 23d St., Chicago Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

FORGET IT if you cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of those testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
