CANADA FOR CANADIANS... A very direct and effective application of this national slogan.

The best careful institution in town is the City park as far as care-taking goes. But there the praise ends.

The county councillors should give attention to the court house ground. At a small cost it could be made much more ornamental and attractive.

In sending aldermen to big cities to inspect the latest paving work there is wisdom. If more of the leading spirits of the city would look into things abroad it would be wholesome.

ARE ALL RIGHT... GEN. LAURIE'S OPINION OF THE COLONIES... Gives Several Valid Reasons For Leaving Things as They Are in Naval Matters—Once Commanded the Canadian Militia.

London, April 14.—Gen. Laurie, M.P., has written a letter to the Times in which he vigorously defends the course of the colonies in refusing to contribute to the support of the imperial navy.

According to the decision of Judge Street a man is made financially liable for the slanders of his wife. Everything is going these days against the poor man.

The number of immigrants passing through Winnipeg to the North-West is without a precedent. The hope is that all the people will be comfortably located and made content.

The Emperor William's new-born tributes to our Saviour's death, in the half-mastings of a palace flag on Good Friday, is as tardy and emotional as the oblation of a Portuguese sailor who drifted out on hearing the details of the Crucifixion.

The collision on the Intercolonial railway and loss of four lives so soon following a similar accident eastward shows that the fatal element of disaster has been spreading from the west, and that the evidence of accidental causes is again clear.

The world is very much the same all the way through. The great receptions of the czar and zarina at imperial Moscow, of King Edward in imperial Portugal, and of President Roosevelt in republican America.

The French are as mercurial a people as they are described to be. It is not two years since they were breathing threatenings and hurling vile cartoons at the perfidious English.

From Quebec to Port Simpson, via the Trans-Canada railway, will be only 2,830 miles, all of the Saguenay being south of the northern limit of wheat.

The harbor of Port Simpson is one of the finest on the Pacific coast. It is situated on the Saguenay, then either Vancouver or San Francisco, Chicoutimi, on the Saguenay, can be reached by vessels of any draught.

Perhaps the strongest claim which the promoters of the Trans-Canada are urging upon the government, is that their line is destined to serve Canadian ports exclusively.

Really, the man most to be envied in this gamey matter is Hon. S. H. Blake, who has been able to seek revenge against the government, is compelled by the exigencies of his profession to take it.

Lord Dundonald, Endorsed. Lord Dundonald proposes to see that the men who turn out to the camps are treated with greater consideration in the future.

A Domestic Terror. Hamilton Herald. Judge Street has decided that a husband is liable in damages for slanders uttered by his wife.

Caused Widespread Regret. Ogdensburg Journal. Capt. Andrew Miller had a very wide acquaintance among steamboat men and excursionists.

THE GAMEY CHARGES... Following is Continuation of Monday's Examination.

In cross-examination Mr. Gamey said that during the four years he knew Frank Sullivan he might have had other deals with him, but could not remember. After some questioning he would not swear that he did not have another deal with Capt. Sullivan.

He believed he was always true to his party and he thought the word "patriot" would characterize his conduct as well as any other word. He claimed that he had the right to use that $1,500, and did use it in his business.

He said that he used the $1,500 because he knew he could restore it when the house met, but he admitted that when he made his statement on March 11th he did not have the money, and could not get it without realizing on his assets.

"Let me ask you a question," said Mr. Gamey. "I think I could tell when you were tired," retorted Mr. Gamey. The incident led Chancellor Boyd to tell the witness rather sharply to answer questions properly.
