THERE IS A SURPLUS.

Canada's Debt Has Been Reduced by $5,000,000.
Ottawa, April 15.—When Hon. W. S. Fielding delivered his financial statement today he announced the largest surplus for the current year that Canada has had since confederation.
It is probable the surplus on consolidated fund will be about $13,000,000, and that there will be a real surplus of about $5,000,000.
In other words, the public debt will be reduced by about $5,000,000.
Only three times since confederation has the public debt been reduced. This was in 1871, 1882 and 1890.
It would not surprise any one should Mr. Fielding make the argument that by his present financial statement he has succeeded in wiping out all that the present government is responsible for having added to the public debt, and that, therefore, the present administration has succeeded in carrying on the affairs of the country since the inauguration of the Fielding tariff without adding anything to the public debt.
As for the growth of trade, it has simply been marvellous. In 1873 Canada's aggregate trade was $217,304,000, and in 1895 it was $215,500,000. The current year will be about double the what it was in 1895.

CALL ON POPE

King Edward's Visit All Arranged.

NEW QUARTERS.

FOR FUTURE CANADIAN EMIGRATION BUSINESS.

Lord Strathcona to Lay Foundation Stone of New Building—Mr. Devlin is Somewhat Mixed—Ellen Terry's New Play.

London, April 16.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily British Whig has received official information that a visit by King Edward to the pope had been definitely arranged. It has been decided to depart from precedent and the pope will proceed to the Vatican direct from the Quirinal. This extraordinary concession is the result of secret, delicate negotiations, which were eventually determined. It is intended as a recognition of Great Britain's important relations with the Roman Catholic Church.
"Our Western Empire," a new motion picture, whose object is to aid in the development of commerce between Canada, West Indies and the motherland, contains to-day an excellent portrait of a biography of Hon. Clifford Sifton. The article deals especially with Mr. Sifton's emigration policy. The writer protests against the suggestion that the Canadian emigration office, the former Canadian agent, who worked in harmony with the clergy, had no difficulty in inducing Catholic emigrants to go to Canada, despite the prejudice against emigration. The present agent, Edward O. Kelly, though, lacks the influence exercised by his predecessor, but Belfast is certainly a better recruiting ground than ever.
The president of the Corn Trade Association in a letter to the Times urges recourse to the colonies, particularly Canada, for the market for their food supplies.
To-day Lord Strathcona will lay the corner stone of a new building to be erected by the Lyons Mission, the cost of half a million dollars. The Lyons Mission is supported by graduates of the Lyons school, Cambridge, which was founded by Wesleyans in the year 1856.
Ellen Terry inaugurated her engagement into London theatrical management by the production, last night, of Ibsen's "The Vikings," which realistic presentation of Icelandic life, courage, love and vengeance, appearing herself in a part resembling Lady Macbeth, and playing it with the telling heartiness which she has so far so well demonstrated in her other parts.
The office of the present emigration agent, Mr. Strathcona, was moved to a new office and was repeatedly re-ported after every act. Oscar Asche supported the production of "The Vikings" in a part resembling Lady Macbeth, and playing it with the telling heartiness which she has so far so well demonstrated in her other parts.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Rev. Mr. Buchanan Offers a Public Apology.
Perth, Ont., April 16.—The adjourned case of Burrows vs. McGillivray was heard yesterday and resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the slender majority of one. The defendant, in the assault action.
The action for libel brought by W. W. Caldwell, M.P.F. of Lanark against Rev. Mr. Buchanan, was settled out of court, by the defendant publishing an apology in all the papers in which the article appeared.
Aldon Mather, aged seventy-five, of Carleton Place, was found guilty of the manslaughter of his son-in-law, Nelson McWilliams, aged thirty-two, on Sunday morning, March 22nd, in Carleton Place. Mather, stabbed McWilliams as the result of a drunken rage, the latter dying from the effects of the wound on March 25th. The prisoner, who had charge of the same place, was acquitted. The jury made a recommendation to mercy.

A New Era.

London, April 15.—A new era in Canadian emigration work will begin to-morrow with the opening of the new Canadian office at Charing Cross. The office will be run on strictly business lines. Secondly the hours of the office staff will be lengthened from ten o'clock to five as at present, to half-past nine until six. A time register will be kept and the staff will be so arranged that every assistant is under the eye of his chief. Thirdly, the preparation of complete statistics will be entered upon, the aim of this is to arrive at the results achieved by each sub-office and also to keep in touch with the emigrants. "How do you account for the present emigration?" was asked of the recent official. He was asked, "In the first place Canada is the most desirable field for emigration in the world. In the second place Lord Strathcona's suggestion for a more progressive policy has been adopted by the immigration department, and thirdly the application of business principles in the management of the emigration carried on by the Canadian office in London."

Rev. Mr. Barr will clear $100,000 with his party of colonists. He gets the usual bonus of $5 a head, which the Canadian government pays for immigrants to agents in Europe who send out acceptable men. He gets a commission of $7 a head from the steamship company, and he receives some profits from the sale of supplies.

HIS DEATH EXPECTED.

Sir Oliver Mowat is in Very Low Condition.

THE GANEY CHARGES.

Result of Evidence Taken Wednesday Afternoon.
Toronto, April 16.—When the commission resumed session Wednesday afternoon, replying to Mr. Blake, Mr. Ganey said this was his first experience in a witness box. He repeated that the reason he destroyed the written agreement signed by Frank Sullivan, the only written evidence of the confidence of the Sullivan, was because it was that he wanted to keep the confidence of the Sullivan, and did not involve the government. Regarding the timber discussed, Mr. Ganey said he had discussed the piano factory, from which they would repay that money to the government. He said that they wanted only one timber limit, but wanted a good one, because if they got one it was not likely they could get another. This finished Mr. Ganey's evidence.
A number of letters were filed with the judge in relation to the appointments, and showing Mr. Ganey's control of patronage. One of the letters was the appointment of Gilman as a J.P. on the recommendation of Mr. Ganey, and then followed a document signed by the lieutenant-governor making the appointment.
U. O. Hammond, reporter of the Globe, was the next witness, and was examined by Mr. Ritchie, who connected with the circumstances connected with the circumstances published in the Globe, in which Mr. Ganey announced his intention to support the government. He said that in connection of the situation from Mr. Strathcona on the day he was called at his office for the purpose of getting an interview. He called first about seven o'clock, and then returned several times up to seven o'clock. Mr. Ganey on the previous day showed him a typewritten document, which he would try to get Mr. Ganey to give to the Globe as an interview to the government in the bye-elections. Mr. Ganey was in Mr. Strathcona's office on the afternoon of the 15th and left about three o'clock. He said that Mr. Ganey's return to the office was about six o'clock. He saw Frank Sullivan in the corridor several times. About 6:30 Mr. Ganey called on Mr. Strathcona, and was introduced by Mr. Myers and handed him the typewritten interview.
It was different from the one shown him by Mr. Strathcona, having several alterations and additions. He did not remember much conversation with Mr. Ganey, except to say that the interview would be a good thing for the government to satisfy. On the previous day he was asked by Mr. Strathcona any questions by him. He saw afterwards Mr. Strathcona, who expressed himself as satisfied. On the previous day Mr. Strathcona asked him to get Mr. Ganey to sign the document, so that he could keep it. At his request Mr. Ganey signed it in his presence, and was an important document, and he himself thought for that reason he would like to have it signed.
To Mr. Johnston the witness said that the witness had prepared the copy of the public interviews whenever the matter was important, and there was nothing unusual in this respect about the interview.
Edward Crossin, piano manufacturer, said that in September, 1902, during the last exhibition week, he had several conversations with Mr. Ganey, and on one day he went home (Ganey) deposited money in the "Traders' bank. The bills were of large denominations, tens and fifties. Mr. Ganey told him where he got the bills.
Mr. Crossin said Mr. Ganey told him it was $1,500, which he had got in a deal; that it was not yet closed, and that more would be heard about it. On Tuesday previous, March 10th, he admitted Mr. Ganey, at his request, and three others, to the piano factory.

Toronto, April 16.—As the result of a stabbing affray last night, Frank Lombard, Centre Ave., lies in a serious condition with stab wounds in his neck and face. Fiery Di Pasquale, 170 Centre Avenue is under arrest, charged with the stabbing, which is said to have been the outcome of a drunken brawl.
Argument in the Sault Ste. Marie election appeal was concluded yesterday, judgment being reserved. The liberal counsel, in his plea, made the somewhat novel contention that the payment of an orator for services during an election was illegal under the act.
The council of the board of trade has endorsed the resolution of the Vancouver board of trade, which is to the effect that the South African are proposing to accord a preference to the mother country, and that the Dominion government should be addressed, urging that it endeavor to obtain the benefit of a like preferential treatment for Canada.
A deputation representing the local labor organizations, waited on the Ontario government, yesterday, to oppose the granting of the manufacturer's recent request for government aid in bringing 6,000 skilled laborers to Canada from Europe, in order to relieve the scarcity in the labor market. The labor men contended that there were at the present time for all the requirements. Premier Ross assured the deputation that the government's efforts were being directed towards bringing out, not skilled mechanics, but men who could take positions as farm laborers, of whom there is an admitted scarcity.
