A VOICE NEEDED TO AWAKEN THE PUBLIC ABOUT PAVING... Who is Pulling the Wires and Who is the Inspiration Behind the Agitation?

Kingston, April 21... The editor of the 'Daily Mail' is a voice that will awaken the public to the importance of the recently announced scheme of street paving...

It is not necessary to re-capitalise the city of Kingston in the last twenty years that the city has been jockeyed into the support of personal schemes under the guise of public spirit and the common good...

The argument for street paving advanced from so-called men of public spirit and municipal advancement is specious in the extreme...

But this is precisely how it is intended to work. No demand has arisen from the public for the work, therefore let the citizens ask who it is that is pulling the wires...
