THE WHIG - 70th YEAR... THE DAILY WHIG... Prosperity of the Province.

PROSPERITY OF THE PROVINCE... The good times are indicated in no way more clearly than in the organization of companies for manufacturing in the province.

EDITORIAL NOTES... Our streets are the dirtiest on Sunday... Venezuela prohibits foreigners from taking any part in public affairs.

Yes, Mr. Spectator, there are some alleged Mormons in our North-West, but they are not polygamists.

Portland cement can, according to a late circular, be made for 70c per barrel. It sells for $2.25 at present.

The cultivation of lawns and front gardens can only be undertaken when the soil and water are kept off the streets.

Chauncey Depew is real sorry for the people who worry over money.

Toronto University is in luck. It ran behind $10,000 in 1922, and the government assumed the deficit.

The longshoremen's strike is on in Montreal. The shooting of one man, and violence of the strikers generally, led to the calling out of 1,300 of the militia.

FINANCES OF ONTARIO... The premier, who is also the provincial treasurer, made his financial statement on Tuesday.

Without Cultivation... One thing is certain, namely that Ontario politics constitute a fine hot-bed for perjury.

The Best Capital... Eighty of the Barr colonists have less than $50 each; but energy and perseverance is the best capital in a new country.

GAMEY'S VIEWS... HE TALKED OF SUPPORTING ROSS GOVERNMENT... He told a Kensington man he would do so because it was doing well for Manitoulin.

EMPEROR LI HSI... Hein, April 30.—Emperor Li Hsi, of Korea, today, celebrates the fourth anniversary of his accession to the throne.

CIGARETTE BILL... Parliament Asked to Prohibit them Altogether... Ottawa, April 29.—The debate in the House of Commons upon the amendment to the motion to go into committee on ways and means this afternoon took a wide range.

George Taylor raised the objection that the resolution called upon the government to introduce a bill, and suggested that Mr. Bickerdike drop his bill and let the government assume the responsibility of introducing it as a government measure.

Mr. Taylor insisted that the government were attempting to shirk their responsibilities.

Changes in District Supreme Court... Washington, D.C., April 30.—A number of changes were made to-day in the personnel of the supreme court of our district.
