A Kidney Sufferer FOR Fourteen Years.

TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS THE BACK.

Could not Sit or Stand with Ease.

Consulted Five Different Doctors.

Doan's Kidney Pills

FINALLY MADE A COMPLETE CURE.

Mr. Jacob Jamieson, Jamieson Bros., well-known Contractors and Builders, Welland, Ont., tells of how he was cured. "For fourteen years I was afflicted with kidney trouble which increased in severity the last five years. My most serious attack was four years ago, when I was completely incapacitated. I had terrible pains across my back, floating specks before my eyes and was in almost constant torment. I could not sit or stand with ease and was a wreck in health, having no appetite and not getting any flesh. I had taken medicine from five different doctors and also numerous other preparations to no purpose. I finally began to take Doan's Kidney Pills and before I had taken five boxes the trouble left me and I now feel better than I have for twenty years. Those who know the how I was afflicted and say it is almost impossible to believe that I have been cured, yet they know it is so. I have passed the meridian of life but I feel that I have taken on the robe of youth."

Price 50 cts per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or THE DOAN KIDNEY PILL CO., TORONTO, ONT.

THE SAME WITH A DIFFERENCE.

Gold in the Twilight

Mrs. Lennox Mills will address the meeting of the Mothers' Union this evening, and Mrs. Bates will sing. The society, or union, observes the greatest encouragement from all mothers and all women interested in children. It is meant to reach women of all classes, the rich as well as the poor. The former in many cases need more helpful instruction in the upbringing of their children than the latter. A glance at our Sunday school classes is enough to convince any body that there is something wrong somewhere with the way the children of the well-to-do are trained at home, for the worst-behaved, the most ignorant, and the most difficult to reach, are the children whose parents have time, means, and often education, to expend on them. The complaint is going up everywhere, and our little city is unfortunately not quite exempt.

The Sunday school is taken as an example, first, because the writer never was inside a common school, and couldn't speak from actual observation, and secondly, because the Sunday school a letter estimate can be got of the lack of both mental and spiritual culture. Boys there are in our Sunday schools, sons of wealthy, or at any rate, well-to-do parents, who would be the better for several floggings vigorously administered; and many little girls who would be vastly improved by a few hours' solitary seclusion in their own pretty rooms. The trouble is papa and mamma haven't, or think they haven't, time to give to these things. From the more pressing needs of social life, and of a sort of pure-prose barbarism is the result. If children have to give way to society, it's a pity that their elders don't send them away to school where competent people can look after their discipline. A good, stiff course at a boarding school for a girl, and a five or six-year training at one of the big public schools, Upper Canada, or Trinity school, Port Hope, for instance, will turn out something very respectable indeed, unless there is too much objectionable heredity for vigilant, faithful masters, and wholesome preceptual "licking" to eradicate.

It is hoped the remarks regarding the most troublesome portions of our Sunday schools won't be taken to be the hallucinations of an over-heated imagination, for there is chapter and verse for them.

Miss Gordon arrived to-day from Toronto, and is staying with Mrs. Osborne.

Mrs. King, Alice Carter, gave a very little chateau party on Saturday night, for half a dozen or so of the young people.

The Misses Moore have changed their plans, and instead of taking up house on Barrie street, have rented a house on Alfred street, opposite Victoria school.

Mrs. Bedford-Jones, of Brockville, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Van-Graubenzee.

Mrs. Machar was hostess at a small tea on Saturday.

The executive committee of the National Council of Women met last Thursday at Westford, the residence of Mrs. W. E. Sanford, in Hamilton. Lady Taylor presided, in the absence of Mrs. Thompson, the president.

Those present were: Lady Tilley St. John, N.B.; Miss Carmichael, Mrs. Glesgow; Mrs. Yarker, London; Mrs. McRimmon, Whitby; Mrs. Passmore, Port Hope; Mrs. Torrington, Mrs. Carry, Mrs. G. W. Kerr, Mrs. Jean Stewart, and Miss Fitzgibbon, Toronto.

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, of Toronto, corresponding secretary, was also in attendance, and the local councils were well represented. The annual meeting of the council will be held in Toronto May 20th to 27th. Other matters of moment to the women of Canada were discussed. The members of the committee and a number of other ladies were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Sanford.

Lady Violet Elliott

The following "personals" regarding the meeting of the executive of the National Council of Women at Westford, Mrs. Sanford's residence in Hamilton, which has been clipped from the Spectator:

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings shows her training as a newspaper writer in her quick, alert summing up of the remarks of others, and the short, pithy manner in which she speaks, also in the broad view she takes of matters. The National Council has been fortunate to secure the services of such a clever woman and a true and patriotic Canadian.

Mrs. Joan Blevett, who has been called "the sweetest of Canadian poets," has a very striking face, strong and intellectual, with soft brilliant eyes and great sweetness of expression, a face that would be notable anywhere.

Then there was Lady Taylor, a keen, alert woman of business, keeping the members strictly to the point and making every matter perfectly plain. Many a man might envy Lady Taylor's ease of manner and good judgment.

Riding has become quite a fad in Ottawa and every morning a party of young people take a canter down to Rockton and out some of the pretty suburban roads.

Mr. Guy Rogers, late of Peterboro, but now of the Indian staff corps, has come home on a nine months' furlough. A group of friends surrounded Mrs. Coleman ("Kit") at the Horse Show on Friday night, and welcomed her back again. In low and modulated tones, she told of her experiences, everyone listening with interest. Her flatterer accompanied her and has all the promise of growing into a very charming woman. "Vogue."

Lady Grisel Cochrane, whose engagement to Lord Belhaven's son and heir, is reported, is very well known in London. She is smart and piquant-looking, and a bright and amusing conversationalist. During the season he is generally to be seen riding in the Row, where in the summer months he wears her "tamara" hat tied under her chin with black velvet ribbon, a picturesque fashion which has not become general.

Miss Mabel Thomson, of St. John, N.B., is at Lakewood. Miss Winnifred Cartwright, of Toronto, is the guest of Miss Wicksteed, Albert street, Ottawa.

Mrs. Mariel Church is spending a week in Toronto, en route to Victoria, and during her stay will be the guest of the Misses Foster.

The crown of beauty this season, although no one will forget lovely Miss Ruby Lindsay, is likely to be bestowed on the daughter of Lord and Lady Minto, who at Montreal, has been carrying all before her. Lady Minto herself is a most interesting woman, and her daughter has inherited her fine eyes and elegance of figure. Of all the British vice-queens none has more popularity than Lady Minto. Her savoir faire, her eye of sport, and the grace of her walking are a fortunate achievement for the wife of a governor of the "Lady of the Snows" have gained her admiration of all. In London society Lady Minto boasts friends without number, and her name is mentioned by debutants in chatter by her side—whose charm it is declared, will rival Lady Hamilton's own—is awaited with sincere pleasure.—The Gentlewoman.

"All physicians know that fasting is one of nature's own cures for any number of complaints," said a doctor who uses no drugs in his treatment of disease. "Moderns are overworked, overworked badly, and within the next ten years I think that the fasting cure will take its place among the new cures, such as systematic exercise in the open air, deep breathing, massage and proper sleep, containing 'Rest is nature's cure—the cure for the mind and the body and therefore for the stomach and all the diseases that have their inception there. But the diet consists of the finest of meats, makes about feeling ill his relatives set about preparing tempting dishes for him under the impression that this will restore him. A person who is really ill cannot eat, and will not, eat, because his instinct teaches him that he must not. Another who is merely indisposed will fill up his entire day hunting up new things to take, on the ground that he has no appetite. He may leave out his breakfast, but by noon he will have had clam broth, sherry and egg, beef tea, vichy and milk and other drug-store concoctions containing no amount enough for a prize-fighter."

Flax thread mercerized is provided in all colors for embroidery and fagot, stitching and ribbon work. The simpler gowns are signs of their collarless, as the high severe collar comforts better with their general simplicity. A lighter touch is given by the fancy trimmings, corded or garnished with buttons with which they are invariably supplied. These with a single tail extending several inches below the collar find favor. The more elaborate lace, trimmed frocks have wide lace at throat, outlining the front panel and giving the skirt yoke effect. Yoke lace is suitable for such use.

Here's a morning programme that will put life into a sluggish liver, give you a clear eye, a fresh skin, harden your muscles and make you feel like a new man.—Rise at 6 a.m. Take a cold sponge bath. Put on your sweater and take a five-mile wheel in the country or the park. Get your lungs full of fresh air and your head full of healthy thoughts—nothing like a wheel or that. Then when you get home have a good rub down with a coarse towel; make your skin glow. After this you will feel like a hero. There is no better beginning for the heat of a summer day than that course. Use it!

King of Hard Drinks. It is said that during the construction of the Panama railroad, for every (he laid down) a human life was given up; but this is one of those romantic lies which everybody likes to read but few believe. There were a great many deaths, caused by legitimate diseases, by careless living, and by drinking a native beverage called Ron. This liquor made from sugar cane, is such a drink that a Scotch highlander is pink lemonade alongside of it. Taken in small quantities it prevents malaria, but taken in copious draughts, as some men use it, it produces death.

The troops from the St. John's, Ont. military depot, to the number of fifty, left this morning for Montreal, in connection with the strike.

Jim Dumps at night would sometimes say, "Come, wife, let's go to see a play." Nor did he seek a restaurant For rounding out their little jaunt. A better plan occurred to him, "Some 'Force' at home!" cried Sunny Jim.
