A SERIOUS FIRE. Causes a $12,000 Loss in Longue Point.

Montreal, May 6,-Damage estima ted between $10,000 and $12,000 was the result of a fire in Longue Pointe last night. The fire broke out about 10:30 in a one and a half storey wooden frame building in the groun of the Montreal Locomotive, and Ma chipe company. The building, which was little more than a shed, was used as a storehouse for building material o be employed in the erection of another structure, and was burned the ground. It was constructed light lumber, and consequently burnd quickly, so that the iron material stored in it was not very heavily lasgow, for Montreal, passed Fame 'oint at 5:30 a.m. to-day.
