

BIDS FAREWELL TO MEMBERS OF ST. JAMES CHURCH.

Rev. T. W. Savary About to Leave For Winnipeg—His Parting Message—News of General Interest to Church Workers.

There were many tear-dimmed eyes among the congregation of St. James church at evening, yesterday, when Rev. T. W. Savary, the popular curate, bade farewell to those among whom he had labored for two years, and who sincerely regret his departure.

Mr. Savary took for his text Ephesians, vi, 13—'Wherefore, take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.'

The speaker drew attention to the need of the church in ages past of drawing all her forces together to withstand the assaults of the enemies directed against it; it must have God's arm around it; to combat the devil, we need strength greater than that which we possess.

The speaker applied St. Paul's words to personal every-day life. He counselled his hearers to be true soldiers of Christ, to attire themselves for the fight against evil by buckling on their armor of faith, and crowned with the helmet of righteousness, with feet shod with the gospel of preparation for the word of Christ, carrying in their hand the sword of the spirit, protected by the shield of faith, and crowned with the helmet of salvation, which are all God's gifts to his workers.

This was the message he would have behind to his hearers. The Christian soldier must ever be on duty; there was no temporary respite or treaty. The speaker commended his hearers to the Master they all served, and asked for their prayers, that he might be a successful and true ambassador of God. He thanked the members of the congregation for the kindness extended to him during his two years' among them, and asked them to overlook any shortcomings or mistakes he may have had, and to hope to be happy and able to say that his first two years in the ministry were the most pleasant in his life. He closed with the good-bye Anglo-Saxon farewell, 'God Be With You.'

Church Items. Miss Armstrong's violin solo in Queen Street Methodist church, last night, was very fine.

Miss Wormwith presided at the organ in Chalmers church yesterday. At the evening service Miss Grace Clark was soloist.

'Gloria To Thee, My God, This Night,' Gounod's beautiful composition, was capably rendered by Miss Bailey in St. James' church, last evening during service.

Mrs. Andrews, formerly of Toronto, the new soprano soloist in Sydenham street Methodist, began duty yesterday, and delighted the congregation. She sang at both services, and showed a very sweet and clear voice.

Give It Up: Let a Clergyman Answer. Kingston, May 18.—(To the Editor: Can you tell me the difference in the character of Sunday labor between men casing street cars and men attending a military church parade. Are not both work?

SPORTS IN GENERAL.

Notes About The Various Sporting Fields. Seaford will not enter a team in the C.I.A. senior series.

The Rochester Collegiate Institute has organized a baseball team. Jersey City look to be sure winners of the Eastern baseball league pennant.

The Rochester challenger for the Canada's cup has been named Ironduke. Bradford will not have as strong a lacrosse team as last season, but will play the Shamrocks for the Minto cup.

The Alexandra golf club, of St. Catharines, has a membership of 130. They have engaged Alexander Barnes, of the Rosedale club, to coach them. A nine-hole course of 2,700 yards has been laid out.

The first of the two M.T. company's boats, the 'Caledonia,' is expected to reach Kingston by June 1st. Last week it loaded railway iron at Antwerp, and is now en route for Canada.

Protecting Dependent Children. The attorney-general's bill to amend the children's protection act provides for a committee of six persons in each election district to cooperate with the superintendent of neglected children and the children's aid societies, to assist in placing and visiting of neglected and dependent children.

The Strollers' On May 21st. For an organization of great promise in the Marguerite Sylvia Opera company in 'The Strollers,' which had quite a vogue last year in all the principal and southern cities.

A Large Funeral. The funeral of the late Michael Madden took place Sunday afternoon from his late residence, Rideau street to St. Mary's cathedral, thence to St. Mary's cemetery. The cortege was a lengthy one, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Great Value in Clothing To Order. Prevost has received this day another shipment of Scotch tweed for coats and suits. They are beautiful patterns and good material. Prices are guaranteed. If you are in need of the latest New York colored shirts at a moderate price, see our window.

TIME FOR INVESTIGATION. What Employee Of Post Office Has To Say.

'I understand that there is to be an investigation into certain affairs in the post office' remarked a reporter to an employee of that institution. 'I believe so,' he replied, 'and it cannot take place any too soon. It is a shame the way business is allowed to be run in there. Most of the employees seem to make it a daily study to avoid doing the work expected of them; the less they do the more pleased they seem to be. Our government is spending thousands of dollars every year to get a fast mail service between Canada and Europe, but some savant of the ocean is lost when the mails reach Kingston. I have seen British mails lie in the office for a full day before being dumped out for sorting and distribution.'

It is just about noon hour that we are hurried inside and out in the very time we are short-handed. Instead of dinner hours being so arranged, so as to have all the staff in the office at noon when every man is needed for the sorting of mail, we are taken and take from an hour and a half to two hours for their dinner. I wonder what they would do if working for a business man; and were held down to their hour by the mid-day meal, the same as thousands of our workmen are? An investigation cannot be too soon, and with it a proper regulation of the work.'

SERMON ON PURITY. By Rev. Mr. Lowes In Calvary Church. The second address by Rev. G. A. Lowes, on 'Man's Relation to Woman,' at Calvary Congregational church, took place yesterday afternoon. There was a fair attendance of young men. Rev. Mr. Lowes read Genesis xxxix and gave an interesting sketch of the life of Joseph. The two important words in the text were 'fight' and 'fight it out' which the young men to impress these two words on their minds. They were to fight sin and lie from it. Newspapers are full of remedies for young men, recounting the tales of woe which they could be cured of their evil habits. He warned them not to treat with these people, and have no correspondence with them, but to seek the advice of their own reliable physicians.

To cultivate purity they must have a pure mind. The imagination should not be allowed to dwell on impure subjects. The purity of the mind was of vital importance to a healthful body. Bathing and cleanliness was conducive to purity. Fresh air and exercise would keep the blood in circulation and make the body healthy. Look to God to be pure and happy, and in their old age they would be pure and happy. Obey nature's laws and God would bless them.

WERE APPRECIATED. The Work of The Cadets at Toronto. Col. Otter, chairman of the military tournament committee, writes thus to Lieut.-Col. Reade, commandant of the 14th Military College: 'I am asked by the general committee of the late military tournament and horse show to express its most hearty thanks and earnest appreciation of the great assistance rendered by you and your staff, and cadets of the Royal Military College, in connection with the tournament and horse show. The 'displays' given gave great satisfaction to the public and, thereby, largely assisted in the success of our entertainment. To produce satisfactory results must have entailed a good deal of thought and preparation, perhaps at times inconvenience and other sacrifices, and for this the committee feels its greatest obligation.'

Looking For Guilty Man. Saturday evening the police received a call to Main street, where a fight in progress. Afterwards Morris Lynch made a complaint to the police about having been beaten by a young man. Lynch stated that he engaged a hackman to drive him home. Teaching there, there followed a dispute as to the fare, and the young man in question, who accompanied the cab driver, turned to and gave Lynch a punnelling. The police are trying to locate the guilty party.

Attended The Funeral. Rev. Prof. Jordan attended the funeral of the late Rev. Dr. Thompson, of St. Andrew's church, Sarnia, on Friday, as representative of the theological faculty of Queen's. Yesterday he occupied the pulpit of the deceased clergyman and conducted memorial services, being specially requested to perform this duty, as an old friend of Dr. Thompson. Prof. Jordan was to have preached in London, Ont., yesterday, but he arranged with Rev. Prof. Ballantyne, of Knox College, Toronto, to take his place.

Not The Post Office. The Whig office has been mistaken at different times for a variety of public institutions, the latest of which is the post-office. The drop letter box at the main entrance has frequently been made use of in which to mail letters. The Whig staff has no objection to properly mailing these missives, as some of them, judging by the addresses they bear, tell interesting tales.

Distinctly Christian. A notable clause in the new constitution of Queen's is this: 'The university shall continue distinctly Christian, but no religious test or qualification, the profession of Christianity, shall be required of, or appointed for any officer, trustee, member of council, or official of said university.'

For Women. Dr. Ed. Morin's Cardinal Pills are an inexhaustible treasure, which moderate and cure all the diseases peculiar to their sex, female weakness, hysteria, nervous prostration, etc., etc.

A meeting of the governors of the Kingston General Hospital was called for four o'clock this afternoon to examine plans for the proposed home for nurses, and, if satisfactory, to adopt them.

Advertising that doesn't bring results is not good advertising. If you cannot see that you are getting direct returns from the advertising that you are doing, you had better look for the reason and change your methods. After the good advertising the Victoria celebration committee got in the churches on Sunday, it will be in order for the members with their badges on to be found laboring in the church and Sunday school services next Lord's day.

The June number of The Smart Set opens with a novellette by James Sullivan. The purity of 'The Blue Band' Comedy. The story is strikingly distinctive. The sixteen short stories of the number are of a high standard of excellence.

Mrs. Edward Cotes, (Sara Jeanette Duncan) now lives in Simla, India, and has accumulated many amusing experiences which appear in a brilliant story in two parts, 'A Mother in India,' to begin in the June Scribner. It exhibits the special contrasts of life in India.
