"CAP" NON EST

MONUMENT TO MEMORY OF SIMCOE.

Lieut.-Governor Present - Hon. G. W. Ross Gave Historical Address - Col. Otter on Hand With Force of Dragons.

Toronto, May 27.—"Cap" Sullivan's absence was the chief event before the public accounts committee of the legislature this morning. The committee decided to issue a summons compelling the "Cap" to appear before the bar of the house. Sullivan was notified over a week ago that he was wanted. It is reported that the "Cap" is the proprietor of the "McCarthy" saloon in Buffalo, which gained notoriety in the Nelson affidavit case in the police court there.

The monument erected in the Queen's Park to the memory of Col. John Graves Simcoe, the first governor of Upper Canada, was formally unveiled this afternoon by the present lieutenant-governor, Mortimer Clark, in the presence of a distinguished gathering. Hon. R. Harcourt, acting honorary president of the Ontario historical society, presided, and opened the proceedings in a very brief speech. Hon. George W. Ross delivered a historical address, and Lord Minto also took part. Col. Otter commanded a small guard of honor of Royal Canadian Dragoons, as a fitting tribute to the founder of Ontario's militia force. Simcoe was governor from 1792 to 1796. The monument fund was contributed to by the government and collected by the Ontario Historical society. The statue in the work of A. W. Wellward and stands in the eastern portion of Queen's Park.

Charles Alagna & Co., taxidermists of Berlin, are suing the Tanners' Association for $275 rebate on skins leather purchased from defendants. The plaintiff claims that fifteen of the leading leather firms of Canada are combined and give rebates to retailers who purchase from them on the production of a declaration that nothing had been purchased from any other source except oak sole leather or imported oak sole leather. D. A. Burns, secretary of the Tanners' Association has been ordered to attend for examination.

The argument on the North Grey election appeal was not reached in the court of appeal, to-day, up to the noon adjournment.

Judge Macdonald, to-day, gave judgment in favor of the Victoria Sporting Goods Co., Springfield, Mass., against the Harold A. Wilson Co., Toronto. Plaintiffs claimed a patent on a platform and punch bag and sued for infringement. $100 was awarded and the destruction ordered of forty bags belonging to the defendant.

The master-in-chambers, to-day, ordered Mrs. Jennie Quirk, Buffalo, to give other security for costs in her action against the London Guarantee Co., for insurance on the life of her husband, the late James Quirk, Brantford. H. T. Westcott and Fred Westcott, Brantford, respectively father and brother of Mrs. Quirk, were on the bond for $400 already given, but disallowed by the master.

MR. BALFOUR'S PROMISE.

Government Will Contribute To Relief of Antarctic Steamer. London, May 27.—Premier Balfour announced in the House of Commons that the government was prepared to contribute to the relief of the officers and men of the Antarctic steamer Discovery, now bound in the Antarctic region. At the same time the premier criticized the action of the Royal Geographical Society and the Royal Society in sending out the expedition without being fully prepared to safeguard it.

WANT TO GET BACK.

The Strikers Are Slumping To The Company. Montreal, May 27.—The extent to which the employees of the street railway are returning to work indicates that the strike is practically over and in a day or so there will be no indication that there was a strike. The company states that seventy-five per cent of the men employed at the St. Henri sheds applied for their positions to-day.

Killed By Lightning.

Toronto, May 27.—W. R. Smyth, M.P.P. for Algoma, has received particulars of a sad fatality which occurred in his branch store, at Rock Lake, one day last week. A son of Frank Clark, Ophir Mine, was standing in the store during an electrical storm, when he bolted across the building and killed him instantly.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

To Be Addressed By Prominent Men.

WILLIAM L. PENFIELD.

Lake Mohawk, N.Y., May 27.—The ninth annual conference on international arbitration opened here to-day and will continue through the remainder of the week. John W. Foster, secretary of state, is the presiding officer, and among those who will address the conference are William L. Penfield, who represented the United States government before The Hague court in the "Fin Fun" case; Dr. E. Trueblood, of Boston, and F. W. Holla, who was one of the representatives to The Hague peace conference. The considering of the Venezuelan trouble at the Hague court and other events of the past year are expected to make the present conference unusually interesting.

IN OUR OWN CIRCUIT.

News Of The Districts On Both Sides Of The Line.

The death of one of Picton's oldest citizens, in the person of Miss Mary Cosgrove, occurred on Friday. Mrs. Eliza Jinks, Picton, ninety years of age, without the aid of glasses, made a dress for herself. This is most remarkable.

Striding Clark Edwards died at the residence of his mother, Cedar street, Belleville, this week, aged twenty-seven. His widow survives.

Mrs. James Justus, wife of James Justus, a former resident of this town, died at Greenbush, on Saturday, after a lingering illness. The Clapp property, on the corner of Paul and Main streets east, Picton, is being thoroughly overhauled, and will be converted into tenement apartments.

News comes from the North-West of the sudden death of Charlie Minaker, which occurred in the Dauphin hospital. He was eighteen years old on the 1st of May.

Richard Smith, a youth of fifteen years, is to stand trial for the theft of $2 from John Jones Brown, Lyndhurst, against an English boy in this country seven years.

J. A. Kinsella, dairy commissioner of New Zealand, has received the offer of a similar position in South Africa at a largely increased salary. He has decided to accept but will probably do so. Mr. Kinsella is a Glen-garry boy.

Cleveland Bicycle Stolen.

W. H. Collier, of 395 Brock street, has complained to the police of a Cleveland bicycle, with a patent coasting brake. About five o'clock Tuesday he entered the office of W. J. Fair leaving his bicycle standing against the curb. Returning a half hour later he discovered that the bicycle had been taken. About nine o'clock that night he found a Columbian chainless wheel lying on the sidewalk in front of the post office. As it had been lying there for over three hours he took charge of it and handed it over to the police, who still have the wheel in their possession.

Sale Effected.

Mrs. Edward Garvin has sold all her property next to the Artillery Park to the militia department at Ottawa for the moderate sum of $5,000. This will make an excellent parade ground and it is also a complete contradiction to the oft-repeated rumor that the latter were to be removed from Kingston. The deal was finally closed on Friday last when Mrs. Garvin got her good solid cash in her hand from Ottawa. She is moving out of her old Kingston's oldest landmarks.

Will Lose Both Eyes.

Detroit, May 27.—A pitiable accident occurred Monday, in Windsor, when Gordon Boug, the seven-year-old son of William Boug, the Sandwich avenue merchant, lost the sight of both eyes, by the explosion of a fire-cracker, with which he was celebrating Victoria day. The lad is resting easily at his home on Victoria avenue, but it is feared he will never gain the sight of his eyes.

Twenty Years Ago to-day.

The council and B. W. Polger, were in argument over the possession of the market battery. To-day the city would not like to see the old state of affairs revived. Bandman R. J. Bennett, 14th Regiment, and Trooper J. A. Fraser, 4th Hussars, have been awarded long service medals by the militia department.

Manager Jones had a force of men at work to-day erecting the merry-go-round at Lake Ontario Park, preparatory to the opening of that popular resort.

From fifteen to twenty of her passengers are said to have been drowned. The crew were saved. The passengers were mostly women returning to England. The bows of the Tjora were damaged.

KEPT TO HER BED.

Indiana Woman Dies. After Puzzling Doctors.

South Bend, Ind., May 27.—Miss Alice Barth of this city, who died yesterday, had not left her bed for thirty years. Three decades ago she was handsome, accomplished, and a leader in South Bend society. One day, when apparently in good health, she took to her bed, and for thirty years never left it, although in all that time physicians could not discover that anything ailed her. Up to the day of her death she kept fully informed of all local and public events.
