The inhabitants are now worse off than they were under Mussolino's protection. The inability of the police to capture a of the name of Varsalona, who dominates another district, is due to the fear of the inhabitants that worse will befall them if he is taken. Grain and fruit are the foods originally mankind. Nature is quick to reward those who obey her laws, and just as quick to punish those who disobey. Everywhere can be seen women, who are paying the penalty for eating, not wisely, but too well. One of the most delightful of Nature's foods is MALTA-VITA, a purely grain food, scientifically prepared so that all the nourishing qualities of the wheat are retained in their most digestable form.
