Milburn's Pills CURED.

Read what Miss L. L. Hanson, Waterside, N.B., says: "I feel it my duty to express the benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. A year ago last spring I began to have heart failure. At first I would have to stop working and lie down for a while. Then I got so bad I had to give up altogether and go to bed. I had several doctors attend me but they did me no good. I could get no relief until urged by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. New York, May 30.- Henry Clews, banker, reports: Renewed liquidation again unsettled values on the stock Tuesday's and Thursday's breaks in the absence of unfavorable news were a surprise and inspired fresh caution. Several plausible theories were offered in explanation; but the true reason lies in the inevitable reaction following the excessive inflation which culminated in 1902. It is perfectly frue that the financial situation is much stronger than six months ago; that liquidation has already been severe; that business and general industry continue on an active scale; that there is no occasion for alarm. But on the other hand there is still a big mass of securities overhanging the market and seeking buyers. Some of these are held own time for selling, while considerable amounts have been locked up in syndicates or pools which must expire and liquidate. In some instances these
