FIFTH OF THE NEWS. The Very Latest News Culled From All Over The World. Prince Henry's visit and the cruise to German fleet in Spanish waters excite comment. The Liberal probably hits the nail on the head by stating that Germany wants closer economic relations with Spain. The king, on Monday afternoon, went on the trial trip on the Thames of a new patrol motor launch. The river was crowded with holiday-makers. His majesty was everywhere recognized and cordially greeted. William Gough who has been a patient in Brockville hospital for twelve weeks, died on Monday from a complication of diseases. Two sisters, two brothers, and three half brothers survive, as well as his aged mother. The latest project to attract visitors to Geneva, is a proposal to establish two captive balloons in the Chamounix Valley, each accommodating twenty persons, who, by these means, will be enabled to view Mont Blanc and the neighboring mountains from above. Mrs. Gibbs, Port Arthur, stricken with paralysis while speaking at the Woman's council meeting in Toronto last week, died on Monday at Grace Hospital, in that city. Her husband, Hon. T. N. Gibbs, two daughters and five sons survive. She was an ardent lover of music, and prominent in W. A. and King's Daughters circles.

Have Bought McBain-Yangtze River Line. Shanghai, June 2.—The Nippon Yusen Kaisha, a powerful Japanese steamship, has bought the rights and good-will of the British-McBain-Yangtze river steamship line. The importance of the transaction lies chiefly in the fact that the purchasers acquire wharves at the Yangtze ports, where the congestion of the water front has in late years prevented employment by new comers. The Germans made several offers to acquire the McBain line.

HAVE DEBATE. The Sugar King Has Challenge Accepted.

THE QUESTIONS. HAVEMEYER TO THE LABOR UNIONS. Millionaire Will Argue the Union Question With Labor Leaders Next Tuesday Evening at Yonkers.

New York, June 2.—John C. Havemeyer, who recently challenged the labor leaders of Yonkers, N.Y., to publicly debate the labor question, which challenge was accepted, the debate to take place at a public meeting in Yonkers on Tuesday evening, June 9th, has submitted a number of questions to be answered by the representatives of the labor unions at that meeting. The questions follow: First—What originally were the conditions of fact which seemed to make necessary the combinations of workmen, called labor unions, and which justify their present existence? Second—What are now the aims of these unions and the methods followed to accomplish them? Third—Is it a fixed purpose consistently to avoid in act or spirit what is complained of in employers, and to this extent is the golden rule to "do unto other men as you would have them do unto you" kept in mind? Fourth—In these methods is account taken of the suffering and losses that may be caused widows, orphans and others in no way responsible for real or supposed grievances and the serious and perhaps permanent injury which may result to members from idleness? Fifth—Will there be a limit to the demands for shorter hours, larger pay and less service? If so, where will it be reached and by what rule will it be determined? Sixth—If the law of demand and supply may be permanently disregarded by declaration to labor, will it not inevitably follow that finally the quantity of the soil and of manufactured goods must also be artificially regulated? Seventh—Is it the intention to oppose the accumulation of wealth, and to what extent and what grounds? Or is it expected that the movement will finally result in preventing any man from earning or seeking more than his present needs? Eighth—Is it the idea that ultimately all men doing the same kind of work shall have the same pay without reference to skill or service? Ninth—Is the impression correct that the unions are not relying upon the justice of their cause, but seek to compel employers and others interested to yield to their demands by reason of loss and inconvenience it will involve? Do sympathy strikes justify this impression? Tenth—Will labor unions become incorporated so that if a union enters into an agreement with any class of employers it will be under some legal and moral obligation to fulfil, as in the case of an agreement between individuals? Eleventh—On what ground is the refusal to work with and persecution of non-union men justified? Is it not unreasonable and unnatural that men who differ widely from each other in opinion should be forced to unite and also join with other men in actions that may be against their judgment and even against their conscience? Anarchism is a condition of affairs in which a portion of the community forces others against their own will to do what the law does not require. Is not this course suggestive of the spirit of anarchy? Twelfth—A large majority of the native citizens of this country believe in the existence of God and that His laws should limit and determine human rights, responsibilities, relations and activities. They also believe that sooner or later a nation that disregards His laws will suffer and that the culmination of persistent wrongdoing may be, as in the case of the Jews, national extinction. Will the unions show respect for this conviction? Thirteenth—Is there not in union circles a general misapprehension, misview of the "capital" and "labor" and a consequent unfounded antagonism assuming that they represent two distinct and unchanging conditions of classes, while, as a matter of fact, men on both sides are constantly changing places, the rich becoming poor and the poor, rich? Fourteenth—How far is the charge justified that the methods of unions, through their requirement of unquestioning obedience and the suspension of private judgment, destroy the individuality and independence and consequently the self-respect of the members? Fifteenth—I am informed that the Yonkers branch of the American Federation of Labor is composed of men connected with at least fifteen different branches of industry. It includes bartenders, bakers, engineers, firemen, clerks. I am also informed that the interest of one member is the interest of all. If a member of the bartenders' union were aggrieved, would union rules require that bakers, engineers and clerks should join in a sympathetic strike, if so ordered? In this connection it is true that the different labor unions have varying and sometimes contradictory rules and regulations? And are general business interests in constant peril lest the failure to comply with a rule of one organization may bring about a general suspension of work? Sixteenth—How do you meet the allegation that labor unionism interferes with the commercial and other relations between the United States and other countries, and that its tendency will be to isolate this country from the rest of the world? SOCIETY DENOUNCED. $50,000 a Year Will Send a Man to the Devil. New York, June 2.—According to Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, in a sermon of $50,000 a year sends a man to the devil. Dr. Hillis denounced at length existing social conditions in an address before the annual conference of the Orthodox Friends. Among other things he said: "I want to say that we all go to the devil on $50,000 a year, at least a great many men. And we are going to the devil on that sum—and very few are escaping it. Once a man has an income of that much money a year he is so apt to forget, in the same way that a man forgets to say grace after he has dined. "To-day we are raising pampered sons and daughters, surrounded with every luxury and the satisfaction of Masked Robbers. St. Thomas, Ont., June 2.—The residence of Mrs. A. C. Sutton, Southwold, near Chatham, Ont., was entered on Monday by two masked men, who, at the point of a revolver, forced the inmates to give up their money. After engaging their victims in conversation for about an hour the robbers leisurely took their departure.

LEAPED FROM SPIRE. Girl Commits Suicide in a Sensational Way. Rouen, France, June 2.—The town of Rouen boasts of one of the most terrible tragedies in France's recent history. About seven o'clock one evening when the streets were alive with people, a dark object was observed hurrying through the air from the great spire of the Gothic cathedral. Almost before the terrified onlookers had realized that it was a human body, and that of a young woman, it had reached the earth and was literally a piece.

THE JAPANESE. Have Bought McBain-Yangtze River Line. Shanghai, June 2.—The Nippon Yusen Kaisha, a powerful Japanese steamship, has bought the rights and good-will of the British-McBain-Yangtze river steamship line. The importance of the transaction lies chiefly in the fact that the purchasers acquire wharves at the Yangtze ports, where the congestion of the water front has in late years prevented employment by new comers. The Germans made several offers to acquire the McBain line.

To Form A Company. London, June 2.—The co-operative congress, held at Doncaster, yesterday unanimously approved the formation of the company known as the North Wales Quarries, Limited, for the purpose of furnishing employment for the men formerly employed in Lord Penryn's quarries at Bethesda, near Boston, for three years. The profit on trading, in 1902, were £9,500,000.

WHICH IS IT? Body Of Mr. Peene Found In Bush. WAS FOUND IN THE MAN'S NECK. The Authorities Are Now Investigating the Gruesome Affair—He Leaves a Wife and Family. Belleville, Ont., June 2.—The adjoining county of Prince Edward has a sensation and the authorities are at a loss just yet to determine whether a murder has been committed or whether it is a case of suicide.

It appears that between two and three weeks ago a man named Peene, whose home is in the vicinity of Long Point, in Ameliasburg township, left his residence with the intention of looking for work. His absence from home was not a matter of concern to the family, as they believed that in a few days they would hear from him. On Sunday the serious aspect of the case was presented by some boys discovering the remains of a man in a bush on Long Point. They were readily recognized as those of Peene. In the neck of the body was found a large hole made by some kind of an instrument, which had caused death.

From the meagre details which have been learned of the affair, it is impossible at present to state whether Peene committed suicide or was murdered. The unfortunate man was about forty-five years of age, and we understand that he leaves a wife and family. The affair is being investigated by the authorities.

CIVIL SERVANTS' DEBTS. The Bill Respecting the Garnishment of Salaries. Toronto, June 2.—The garnishment of salaries of civil servants was the subject of discussion in the legislature yesterday. A bill introduced by J. B. Lucas (Centre Grey) to enable this to be done was given a second reading and sent to committee. Col. Gibson objected to the bill because of its impracticability, although he considered the principle a proper one. Civil servants, by legislation, should be in the same position as anyone else in the matter of liability for debts, but in order to make them so an extensive machinery would be involved, which he believed would also be many obstacles to prevent its proper working out. The bill went to the legal committee.

Interesting discussions also took place on Mr. Lucas' bill to make it legal for mortgagees to pay off mortgages after they became due, without giving notice or paying a bonus, and on Mr. Hoyle's bill providing that trials of actions based on a certain class of contracts and liens shall take place in the locality in which the defendant resides instead of at the head office of the company holding the contract.

ANOTHER MASSACRE. Of Jews is Threatened at Kishineff. London, June 2.—A despatch to the Daily Graphic from Kishineff, dated May 28th, says that about seven hundred riotously inclined persons assembled on Wednesday last, a mile and a half outside the town, and after threatening harangues, the leaders prepared to march on the Jewish quarters. Just at this time a strong body of cavalry arrived and dispersed the crowd. The town is now being again patrolled by troops. The acting governor has caused a strong warning to rioters to be posted in the streets. It is believed that anti-Semitic emissaries from Roumania are trying to provoke another massacre. Little has yet been done to repair the havoc caused by the riot. The Jewish quarters are still partially deserted.

NEWS MORE HOPEFUL. Water Fast Receding in Kansas. Kansas City, Mo., June 2.—For several hours water has been fast receding here, and if no further rains come the situation will be rapidly relieved. The Leavenworth trolley line has been put back to local telephone and street car companies, and these systems are in operation.

P. E. I. APPEALING. From Reduction of Representation In Commons. Ottawa, June 2.—Argument was in progress in the supreme court this morning on the reference case from Prince Edward Island, protesting against a reduction of representation in the House of Commons, as a result of the recent census. The argument in brief in behalf of the province, went to show that Prince Edward Island entered Confederation under special terms, and was not subject to the provisions of the B.N.A. act. The relation of the special to the general act, forms the chief basis for consideration by the court, inasmuch as the appeals of the other provinces on the general act failed.

Must Face His Accusers. Washington, June 2.—The United States supreme court has refused to grant a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Whitaker Wright, the financial operator, who is in custody in New York awaiting extradition on charges of fraud made in England. The crime alleged against Wright is an extradition offense under the terms of a treaty between the United States and Great Britain.

Mother Kills Her Son. Downsville, Mich., June 2.—Mrs. C. Fale Martin, well-known in this part of the state, took the life of her five-year-old son and attempted her own life by taking morphine. Mrs. Martin is a writer of some note, and it is believed that owing to recent disappointments her mind became unbalanced. She will recover.

INSULT TO THE FLAG. British Emblem Hauled Down By a Mob. Philadelphia, June 2.—The placing of a British flag on the front of the second story front window of the residence of William Rankins, at 3444 North Phillip street, caused a small riot on Saturday morning. There were many American flags displayed on the same street, and the sight of the British emblem on Memorial day angered the crowd. A mob of several hundred persons soon gathered and demanded that the flag be taken down. Rankins was out of the house at the time, but his wife made no move to appease the crowd. "Get a rope," shouted a man in the mob, and volunteers ran for it. The rope was quickly thrown over the flagpole, and amid the shouts and execrations of the excited mob the British emblem was hauled down. This done, the crowd made no move toward dispersing, but waited for the man of the house to return. Threats of violence were made against his life. Scouting trouble, cooler-headed men in the crowd rushed to the house of Police Sergeant Brown, who lives near by, and informed him of Rankins' danger. Brown reached there just as he was quickly approached Rankins and getting him into a cigar store explained to him how Decoration day is regarded in this city. He told Rankins of his danger, and buying an American flag induced the threatened man to carry it in his hand as he went home. Brown and Rankins walked down the street together, and the crowd, seeing the national emblem let him pass unmolested into his house.

DIE IN STORM. Cyclone Rips Big Buildings as if They Were of Paper. Gainesville, Ga., June 2.—A cyclone of terrific force struck this city on Monday. Probably 100 persons were killed and the striking wind tore the roofs from the hotels and other large buildings and destroyed the Gainesville cotton mill. The greatest loss of life is reported in the destruction of the cotton mill, where about eighty persons are thought to have lost their lives, while scores of others are injured.

Eighteen persons were killed between the centre of the town and the railroad station, where four large stores were blown down. The storm had driven many persons into these stores for refuge. There are 500 persons at work. It was a three-story building. The first story was left standing, but badly wrecked. The second and third stories were completely demolished and the employes were caught under the wreckage and mangled.

Are Held Over. The special committee of the Ontario legislature dealing with the new assessment bill will meet as of the autumn to further consider the measure before its re-introduction next session. Mr. Pettipiece's railway taxation bill goes over with the assessment measure.
