TARIFF PLAN OF COLONIALS.

Interested To Know Final Judgment

THEY MUST RALLY TO HIS SIDE.

Chamberlain's Reply to an Editor.—Sir Charles Dilke had to say on the question now agitating the people of Britain. London, June 4.—The editor of the British Australasian, published in London recently wrote to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, pointing out that the earlier Australian telegrams didn't represent the real feeling of the colonies in regard to Mr. Chamberlain's preferential tariff plan. In the course of a reply to this letter Mr. Chamberlain says: "If colonial opinion were indeed hostile or even apathetic there would not be the slightest possibility of carrying through so great a reform and I should feel justified in abandoning the struggle if I was not supported warmly by the colonies. I, however, do not accept reports and articles as being in any way conclusive as to Australian opinion, and I shall be much interested to know what the final judgment will be as far as public opinion can be tested when the nature of my proposals becomes known."

In a speech at Gloucester, yesterday, Sir Charles Dilke, M.P., pointed out that Mr. Chamberlain's tariff proposals have been defended by protectionist arguments. He said that even the secretary of the board of trade attributed the prosperity of the United States to the adoption of protection and declared that the United States every year was leaving great Britain completely behind in the race for foreign trade. The statements Sir Charles said would not bear investigation. The exports from the United States in 1902, were not greatly in excess of those of 1898, and were less than those of 1901. Such were the natural advantages of the United States that nothing but protection could have kept her back. The government has shrunk from advocating a duty on cotton, the largest item of exports from the United States, but was going to propose a duty on grain and meat. By interfering with the trade of the United States Great Britain was weakening one of her greatest imperial securities in a general war. The people of Great Britain had welcomed the increase in the fleet of the United States because in a general war they would be a protector of the rights of the neutrals who, in the last resort, would feed the British while they were fighting, and at least would contribute to the permanence of the British empire.

REFUSED TO TAKE THEM.

The Colored Lads Had To Stay Away.
Hamilton, Ont., June 4.—Two colored delegates to the O.G.Y.B. lodge, in session, were refused accommodation in the Osborne house, where they were billeted, and the grand lodge delegates were incensed at the indignity shown them. Mayor Mordecai tried to prevail upon the manager of the Osborne house to receive the colored delegates, but the latter positively refused, giving as an excuse that his help would leave him rather than wait on the colored men. The two delegates were finally accommodated at the Dominion hotel, and the Osborne house proprietor will be reported to the license commissioners.

ABANDON THE PROJECT.

Belgium To Let Option of Annexation Expire.
The Hague, June 4.—According to advices received here, the government of Belgium has decided to abandon the project of annexing the Congo Free State allowing the option of annexation to expire. It is explained that Belgium is disinclined to assume the responsibility of governing the Congo as a colony because of popular opposition and the attitude of Great Britain. The Congo Free State was established by the act of the international conference in Berlin, in 1885, under which it was declared to be a sovereign power under King Leopold of Belgium. Leopold bequeathed all his rights in the state to Belgium and by a treaty, made in 1890, Belgium received the privilege of annexing the state after a period of ten years. This convention expired yesterday.

FRUITS OF EFFORTS.

Many People of Empire are Willing to Help.
Ottawa, June 4.—Sir William Mulock's efforts to bring about greater intimacy between Canada and other parts of the empire by extending the distribution of Canadian newspapers, continue to bear fruit. Sarawak, Transvaal, Zanzibar, Gambia, Ceylon and British Honduras have just replied to the postmaster-general's note, and all signify their willingness to receive Canadian newspapers for distribution, when these are posted in Canada at our domestic rates.

FROM FOREST FIRES.

Strong Winds Fan Flames in the Adirondacks.
Plattsburgh, June 4.—Forest fires in the Adirondacks were again fanned into renewed vigor yesterday by strong west wind. At Cadyville, near here, the woods were all afire, near the village. The Catholic cemetery was burned over and a large force of men by working hard with shovels, finally succeeded in saving the Catholic church.
At Twin Pond, on the Chateaugay branch of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, a wooden trestle took fire from the forest fires and a freight engine broke through, carrying Engineer Kelly down with it. He escaped, however, with slight bruises.

All Maine Ablaze.

Thousands of dollars' worth of property and valuable timber land are being destroyed hourly by forest fires, and there is little prospect for changed conditions until rain has soaked the ground and woodlands.

QUITE MAGNANIMOUS.

Joseph Martin Has Stepped Aside.
Vancouver, B.C., June 4.—At a meeting of the liberal executive, yesterday Joseph Martin, recognizing the wide dissent in action with his leadership, voluntarily stepped aside, so that the issue might not be complicated in the forthcoming fight. The executive decided not to hold a convention, but instead to have a campaign, managed by a committee. The house, yesterday, under the leadership of Mr. Tatlow, proceeded to pass the estimates which the joint committee have, in the main, approved, though recommending retrenchment in the matter of salaries.
Mr. McBride, so Mr. Tatlow states, will announce his cabinet in the course of a couple of days. He says there will be six portfolios.

Kid, Francis, June 4.—A seaman of the German navy named Reanitz Heerschmidt, was condemned by a naval court martial to eight months' imprisonment for striking Knig Von Abel, during the night of May 2nd, at Kiel. The case has been widely commented upon because of Von Abel's suicide after he found he was unable to identify the man who assaulted him and personally avenged himself.

FILES ENOUGH TO SHOVEL.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., June 4.—The shed fly nuisance is at its height and all operations in the line of exterior painting have stopped. New York Man Made a Confession.
New York, June 4.—William F. Miller, serving a term in prison for his connection with the Franklin syndicate and who was brought here it was understood, to give evidence at the reopening of the case, has made a confession. Miller says when the crash came there was $180,000 on deposit here in his name, and adds: "I had transferred all that to Col. Ammon. When I went to Canada I had to send for various sums of money to pay my expenses, and there remained something like $140,000 of that sum. This $140,000 is still tied up and I don't at all call it my property. It belongs to the persons who invested the money in our syndicate, and it is my hope that it will eventually be returned to them. Col. Ammon was Miller's counsel."
