SERIOUS PREDICAMENT.

The British Expedition is Hemmed In.

London, June 17.—A despatch to the Daily Mail, from Aden, says that reports received there confirm the statements that Col. Cobbe, commanding a column of the British expeditionary force against the Mad Mullah, is in somewhat serious predicament at Railady. Col. Cobbe's force is on half rations. Gen. Manning, the commander of the expedition, also is surrounded and is unable to assist Col. Cobbe, owing principally to want of transport.

MAY RESUME

Working With a View Of Opening Doors.

A. E. AMES & CO.

AMERICAN BANKS CONCERNED HAVE BEEN FIXED.

And Canadian and Other Institutions Hold Security—If They Are Patient And the Market Becomes Normal Then Matters Will Be Arranged.

Toronto, June 17.—It was learned from a high banking authority this morning that Messrs. A. E. Ames & Co. hope yet to re-open their doors. It is understood that they are working away towards that end, and that they are making good progress. It is understood that the American banks which were carrying stocks for the firm have been eliminated from the situation, and that the firm's indebtedness to the Canadian banking and other financial institutions is well protected by securities held by those institutions. It is said that A. E. Ames & Co. have the securities thus carried by the banks margined down at least fifteen points, and that if these institutions are patient enough to wait for a normal market, in which to enforce the sale of the issues held by them, they will thus do a great deal towards enabling the situation to work itself out to a comparatively satisfactory conclusion. It is stated that the securities carried for the firm are of first-class quality, and that the banks, therefore, can afford to wait a favorable opportunity to liquidate. The banks are said to be fully protected themselves, no matter what comes. It is learned that the firm in trouble hopes to pay all its depositors in full, and the fulfilment of this hope would, no doubt, be facilitated if it was able to open its doors.

The Old Story.

St. Thomas, Ont., June 17.—There is no doubt that the downfall and disgrace of George Rowley, manager of the Elgin Loan company and the G. N.W. Telegraph company, is due to speculation in stocks running over a number of years. It is the old story, first speculating with his own money and reverses coming, he used the funds of the company in the hope of recovering his losses and tiding over the slump, with the intention of refunding every cent.

TO AUGMENT YIELD.

So That No New Taxation Will be Needed.

Paris, June 17.—Admiral Bouvier, the minister of finance, has stated that in order to prevent new taxation, to meet the estimated deficit for the year of 58,100,000 francs, measures will be taken to augment the yield from the present taxes. M. Bouvier announced that he will introduce a measure in the Chamber of Deputies, providing for a tax of one and one-half per cent. on incomes subject to various deductions, such as an allowance according to the number of children in each family. He also states that he will propose a tax of four per cent. on rents.

WILL DO ITS DUTY.

In Backing Up the Rights Of the Citizens.

London, June 17.—The Marquis of Lansdowne, minister of foreign affairs, made a vigorous speech in the House of Lords, yesterday afternoon, on the question of railway concessions in China. The government, he said, had serious cause for complaint at the manner in which China had dealt with applications from British concessionaires. The government had remonstrated strongly with China on this subject. The foreign minister assured the house that the government would back British railway interests as strongly as any other country would back the rights of its citizens.

ONTARIO LICENSE LAW.

Women Inaugurate a Campaign For Enforcement.

Toronto, June 17.—Rev. Charles Deacon, appointed superintendent of the Ontario W. C. T. U. new department of law enforcement, has made an investigation of the work of fifty-four law inspectors. He has written complaints from leading residents of thirty-seven license districts of neglect of duty, and in some cases of positive collusion with the law violaters by inspectors. A systematic campaign for law enforcement is to be inaugurated by the W. C. T. U. executive.

Where Is His Domicile?

London, June 17.—The divorce case of Bispham, the grand opera singer, against his wife, was called before Sir Francis Jeune, president of the divorce court, yesterday afternoon. With the view of deciding the question of Mr. Bispham's domicile, counsel for the co-respondent, named in the action, maintained that the singer was a resident of Pennsylvania. Two children were born to him in London, but they were registered as of Philadelphia, and their births were so announced in the papers. The case was adjourned.

Recognition of Ability.

Hamilton, June 17.—At the annual meeting of the Bank of Hamilton stockholders on Monday, John Stuart, the retiring president and manager, was voted $5,000 a year for life, as a recognition of his valuable services for the past thirty years.

TOWN FULL OF DEAD.

Loss of Life at Heppner Exceeds First Estimates.

The Dalles, Ore., June 17.—A telephone message from Ione states that the latest find in the ruins of Heppner indicates that the loss of life will be much greater than at first supposed. The casualty list will foot up 500 and many of the bodies will never be recovered.

The property loss and destruction of buildings alone will aggregate probably a million dollars. This is regarded as a conservative estimate.

Among the incidents of the catastrophe was the saving of lives by Julius Keitley, seventy years of age, who rode a mile and a half and saved three people.

James Kernan, the Oregon Railway & Navigation company agent, met his death at the telegraph key trying to call Portland to inform the outside world of the impending calamity. His little daughter Katie, who was saved, said her father and mother were lost in the whirl of the waters.

Katie stood by while her father was calling the Portland office, when the flood swept in the lower floor and curled round him. Mrs. Kernan rushed out of the house and started for a point of ground, but was drowned.

One of the most thrilling adventures was that of Tom Shuter, who, with his family was carried down stream in his house for a mile and a half. His wife and two children went to the upper rooms. Below town the house was shot across the creek to the west side, where it lodged in debris 150 yards from the canon bank. Shuter then took his two little ones and swam 200 yards. He landed the children and then rescued his wife.

The McBride family, which was lost, went down in their house. The daughter screamed and beckoned from the windows to Louis Kinney, who with his family ran out in the nick of time from their house to escape. Kinney saw the whole McBride family perish.

A force of seventy-five men is digging graves on the hillside. Prompt measures are being taken to prevent a plague.

H. R. Baird of Portland lost his wife and three children. They were visiting her father, Mrs. Clarence Andrews and three children of Seattle are among the lost. Her husband is in Sitka, Alaska. She is a sister of Mrs. Baird.

A list of the dead who have been identified and buried includes eighty-five names. One hundred and fifty known persons are missing.

N. T. Tooker of Portland, who was at Heppner when the disaster happened, was the first to bring out news. He says the rushing torrent came at 5.30 in the evening when most of the inhabitants were at their evening meal.

"All were taken so suddenly," said Mr. Tooker, "that nothing could be done to save them. Homes, stores and buildings in the main portion of the town were torn loose and driven onward.

"A low estimate places the dead at 300. The town has a population of about 1,500, but only about one-half of the population in the town could be located. We do not know where they have gone.

"From the time the flood came until it went into the regular channel of the creek, flowing through the town, was about two hours. It was about five o'clock when the storm first started to gather to the west of Heppner. It was a small, dark cloud at first, but it rapidly grew worse, accompanied by heavy wind and lightning. The cloudburst struck fairly in the canon of Willow creek, six miles above Heppner, and there was no warning until the mighty wall of water had reached the town. As it came rushing down the creek bed it tore down everything in its path. When it reached Heppner the water was more than fifteen feet high, splashing, falling, leaping and creating a mighty, roaring, rushing flood.

"Those who were on the streets shouted warnings as they rushed madly to the hills for their lives.

"In some cases men returned to save members of their families. Many were carried to their death in the effort. Those who had reached the high ground in safety immediately formed themselves into rescuing parties. Persons were seen in mid-stream and their cries for help were heard, but we could only stand and see them go to their death.

"Leslie Matlock was the hero of the day. At the first warning of the flood he mounted a horse and rode at breakneck speed down the canon, in front of the rushing water, to notify the people of Lexington, a small town nine miles below. He had to go over a rough and stony road and the night was dark and stormy. He arrived at Lexington just ahead of the flood. The people were warned and immediately left for the hillside. When the flood had passed only two houses were standing.

Was Among The Lost.

London, June 17.—Among the hundreds of people who lost their lives in the cloud-burst at Heppner, Oregon, was a former resident of this city, A. M. Gunn, son of Mrs. Catharine Gunn, Oxford street. Mr. Gunn lived in the town of Heppner, and his wife and four children also perished.

King Edward's Horse Won.

London, June 17.—At Ascot, King Edward's Derby entry, Mend, won the Prince of Wales' stakes, of fifty sovereigns each, with 1,000 sovereigns added, for three-year-olds, about one mile and five furlongs.

Caldwell Ashworth Dead.

London, June 17.—Mr. Caldwell Ashworth, for many years manager of the London branch of the Bank of Montreal, died Monday, aged seventy-two.

Miss Georgina Pope, who served as a nurse in South Africa, was presented with the decoration of the Royal Red Cross at a garden party at Rideau Hall, Ottawa.

WOULD NOT RE-OPEN IT.

The Wilkie Case in the General Assembly.

Vancouver, B.C., June 17.—At yesterday's session of the Presbyterian assembly, Dr. Herridge presented the report of the special committee in the case of Dr. Wilkie, late head of Indore, Central India, College. The report did not consider it wise to re-open this case, but suggested that a commission of the assembly be issued, with assembly powers, to investigate thoroughly all the affairs of the Central India mission. It further expressed the hope that the foreign mission committee would find some post for so strong and devoted a man as Dr. Wilkie.

JONES A ROOF-SLEEPER.

Magistrate Says it Cured Him of Bronchitis.

Toledo, Ohio, June 17.—Mayor Jones is giving friends and enemies the "roof habit." Since he has announced the success of his experiment of sleeping in the open air, with mosquito netting about his cot, many persons with ailments of some sort or another are trying the cure. "Golden Rule" Jones does most of his sleeping on the roof of his house. He says:

"Before I began sleeping beyond the confines of a close room, I was troubled with asthma and bronchitis, but this pure air treatment has completely cured me. I feel better than I did twenty years ago. There is little circulation of air in a room, no matter how it is arranged. A person cannot get too much pure air. It is better than any medicine our physicians can administer."

HE TOOK HIS LIFE.

Rather Than Stand a Courtmartial.

Belgrade, June 17.—A young officer, Ivanevitch, concerned in the plot to kill King Alexander and Queen Draga, and who failed to take part in the attack on the palace, was summoned, on Sunday, before a court of senior officers. He pleaded as an excuse for his absence that he had fallen asleep whereupon the judges said he must either commit suicide or appear before a court-martial. He chose the former. There are various claimants for the honor of firing the first shot at the king and queen. The Protagonists are envied by their comrades.

HEAD IN LION'S JAW.

New Belgian King Will be Virtually a Royal Captive.

Belgrade, June 17.—The position of King Peter I. promises to be little more than that of a royal captive. The real government of the country will be a military dictatorship under the leaders of the revolution, Col. Maschin and Col. Mitschitch.

The new king is almost without any personal adherents, and the ruling spirits of the army, it is thought probable, would just as readily murder him as they did his predecessor, should he oppose their aims.

At the present moment the whole country is under military rule, and although no prefects in the country districts have been removed, each is accompanied by an army officer who attends the prefect wherever he goes. There has been no disorder, however.

INSURANCE TO BE PAID.

Trouble Over Burning of Steamer Settled.

Montreal, June 17.—When the steamer Montreal, of the Richelieu and Ontario company, was destroyed by fire, the company held insurance policies for over $400,000 on the steamer. The policies had been taken out by the Bertram company, of Toronto, but the Richelieu company had paid over $400,000 to the company and held the policies. The English companies raised some objections to the payment of the money, but word is received here that the companies had agreed to pay the amounts, and the money will be paid into a London bank this week to the credit of the Hochelaga bank, of Montreal, the Richelieu company's bankers.

Premier Warmly Approves Preferential Tariff.

Cape Town, June 17.—Premier Sprigg, in the course of a debate in parliament yesterday on the South African customs convention, took occasion to refer in terms of warm approval to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's preferential proposals. He said that though he himself had always been an ardent free trader he was bound to admit that there was something greater than free trade, namely, the consolidation of the empire. The premier's remarks were cheered on both side of the house.

Arrested On Suspicion.

St. Catharines, Ont., June 17.—A negro answering in every detail the description of the one wanted at Collingwood in connection with the murder of little Glory Whalen, was arrested at Merriton, yesterday afternoon, by Chief Bradley, Merriton. The prisoner admitted having been in Collingwood about two weeks ago, but claimed entire innocence of the crime. He contradicted himself in many particulars, and claimed he was on his way to Atlantic City. The authorities of Collingwood have been notified of the arrest.

Chicago, June 17.—After a prosperous existence of over ten years, the National Association of Steamfitters has lost its standing in the American Federation of Labour, because it refused to amalgamate with the United Association of Plumbers, as ordered by President Gompers. As a result he lies in a precarious condition at Victoria Hospital. Smith came from Scotland eight months ago where his wife resides.

Quarter Million For Religion.
