This last year has been a series of trikes and still they occur as often as ever. Last winter thousands suffered by the coal strike, and now we are on the eve of another. Industrial enterprises and stocks are looked upon with uncertainty. Why? Simply because of the numerous strikes and uncertain production. It has now come to the time when the laborer dictates to his employer how the es tablishment shall be run, and if it not done as he wants it, he strikes and ways "You have to grant my re quests," he even goes so far as place. Such was the case in the last coal strike If this is not remedie by legislation in some way breaking the trusts and different labor unions it will, sooner or later, result in civil war. This state of offairs has re suited in the New England states losing their principal manufactories. Labor becowing so high and uncertain that they have had to erect mills in the south and manufacture the cotton where the raw material is, as it cannot be handled with any profit Lore. Canada, a few years ago, was free from these evils, and now when the different unions are springing up, it has the same trouble to contend with as the United States, Take lesson from the United States, and let the employer dictate how his busiress shall be run, and who he shall Lire to do his work.
