THE JUNE BALL

A GLORIOUS TIME AT THE R.M.C. BALL

Brightness And Gayety Ruled Far Into The Night—There Was A Large Attendance—Some of the Pretty Dresses.

That the June ball of 1903 could be even a trifle better in any particular, than its predecessors, seemed until last night, to be one of the impossibilities.

The decorations, always said to be the best in Canada, were designed and carried out with an elaboration and perfection greater than in years gone by.

In a seemingly subterranean region, the phantom glow from two massive blocks of ice dimly lighted up a fairy land of cosy sitting-out places, marked off with evergreens, and flags, and shields of many a device, touched a hazy haze of light green, which heralded for a second as her eye caught the gun, and there flashed to her heart's brain the realization that the Royal Military College exists for more purposes than the giving of balls, and that the training there received by her sons in "Truth, Duty,

Everybody Looked Well. White was prime favorite, with black toment, and a dash of red. All the gowns had a lovely cloudy diaphanous effect, heightened by the flowing sleeves now so much in vogue for evening gowns, and the sparkle of steel and silver and jet, added brilliancy to the gay scene.

Mrs. Panet wore her lovely wedding gown of white crepe de chine, with its trimmings of pearls and applique. Mrs. Hall, of New York, also looked very lovely in a gown of the same soft texture.

Mrs. Emma Pease, an effective gown, of white voile, over white taffeta, and trimmings of lace. Miss Frances Horne's frock was also extremely pretty, being of white chiffon, over white taffeta, with trimmings of white applique.

Mrs. Lucie Merriam, in a lovely gown of white crepe de chine, with its trimmings of pearls and applique. Mrs. Hall, of New York, also looked very lovely in a gown of the same soft texture.
