PERSONAL MENTION. Camp's Worth.

It Should Not Be Held Here. Hereafter—The Council Should Go To Work And Make It A Permanent Spot.

The average citizen has not the faintest idea of the value to the city of the big military camp which was opened on Barnfield heights from year to year.

A Question. Have you given time or money to help make the Home Comers' Festival a success?

Incidents of the Day. New Paragraphs Picked up by Reporters on Their Rounds.

Dined on Dog Meat. A story is being told of a citizen who invited some friends to dine with him and the dinner had about concluded the guests were asked how they had enjoyed the repast.

Two Early Birds. There is much rivalry shown by butchers and market gardeners who stand on the market square thrice a week.

Saturday's Market. The prices that prevailed on the market Saturday morning were: Butter, 18c to 20c a pound for rolls.

A Band Concert Scheme. In view of the fact that nothing has been done towards collecting money for band concerts in the parks, it is suggested that next Wednesday night when the 14th band gives a complimentary concert in Macdonald park, a box be placed on the steps of the pavilion.

Secured Verdict. Two or three years ago a young lady, who had been keeping "bebebe" for her father, had been married and went to Detroit.

MESSAGE FOUND. IT WAS PICKED UP OFF DESERONTO.

Boys Bathing Find a Gruesome Remains of the Ill-Fated Banrockburn. Deseronto Tribune. Is it possible for a bottle to float from Lake Superior and be found in the Bay of Quinte?

This is a question that arises over a find made in the bay by one of George Richardson's "One day last week" young Richardson was in swimming at the sand bar just south of the mouth of the Napanee River when his attention was attracted by a bottle floating near by.

ARCHIE TROMBLY. In order that the bottle should reach Deseronto, it would have had to float through Lake Superior, the St. Mary river and rapids to Lake Huron, thence down the St. Clair River, Lake St. Clair and Detroit River to Lake Erie, and then through the Niagara Falls and through the rapids to Lake Ontario.
