TALKING BACK.

It is a Bad Habit—Don't Do It.

The habit of "answering back" is reprehensible in grown people as in children, and should be suppressed by every person anxious to lead a peaceable and harmonious life.

The "scrappy" household, in which each member strives for the last word in the argument, is most anxious to maintain an independent course of action, is afraid lest he shall be imposed upon, is not a happy household, and can never become such a one.

There is but one way to produce a lasting result, and that is to "withhold our tongue," on each and every occasion when bitter or sharp words rise to the surface.

The old adage: "It takes two to make a quarrel," is invariably true, and while silence is an aggressive response to an irritating remark, its effect is inevitable.

By not waiting for some one else to start the movement, have the joy in your own soul that you have planted the seeds of happiness yourself.

Ameliasburg Active.
Ameliasburg, July 15.—On the return of J. B. Lewis and wife from their wedding trip to Montreal, a reception was given at the home of his mother, at which the bride received numerous valuable presents, and a most enjoyable time was spent by all.

Adventure With a Tiger.
Capt. Macquoid, of the 1st Lancers, inceptor general of the Nizan's forces in the Punjab, has had a strange adventure with a tiger near Bangalore. Accompanied by a native orderly, he had tracked the animal for three days and then lost him.

Cruel Self-Sacrifice.
Young men of the highest social standing in St. Petersburg have suddenly taken the most serious course of life, taken to their hitherto frivolous behaviour. The first meeting of the organizers of the new "Club of the Enemies of Drinking" took place on Saturday at the restaurant, in Ernest's fashionable prospect. There were present thirty-seven young men, all of the best families.

Now Girls Won't Dance.
It was supposed that the growing dislike of dancing by young girls was the cause of the decline of what the young reporter calls the "terpsichorean art." But an English paper hears that the ladies are claiming the credit. We are told that society ladies will not dance any more.

His Last Hope Realized.
In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his travelling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered many bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea, which seemed almost impossible to check, along in June the case became so bad that he was forced to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was making the first steps toward a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure and he cannot help but feel grateful. The reason for bowel "distress" being at hand, however, his name. For sale by all

"BROMA."

Of all the extraordinary cures wrought by Bromo, that of Leonard Marchand, of Beauharnois, is certainly the most notable.

Having received a pamphlet from the firm of Dr. Ed. Morin & Co., he saw in it the advertisement of Bromo and read several certificates, attesting the value of that incomparable tonic.
