NEW COMPANY WHICH MAY BUILD A SMELTER IN KINGSTON.

It is Said That It Has 4,700 Acres of Lands in Renfrew County Under Option—What is Proposed. The American Rare Metals Company, which has been organized in New York, has secured an option on 4,700 acres of land in Renfrew County, Ontario, for the purpose of building a smelter. The company is headed by Theodore C. Miller, New York, and is backed by the American Rare Metals Company, which has been organized in New York.

Smelter Site Sold.

Theodore C. Miller, New York, agent for the American Rare Metals Company, of the big United States Metropolis, called on the city solicitor this morning and paid over $500 on account of the purchase of the smelter site, under agreement of July 13th inst. Mr. Miller had options on groups of three and four lots, the three lots being 8, 9, 10, the usual price on which was $4,500, and lots 7, 8, 9, 10, for which the city asked $5,000. Mr. Miller took the three lot option and paid over $500 to bind the bargain.

LATE APPOINTMENTS.

Sir Louis Jette Appointed Lieut.-Governor of Quebec. Ottawa, July 15.—The Canada Gazette, to-day, announces the following appointments: His Honor, Sir Louis Jette, K.C.M.G., of Quebec, to be the lieutenant-governor of the Province of Quebec. Henry Roney, of Graville Centre, Nova Scotia, to be wharfer of the government wharf at Halifax Centre. George Fowler, of Montreal, district inspector for the inland revenue division of Montreal, to be commissioner to investigate and report upon certain alleged difficulties between the collector and certain officers of the Hamilton inland revenue division. George Rennie, of Stratford, Ont., to be collector of inland revenue. Thomas S. Tobin, of Stratford, Ont., to be deputy collector of inland revenue. Charles A. in the division of Stratford.

REPAIRS ARE HASTENED.

May Be Ready To Run Within Two Weeks. Howard S. Folger, general manager of the Thousand Island Steamboat Company, expects the steamer, the St. Lawrence, which broke her walking beam and cylinders Wednesday, will be in shape to be run again within two weeks. Folger's present effort is being made to hasten the work of repairing the boat in Kingston.

BIG FIRE IN AUBURN.

Many Buildings Destroyed. In Blaze at Midnight. Auburn, N.Y., July 15.—The most destructive fire which has occurred in Auburn in years did $125,000 damage late last night. The flames originated in the frame building in Garden street, known as the Barber shoe factory, and owned by Okane & Alken. Before the fire had been controlled the Auburn high school, the brick block owned by the Auburn Extract company, a shop and apartment house owned by Mrs. Emma Singleton had been destroyed.

CAUGHT LIKE RATS.

In Trap—Russian Steamer Burned at Volga. St. Petersburg, July 15.—The steamer Peter was destroyed by fire at Volga to-day; thirty persons perished in the flames. The passenger and crew were caught like rats in a trap, and before the ship's boats could be got away or any aid could reach the ill-fated vessel the fire had completely enveloped it.

Burial At Cleveland.

Cleveland, July 15.—Chief Arthur's body is expected to arrive here Sunday evening. Deceased was seventy-two years of age, and is survived by his wife and two children, C. B. Arthur and Mrs. Samuel Roscoe, both of whom live in this city. Assistant Grand Chief A. B. Young, son of the brotherhood, is being critically ill in a hospital at Hamilton, Pa., and has not been informed of Mr. Arthur's death.

Suit Cases; Trunks.

Values and all kinds of travelling requisites at a bargain at Abernethy's show store.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of the People—What They Are Saying and Doing.

Frederick Turner, Deseronto, is in the city to spend a few days. Mrs. Stirling and Mrs. Fenwick, are staying with Mrs. Malcolm Sutherland. J. G. Pittinger, and two sons will leave to-night for Fordwich to visit Mr. Pittinger's parents. Mr. and Mrs. William Harris left to-day for Buffalo, N.Y., to spend a couple of weeks. Dr. S. M. Smith, South Milwaukee, writes Mayor Bell that he will be here for the Old Boys' festival. Miss Mills, nurse-in-training at the General Hospital, left to-day for her home in Milton on vacation. S. Snider, wife and son left this morning for Watertown, N.Y., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lee, Wellington street. Mrs. C. H. Picking and her little son, Leonard, left on the noon train yesterday to visit friends in Brockville and vicinity. Mrs. Amos Snyder, Oshawa, and Mrs. George Turner and daughter, Emma, Deseronto, are guests of Mrs. Rowland's, Frontenac street. Miss Paul, of Newburgh, reached the city to-day on her way home for holidays. She is a nurse-in-training, at Syracuse, N.Y. hospital. Mrs. Charles H. Turnbull and little daughter, of Ottawa, are staying with Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Murray, Alice street, while in the city. Isaac Waterman, who died in London, Ont., to-day was known to many in this city. He owned the Imperial Coal Co., which did business here for quite a number of years. Rev. Dr. Wilson, writing from here on Saturday next to the Home of the Commoners' celebration. A great many former Kingstonians residing in New York will come at the same time.

CAMPBELL SUES MORANG.

Exhorts Playing Not Illegal—Toronto in Renfrew. Toronto, July 15.—W. C. Campbell, an author, is suing George N. Morang & Co., publishers of this city, for an account of the profits on the sale of books written by Campbell, and to restrain the publication of his school books, "Our Home and Its Surroundings," and "Our Earth as a Whole." A divisional court, to-day, gave judgment in the case of Cook vs. Oxford, declared that license regulations against playing euchre, were unreasonable. The court upsets this decision, but Judge MacMahon, dissenting, laid in an hotel-keeper at Ingersoll.

A BUFFALO FIRE.

Moffatt's Malt House Badly Damaged—Loss $100,000. Buffalo, N.Y., July 15.—Property, valued at perhaps $100,000, was destroyed this morning in a fire of unknown origin, which broke out in dryer of Henry G. Moffatt's malt house and brewery. The greater part of the loss is on damaged and burned grain. Great quantities of wheat were stored in elevator building and adjoining structures.

Fire at McLean.

McLean, July 17.—Crops look fine here. Darcy Hecht had the misfortune of having his saw mill burnt on Friday night, July 10th, also E. Vanvolkenburgh's lumber burnt, but the engine and boiler were not much injured. A number of young people from here were fishing at Fillet lake on Saturday, July 11th, and spent a pleasant time. Fruit is very scarce this year. Mrs. W. Avey is one of the sick list. Fred Vanvolkenburgh has purchased a new horse. Mrs. A. Foster has returned from her visit at Newburgh. Emerson Snider is all smiles; his boy, Vester, David Vanvolkenburgh, at A. Foster's; Fred John Cronk, at W. Rawley's.

To Have a New Craft.

Alexander Bay, July 15.—Thomas Henry, traffic manager of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company, made a visit to the local office of the company and took a trip up the river to Clayton. He announced that the company was already conducting negotiations with shipbuilding companies for the construction of a magnificent new steamer, to take the place of the unfinished Montreal, which was wrecked in Montreal, on March 7th last, involving a loss of over $300,000.

Was Remembered.

A number of members of his Sunday school Bible class and others gave T. H. Follick, M.A., of St. Mary's, son of Rev. Joseph Follick, Kingston, a surprise party. They came in a body and read an address and presented him with articles for all of his family. To his wife was given a fine silver-plated four-branched candelstick; his daughter a gold-plated souvenir spoon with St. Mary's engraved on it, and to himself a gold watch.

A Pleasant Evening.

Miss Jennie Sinclair entertained a number of her friends, last evening, at her home on Frontenac street. Dancing was the order of the programme, interspersed with games and social songs. Light refreshments were served during the evening. Everybody went home feeling that they had a thoroughly good time, and vowing their hostess a decided success as an entertainer.

Had a Nice Outing.

Over 400 citizens took advantage of the bar-tenders' excursion last night. The steamer America carried the crowd to Clayton, where the excursionists were given one hour to see the sights. Returning, the city was reached at about one o'clock; all in attendance declaring they had a thoroughly good time, and vowing their hostess a decided success as an entertainer.

An Honest Act.

The driver for W. J. Crothers' bakery found $30 of tickets last night, that had been lost by Conductor Thompson of the railway company. He returned them and refused to accept any remuneration. The conductor deeply appreciated the honest act, and he would have had to pay for the lost tickets.

Will Be Historic.

Paris, July 15.—The Rome correspondent of the Gaulois, says, when Dr. Mazzoni entered the city yesterday morning and found the pope seated in his arm chair and feeling less exhausted, he said: "What would you say, Holy Father, if the doctor transformed himself into a photographer?" "By all means, my good Mazzoni," replied Pope Leo, smiling. Dr. Mazzoni then produced a camera, and took a number of pictures of Pope Leo, who was taken seated with Dr. Lepoint standing beside him, and his valet, Centra kneeling at his feet.

SEE TRIED SUICIDE.

Because She Couldn't Come To Kingston. Watertown, N.Y., July 15.—Miss Bertha Putnam, aged sixteen, formerly an inmate of the Orphan Home, and since last December employed on the farm of Mrs. A. Folsom in the town of Pamela, is at the county house recovering from the effects of a dose of Paris green, which she took with the intention of ending her life. The girl has a "fellow," who wanted to take her on a two days' trip to Kingston, Ont. There was to be no chaperone and Mrs. Folsom vetoed the plan. Then the girl took the poison. This was on Wednesday. Thursday night Superintendent Pook, E. B. Nichols was notified and took Constable George B. Van Doren to see the girl. Dr. Van Doren soon manipulated stomach pump was a lot worse than a troublesome love affair, and then the girl was taken to the county house. The girl will recover.

Crowd At The Park.

They were 650 people in the Lake Ontario Park pavilion last night for the vaudeville performance. During the evening, several hundred others being filled till after nine o'clock. The traffic to the park this summer promises to eclipse that of any preceding year.

The Price of Coal.

A merchant stated this morning that coal would sell in Kingston at a scheme goes through at $2.25 a ton. He has just returned from a trip to Rochester, Oswego, and other points.

Matters That Interest Everybody—Notes From All Over—Little of Everything Easily Read and Remembered by the Public.

The Alaska boundary commission may complete its labors before October 25th. Hon. Mr. Ewart, Ottawa, again ill, and cannot take part in the Manitoba election campaign. A tornado killed five men, injured a score of others and caused a property loss of $2,000,000 at Streator, Ill., Friday night. The touring Galt football team played a game with Brandon, Brandon, Man., last evening, which resulted in another win for the eastern team. Score 7 to 0. Secret service agents captured a gang of Italian counterfeiters in Brooklyn after a hard fight, in which revolvers were drawn by both sides, and several had a narrow escape from death. St. Matthew's church, Ottawa, which is preparing under the pious care of Rev. W. M. Loucks, has been enlarged. A transcript, providing 1000 copies, has been completed, and was opened on Friday, the sermon on the occasion being preached by Rev. A. W. Mackay.

A Benevolent Work.

The Y.W.C.A. rooms are open every day and the secretary will be glad to welcome young ladies willing to take a share in the work, as many are absent at present. The pleasant rooms form a delightful retreat for strangers; music and books and sometimes flowers enliven the visitor. Several kindly responded to the appeal for flowers for the sick (Mrs. Prof. Dupuis and others). The committee hopes that no one will allow flowers to waste but send them to the corner of Sydenham and Princess streets to cheer some one who has none. The secretary proposes to have music on Thursdays, every Saturday evening and next Thursday evening. The Bible class on Sunday afternoon and short service after a young lady giving an account of the summer school in Toronto, just closed, when all interested will be welcomed.
