May Visit President.

Portsmouth, July 21.—It is reported here that the first class cruiser, King Alfred, will, after the forthcoming annual manoeuvres, be held in readiness to take the Prince and Princess of Wales to New-York, they having, it is said, accepted an invitation to visit President Roosevelt. The report cannot be confirmed, but naval officers consider that it is extremely probable.

ARE AT DUBLIN

The State Entry a Brilliant Ceremony.

THE CITY LIMITS

WHERE THEY WERE RECEIVED AND WELCOMED.

Thousands of Spectators Eagerly Awaited the Coming of the King and Queen—The King Nodded For Over a Nine-Mile Drive in the City.

Dublin, July 21.—The arrival of their majesties at Kingstown today, and their subsequent state entry into Dublin was made the occasion for brilliant ceremony. Particularly interesting was the ceremony at the city limits, where an ancient gate and castle towers had been reproduced. On the city side of the gate were the lord mayor and council in their scarlet robes, the mace bearers in blue and silver and several hundreds of representative citizens of Dublin, who were provided with axes and stands. Several crack regiments lined the road as a guard of honour, while behind them were columns of police and militia.

Thousands of spectators eagerly awaited the coming of the king and queen. Always personally popular with the Irish King Edward was to receive a warm welcome on the occasion of this, his first visit to the Emerald Isle since he ascended the throne. Shortly before the arrival of the royal party the pursuivant-at-arms, wearing a gorgeous cape of royal heraldry, galloped up to the lord mayor and asked permission for the entrance of the king and queen. Gravely and in quietly worded terms of courtesy the lord mayor granted the request. Back galloped the pursuivant-at-arms, the gate banging behind him, the whole scene being a counterpart of a sixteenth century play.

Then from the ramparts of the gate came a fanfare of trumpets. The royal party in sight. Out upon a scarlet cloth stepped Lord Mayor Harrington and the members of the municipal corporation, the same who had refused to vote the king an address of welcome. Their robes glowed in the sunshine and their wands and maces flashed brilliantly. The gate was swung open and in rode the advance guard of the royal cortege. A signal was given and the royal carriage and their brilliant uniforms evoked loud applause from the spectators. The first carriages contained the home secretary and other members of the king's party, accompanied by members of the court and attended by mounted equestrians. Finally, amid almost perfect silence, save for the echo of cheers and cries of "God Save the King," from outside the city limits came the royal couple. During the five minutes when the king was occupied with the ceremonies at the gate there was scarcely a lull in the loud cheering of the big crowd. Frequently his majesty nodded. In fact, he scarcely ceased nodding during the entire nine-mile drive through the streets of Dublin to the Castle.

No Serious Effect.

London, July 21.—It is not yet known how the death of the pope will affect the royal visit. It is regarded as certain that the king will not fail to recognize, in some way, the passing of the spiritual head of a majority of the Irish, but as the pope was not the ruler of a temporal state royal etiquette does not demand the cancellation of the visit or any public function. It is indeed apparent from telegrams from Dublin that any curtailment from the king's programme will be most unpopular there. A rumor spread last evening that the visit it had been countermanded and the effect upon the people was said to have been an intense feeling of depression which was only removed when the rumour was contradicted.

It is expected that the gala performance at Theatre Royal will be cancelled, and perhaps also some of the minor functions, while it is certain that many Catholics will go into mourning and consequently will absent themselves from all ceremonies.

The Dublin corporation is the best handed and most thoroughly despatched body in Ireland because of its cheerful refusal to join in the popular welcome to the king and queen, but the overwhelming majority of people say that they themselves will rejoice that if the authorities have no manners the people are capable of redressing the balance.

CHAMBERLAIN MAY COME.

Wishes to Secure a Mandate From British Public.

London, July 21.—The Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain adopts a systematic attitude towards the proposal now before the Australian federal ministry to invite him to visit Australia. A member of parliament informs me that when he recently urged Mr. Chamberlain to visit Canada and Australia, Mr. Chamberlain replied: "I shall be only too glad if my health permits, but obviously my first duty is to secure a mandate from the British public so that I may meet the colonial ministers not empty handed, as at the colonial conference, but prepared to talk business, and negotiate definite treaties for imperial benefit." If when I get the British mandate, Canadians would like me to visit, the decision I would be pleased to go and thrash the whole question out face to face with them, and with Australia, too, for that matter."

The governor of Erythra has forbidden elephant hunting in all the Indian colonies in Africa, in conformity with the London agreement for the protection of animals in Africa.

RE-CAPTURED DAUGHTER.

Irish Mother Chases Wedding Party.

Halifax, July 21.—Victor Hughes and Miss Lou Foster, both of Windsor, N.S., drove to St. Croix, Hants county, where they were married. On the following morning the bridegroom was arrested on a charge of abduction from the maternal roof, but was subsequently discharged. The bride in the meantime remained with her home, where she was held captive. When the news spread, a crowd of fully 1,000 gathered around the house and attempted to enter, break down the front door. Great excitement prevailed, which was increased by an aunt of the bride becoming hysterical. Police men arrived on the scene, but could not cope with the excited mob. Finally, the bridegroom appeared, and entered the house by means of a ladder placed at an upper window. The town councillor subsequently informed the crowd, that Mr. Hughes and his wife, and at his request the crowd dispersed, after cheers for the groom.

BROUGHT IN SOON.

A Day or Two Before Policy is Introduced.

Ottawa, July 21.—The government's railway policy will not be introduced today, but it is expected to be brought down on Wednesday or Thursday. The rumors current in the opposition press, that the season's principal project is to be modified or laid over until next year, the dispatch adds, are wholly without foundation. The bill will be introduced and pressed to a successful conclusion.

A cablegram has been received by Hon. Clifford Sifton, from A. R. Aylesworth, consenting to act in place of the late Judge Armour as representative for Canada on the Alaska tribunal. The tribunal will meet in London on September 3rd, when written arguments will be presented. It is thought that all the meetings of the tribunal will be held in the English metropolis.

SWEPT PROVINCE.

The Latest Returns From Manitoba Elections.

Winnipeg, July 21.—Returns received up to an early hour, this morning, indicate the election of twenty-six conservatives and seven liberals, with five seats in doubt. All of the cabinet ministers have been re-elected. While the government has swept the province its majority of the total vote of the province is small.

Bear Fomenting More Trouble.

London, July 21.—A story is current here that the Russian government is distributing money in London for the purpose of fomenting demonstrations against the Jews, as an excuse for the recent outrages at Kishineff. The idea is that it may be said, "You see what a turbulent people they are; can you wonder that we have taken strong measures with them?"

In Memory of Ingersoll.

Chicago, July 21.—The fourth anniversary of the death of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll was observed to-day by the holding of memorial services under the auspices of the Ingersoll Memorial Association of Chicago. The association is behind a movement having for its object the erection of an imposing monument to Colonel Ingersoll.

Quebec Finances.

Quebec, July 21.—Although the official statement of receipts and expenditure of the province for the year terminating July, has not been issued, Le Soleil states that it is in a position to announce that the Parent government succeeded in getting a saving of about $50,000 over expenditures.

TO FOUND HOSPITAL.

Scotch Iron Moulders to Return Home.

Montreal, July 21.—The civic authorities are asked to found a hospital in the city, or near it, for the treatment of tuberculosis. The move comes from the provincial board of health and a leading number of physicians interested in combatting the disease.

A committee of ten, representing the Scotch iron moulders, who were brought to this country to work for the Canada Foundry company, at Toronto, in the city meeting arrangements to have the whole party of 170 men taken back to the old country. They claim they were brought to Canada under misrepresentation. It was represented to them that a colony was being founded at Toronto and big works established and they had no idea a strike was on there. They say they practically had no fight their way out of the works. On the steamer coming out they were told that a strike was on and after stormy meetings decided to go to Toronto to see how the original representations compared with the circumstances.

ACTION TAKEN.

By Men Who Were on Picket Duty.

Toronto, July 21.—Two of the striking moulders at the Canada Foundry company, Edward O'Donnell and Robert Hare, have entered actions against the company for alleged false imprisonment. They were on picket duty and were arrested, but have not yet been tried. They have also served the two constables, who arrested them, with notice of action.

Reports to Hon. John Bryden, minister of agriculture, from the Wabigoon district, are of a very favourable nature. There has only been one shower of rain, there this season and as a result the crops will be a partial failure.

Thomas Hall, the burglar, found in Warn's store, at Aurora, early on the morning of July 9th, and who was three times shot by Warn and his wife, pleaded "guilty" to-day and was remanded for sentence.

HOW IT HAPPENED

That the Post Mistress Took the Money.

Windsor, Ont., July 21.—Mrs. Ellen McKee, former postmistress at Tubbermore, near Bellair, Ireland, who was arrested here, yesterday, charged with embezzlement of government funds, was taken last night to Ottawa, where she will remain until an officer comes for her from Ireland. She claimed to have been kidnapped by a crime by the brutal negligence of a drunken husband, who sold the last piece of furniture in their home for drink, leaving her and her children to starve. She took the money, she said, in the hope of paying it back, but was unable to do so.
