CONSECRATES A CHURCH. Bishop Mills Visits Harrowsmith on Monday. On Monday, July 21st, Bishop Mills, attended by Canon Groat, paid his official visit to the mission of Loughboro. At Harrowsmith he was met by Rev. J. W. Forsythe, incumbent, and Rev. U. F. S. Radcliffe, Canon East. At 2 p.m. the pretty little Church of St. Peter, being at last declared free from debt, was solemnly dedicated to the service of God by the beautiful consecration service appointed to be used on such occasions. After the service of consecration Rev. C. E. S. Radcliffe read the evening prayers, and Canon Groat the lessons. The bishop preached in his usual eloquent and impressive style, from the words, "My beloved is mine and I am His." There was a very good congregation considering the busy season of the year. After the service the bishop was driven to Sydenham by Mr. Forsythe, while Mr. Radcliffe drove Mr. Groat. At 7:30 o'clock the bishop and clergy, preceded by the confirmation candidates, walked to the church, and after evening service, led by Mr. Radcliffe, the bishop addressed the candidates most forcibly and affectionately, pointing out the importance of the step they were taking and urging them to dedicate themselves to the service of Almighty God. He then confirmed the candidates, five in number, and all adults. There was a beautiful floral cross on the altar, the work of Mrs. Forsythe. The church was well filled, the responses hearty, the singing very good, and Mrs. Adams kindly sang a solo, with wonderful feeling and power. On Tuesday morning the bishop went by train to Parham.

Crowd From The Islands. The steamer America at noon brought the first large party from the Thousand Islands that has come to the city since the steamer St. Lawrence's accident a week ago. This accident forced the company to temporarily cut out the trips from the islands to Kingston. There were about 300 excursionists on the America to-day, and the merchants gave them a cordial welcome. "Vaseline" in half pound tins only 10c. at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Blue berries, wild raspberries, Crawford.

Home-Comers' Reception. Everybody in the District Invited - Welcome All. The Kingston reception committee has tried to make it clear in advertisements and otherwise that the home-comers' reception was meant for everybody who regarded Kingston as a birthplace or formerly resided there. The citizens want their old friends to rally whether living far or near and to this end have secured return fares for Frontenac and adjoining counties, upon the local railways. Monday will be a day of sports, everything free and open. The military sports alone will be an entertainment. Saturday night will be the liveliest time Kingston has had for many years.
