Death of James Cairnes. James Cairnes, aged eighty-eight years, died on Friday night, at the home of his son, Major Cairnes, Earl street, after a lengthened illness from general decline. Deceased was born in Somersetshire, Eng., and came to Canada in 1872. He farmed at Elginville and Portmouthe, and three years ago removed with his son to the city. He was an Anglican and a conservative, a strong active man, but quiet disposition. He was highly esteemed by many old friends in this section. Deceased leaves two sons, Major James M., and John, Kingston; and four daughters, Mrs. M. Binogus, Kingston; Mrs. Noble, New Zealand; Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Albee, Amsterdam, N.Y. The funeral will occur on Monday.

This is the largest amount ever offered in special prizes by this society. Competition for the money promises to be keen. May Go To Watertown. The Syracuse Post-Standard says it is announced on good authority that Bishop Cahagan is in Rome to obtain permission to remove the cathedral to either Plattsburg or Watertown, and that it is considered that the latter will be the favorite place. Died in Detroit. Dr. Donald Maclean, late of Kingston, now of Detroit, Mich., died suddenly yesterday, after a short illness. The late Dr. Donald Maclean was a brother of Mrs. J. C. Patterson, Union street, this city, and of Mrs. Browett, who lately resided here. George Gates, New York, has arrived in the city for the festival.

MAJ. EDWARDS ENDORSES ACTION OF CANADIAN SENATE.

Prohibiting Walking Delegates Coming to Canada to Present Strikes, Will Meet With Approval in U.S. Montreal, July 25.--Major Allison Edwards, consul general for the Dominion of Canada, has endorsed the action of the Canadian senate, in passing a law, prohibiting the coming into this country of walking delegates, belonging to international unions, to take part in any strike, in passing approval in the United States. It could hardly be claimed, he says, that they had any right to come into this country, and dictate terms to Canadian companies. The fact that the C. P. R. and the G. T. R. had been able to make satisfactory arrangements with their men, looked to him as if this could always be done, provided the men were not conferred with the officials of their company.

MR. ROBINSON'S REGRETS. His Feelings Expressed by Tom Moore. W. J. Robinson, of Hexter, May & Co., Portland, Ore., writes: I regret exceedingly that I am unable to be present at the Old Boys' reunion, and partake of your hospitality. My feelings are better expressed in the lines of Thomas Moore's: There is not in this wide world a valley so sweet As the vale in whose bosom the bright Of the last ray of feeling and life must depart. 'Tis the bloom of that valley shall fade from my heart. I would extend my hand to you all in gratitude. This is the only festival touches me most deeply, for it is inspired by the noblest sentiments of the human heart.

An Invitation To Home-Comers. Principal Glover extends a most hearty invitation to all to visit "Hillcroft" Academy, Kingston's high class residential and day school for boys. The grounds, consisting of twelve acres of park, are the most beautiful school grounds in Canada. They are situated on the line of the street railway, Union street west, and formerly belonged to the late Hon. Sir Alexander Campbell. The school has made a name for itself, both in the quality of its work and the success of its candidates at the university and Royal Military College examinations: three of her students enter the Royal Military College this year. Do not miss seeing "Hillcroft."

Every Act A Top-Liner. The best attraction of the season will be presented to the patrons of Lake Ontario Park next week. The following artists have been engaged: George W. Cunningham and Geneva Smith will present their one act comedy, "A Perfect Paradise," also introducing their trained dog, Zero. Norton and Russell, America's lighting change artists, impersonating sixteen different characters, and billed as the head liners of every summer theatre this season. Flynn and Rose, in songs, sayings and dances, pronounced the best comedians on the vaudeville stage. All the Home Comers should visit Kingston's popular pleasure resort.

Saturday's Market. Though this is a buying time, yet there were a very large Saturday market. The general prices were: Butter, in rolls, 18c. to 20c. a pound; and in prints, 20c. to 22c. a pound; eggs, 15c. to 16c. a dozen; chickens, 55c. to 60c. a pair; ducks, 65c. to 70c. a pair; fowl, 60c. to 75c. a pair; turkeys, $1 to $1.25 each; lamb, 10c. to 12c. a pound; potatoes, 15c. a peck; pork, 7c. to 9c. a pound; veal, 4c. to 6c. a pound; apples, 20c. a peck; corn, 10c. to 12c. a dozen; raspberries, 5c. a box; onions and beets, 5c. a bunch; beans, 5c. a quart; green peas, 5c. to 7c. a quart.

Large List of Specials. Thanks to the increasing interest and kindness of friends, the Horticultural society has been able to offer $35 in special prizes in connection with the forthcoming fall fair. This is the largest amount ever offered in special prizes by this society. Competition for the money promises to be keen.

At Lake Ontario Park On Friday Afternoon. The traditional picnic at Lake Ontario Park Friday afternoon had only a fair-sized crowd, not nearly as large as was anticipated on such a fine afternoon. Besides the baseball match, there were a number of athletic contests, which resulted thus: Sack race--W. Kelly, A. Turcott. Boys' race--A. Turcott, N. Stanton. Girls' race--Mary Montcrief, Laura Wright. Five-legged race--G. Ewart, N. Stanton. Fat man's race--George Bearance, A. Jamieson. "Sam" Arnie also was a participant, but was much heavier than his opponent. Tip-of-war--Cataract lodge team beat the Kingston lodge team. Throwing baseball--Lapin, Green. Base running--Randolph, 161 sec.; Lapin, 171 sec. Veterans' race--A. A. Brough, S. Reynolds. Young ladies' race--M. Gallivan, L. Zeigler. Girls' race--Nellie Spooner, Mabel Reid. Putting shot--G. Payne, John Tuttle. Egg and spoon race--Mabel Reid, Lizzy Bowerman. Tip-of-war--Green baseball team won by Ponies. Blind-folded race--Lizzy Bowerman, Beatrice Driver. Peanut race--Harry Minnes, N. Stanton. At night there was a display of fireworks under the direction of W. Shea. A dance in the pavilion after the vaudeville performance completed the day's doings. The crowd at night was very large.

Black and Colored Mohairs AND Lustres Their popularity is due to the excellent combination of qualities they offer for summer dresses. They are always dressy looking, wear splendidly and their loose texture lets the air through readily and consequently makes them cool. We have sold quantities of them, yet so liberally planned was our stock that the variety is still most complete. There is a chance for economy too among those we now offer.

70TH YEAR. N THE KING Where the lake and river meets the old historic city of Kingston. Just where that noble river, the majestic St. Lawrence, whose waters encircle the Thousand Islands, leaves the bosom of Lake Ontario, rears its tapering church, a tall factory chimneys, and a college tower into the deep blue Canadian sky. The city is one of beauty, and its position renders it particularly attractive. Kingston has many claims to be called a beautiful city: Her scenery is lovely and carefully guarded by grim-looking Fort Henry, two years after the war was concluded, or in 1834. It guns from down their axes, while a solitary wanderer the crumbling fort. Tall towers look the landings at each side of old fortification. A Maritime with its conical shaped roof a "ring" wall, bids defiance to the enter the harbor. Just below the river pours its waters into the headquarters of "A" Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery. The chivalrous governor of the Province, established his when he first landed in Upper more than two centuries ago. 1672 the original wooden fort placed under the direction of Salle, by a much stronger stone--Fort Frontenac. To stands Artillery Barracks, the of "B" Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery. In entering the harbor visitor passes close to the Royal College, Canada's West where the nation's poetic spirit shines as a monument of helmets, bars the art of warfare, the new drill shed, built in the 14th P.W.O. Halls, and justified, stands as a monument new spirit of militarism and is im that has recently sprung Canada. It is a notable fact of history the first of them, as well as a product in Upper Canada--art-labored in this historic city in 1786 he established the Grammar school here. Long since passed public school system, on old Ontario's of a system of elementary school 1840.
