Success and Prosperity Wished Us - A Family Reunion Growing Out of the City's Festival - Belleville Sympathy. Quite a number of telegrams were received during the festival from old Kingstonsians. Among the best were those from:

Funeral Monday Morning. The funeral of the late James Belch took place from his late residence, 1030 a.m. The bereaved were the late sons, non-in-law and cousin of the deceased.

Where Is The Peddler? The chief of police has in his possession a peddler's pack picked up on the banks of the Rideau in Pittsburg township by Henry Le Heup.

Arm Badly Cut. Sunday afternoon a young man suffering from an overdose of whiskey attempted to force an entrance into a Princess street hotel.

His Last Hope Realized. In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890, the editor of this paper was among the many settlers.

Levi's Y-Z (Wise Head) Disinfectant Soap Powder is a boon to any home. It disinfects and cleans at same time.

Have Belleville's Sympathy. The Belleville Intelligencer wishes to extend our sympathies to those who are suffering from the influenza epidemic.

Have Received Medals. The undistinguished warrant officers and non-commissioned officers of the permanent force have been granted medals for long service and good conduct.

Funeral Largely Attended. The funeral of the late Robert J. Coleman, the fireman who met such a tragic death on the steamer America, took place this afternoon from his late home on Lower Bagot street.

To Engage in Mission Work. Rural Dean Dobb, rector of Bath, writes to say that he is not contemplating resigning his mission work as far as he knows he could not do so if he wanted to, as once a priest, always a priest.

A Modest Fish Story. Mr. Goksy, summering at Marysville, Wolfe Island, went out in his steam-yacht Aurora Monday afternoon.

Pea Coal. Makes an excellent fuel for summer. $6 per ton.

WOOD. HARDWOOD. SOFTWOOD. KINDLING. JAMES SWIFT & CO. PHONE 131.

A Cosy Bright Fire. Is an attraction for every one. The cherry glow and invisible heat of our coal will make itself felt with pleasure during the cold weather.
