Canadian Mothers Have Developed Character That Commands the Highest Praise—What of the Future

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 12.—(To the Editor) Possibly some "letters" may be of interest to your many readers and find space in your valued daily.

The sense of distance is a reality on this far away Pacific coast. It needs a long arm to reach the hand-clasp over mountain, valley and desert, in greeting to Kingston friends.

In a way like this the Canadian mother has developed a character that commands the highest praise.

As you cross the vast stretches of sand and sage brush in a continental journey, you wonder why and for what purpose all this waste of desert, and as heat and dust follow you night and day, at times almost to suffocation.

The Canadian heart is loyal, find it where you may. "Uncle Sam" would have a hard time marshalling into hostile line the hundred thousand Canadian boys of the republic.
