

ANOTHER CAR LOAD OF Chairs JUST ARRIVED Ranging from 50c. to $1.50

ROBT. J. REID, THE LEADING UNDERTAKER, ETC.

AUCTION SALE WEDNESDAY, Aug. 26th

AUCTION SALE OF FURNITURE MONDAY, 10:30 a.m.

Grandfather's Clocks IN MINIATURE

SMITH BROS. Jewelers and Opticians.

TO LET. PURNISHED FOR THE WINTER.

WANTED. A LADY'S GOLD WATCH OWNER.

A GOOD DRESSMAKER AT ONCE.

COMPETENT HOUSE WORKER FOR 1st September.

NOT PAGES NOR PADS BUT household needs.

STOCKINGS AND SOCKS-WANTED.

DAILY MEMORANDA. Special sale at Laidlaw's on Monday.

There are no wicked women—they only do wicked things.

A New York man claims to be a female reformer.

When two girls exchange confidences about their experiences with a man it is a sign neither will tell what she knows.

August 22nd in history—Yacht America won cup from English yacht, 1851.

Entered the station. Toronto Junction, Ont., Aug. 22—Burglars broke into the G. T. R. station here early this morning.

New Cruiser Launched. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 22.—In the presence of one of the largest and most distinguished crowds that ever thronged Cramp's shipyards on a like occasion.

BURNED TO DEATH. Two Saginaw Boys Killed by Live Wire.

Found! At No. 332 King St.

Repeating a Thing. Often enough makes people believe in it, and when people believe, it is just as necessary to be able to do what you've said to keep them in the faith.

P. B. CREWS JEWELLER, Cor. Princess and Wellington Sts.

LOST. A Lady's Chain. A watch and two Pearl Rings.

How They View It. United States visitors in Kingston say the people across the border would not mind if Canada was to win the America's cup, but it would be too great a blow to their stomachs for the cup to be wrested by England.

DO NOT GIVE IT. This the Declaration of Colonies.

BUT NOT OF ALL PATHEPIC SCENES AMONG THE FINNS.

They Walked With the Departing Friends Wearing Mourning.

London, Aug. 22.—In reply to enquiries, by Colonial Secretary Chamberlain as to whether it would be advisable to publish a full account of the proceedings of the colonial conference, held in London last year.

Entered the station. Toronto Junction, Ont., Aug. 22—Burglars broke into the G. T. R. station here early this morning.

New Cruiser Launched. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 22.—In the presence of one of the largest and most distinguished crowds that ever thronged Cramp's shipyards on a like occasion.

BURNED TO DEATH. Two Saginaw Boys Killed by Live Wire.

Found! At No. 332 King St.

Repeating a Thing. Often enough makes people believe in it, and when people believe, it is just as necessary to be able to do what you've said to keep them in the faith.

P. B. CREWS JEWELLER, Cor. Princess and Wellington Sts.

LOST. A Lady's Chain. A watch and two Pearl Rings.

How They View It. United States visitors in Kingston say the people across the border would not mind if Canada was to win the America's cup, but it would be too great a blow to their stomachs for the cup to be wrested by England.

WALKS AFTER YEARS. Webster, Mass., Aug. 22.—Paralyzed by a stroke of lightning fifteen years ago, Mrs. Margaret Bean, now seventy-four years old, was a helpless invalid until this week, when she recovered the use of her limbs as suddenly as she was stricken.

As Her First Husband—He Died in the Garden About the House His Wife Occupied—She Swooned When She Made the Discovery.

Vienna, Aug. 22.—A story which might form the basis of a stirring melodrama has just been enacted in the Roumanian village of Labougnia, on the Hungarian frontier.

Barik Wasly, the wife of a peasant, on going out into the garden, found the dead body of a monk beneath a rose tree.

Entered the station. Toronto Junction, Ont., Aug. 22—Burglars broke into the G. T. R. station here early this morning.

New Cruiser Launched. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 22.—In the presence of one of the largest and most distinguished crowds that ever thronged Cramp's shipyards on a like occasion.

BURNED TO DEATH. Two Saginaw Boys Killed by Live Wire.

Found! At No. 332 King St.

Repeating a Thing. Often enough makes people believe in it, and when people believe, it is just as necessary to be able to do what you've said to keep them in the faith.

P. B. CREWS JEWELLER, Cor. Princess and Wellington Sts.

LOST. A Lady's Chain. A watch and two Pearl Rings.

How They View It. United States visitors in Kingston say the people across the border would not mind if Canada was to win the America's cup, but it would be too great a blow to their stomachs for the cup to be wrested by England.

AMELODRAMA. Enacted in Real Life in Roumania.

THE DEAD MONK WAS RECOGNIZED BY AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE.

Vienna, Aug. 22.—A story which might form the basis of a stirring melodrama has just been enacted in the Roumanian village of Labougnia, on the Hungarian frontier.

Barik Wasly, the wife of a peasant, on going out into the garden, found the dead body of a monk beneath a rose tree.

Entered the station. Toronto Junction, Ont., Aug. 22—Burglars broke into the G. T. R. station here early this morning.

New Cruiser Launched. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 22.—In the presence of one of the largest and most distinguished crowds that ever thronged Cramp's shipyards on a like occasion.

BURNED TO DEATH. Two Saginaw Boys Killed by Live Wire.

Found! At No. 332 King St.

Repeating a Thing. Often enough makes people believe in it, and when people believe, it is just as necessary to be able to do what you've said to keep them in the faith.

P. B. CREWS JEWELLER, Cor. Princess and Wellington Sts.

LOST. A Lady's Chain. A watch and two Pearl Rings.

How They View It. United States visitors in Kingston say the people across the border would not mind if Canada was to win the America's cup, but it would be too great a blow to their stomachs for the cup to be wrested by England.

RELIANCE LEADING. When the Last Bulletin Came to Hand.

New York, Aug. 22.—Great throngs are going down to the battle ground of the great international yacht race.

Vienna, Aug. 22.—A story which might form the basis of a stirring melodrama has just been enacted in the Roumanian village of Labougnia, on the Hungarian frontier.

Barik Wasly, the wife of a peasant, on going out into the garden, found the dead body of a monk beneath a rose tree.

Entered the station. Toronto Junction, Ont., Aug. 22—Burglars broke into the G. T. R. station here early this morning.

New Cruiser Launched. Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 22.—In the presence of one of the largest and most distinguished crowds that ever thronged Cramp's shipyards on a like occasion.

BURNED TO DEATH. Two Saginaw Boys Killed by Live Wire.

Found! At No. 332 King St.

Repeating a Thing. Often enough makes people believe in it, and when people believe, it is just as necessary to be able to do what you've said to keep them in the faith.

P. B. CREWS JEWELLER, Cor. Princess and Wellington Sts.

LOST. A Lady's Chain. A watch and two Pearl Rings.

How They View It. United States visitors in Kingston say the people across the border would not mind if Canada was to win the America's cup, but it would be too great a blow to their stomachs for the cup to be wrested by England.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. Toronto, Ont., Aug. 22. (11 a.m.)—Fresh to strong westerly to southerly winds.

Autumn Season 1903. Our importations for the coming season are being opened early.

TO-MORROW, (SATURDAY) STOCK COLLARS

REV. DR. GORDON'S VIEW. Queen's Principal on the New Pacific Policy.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.

Canada's Opportunity. Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Japanese Consul General T. Nosse, writes to the department of agriculture stating that owing to cloudbursts and floods the crop of rice in Japan this year will be much lighter than usual.