A VICTIM OF DROPSY

CURED AFTER DOCTORS PRO- NOUNCED HIS CASE HOPELESS. Limbs Swollen Until He Had Become a Bloated Helpless Man - Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Wrought the Cure.

In the little village of Rodney, not far from the mining town of Spring-All, N. S., lives James Stevens, a quiet, middle-aged man, who though living an unobtrusive life, has lately been much talked of as having been the subject of a cure pronounced by all familiar with the circumstances as scarcely less than miraculous.

The German missionary stationed at Kuramin reports that in his district alone no fewer than fifteen persons have been carried off and devoured by lions during the past few weeks.

These Angels Lacked Wings. Paris, Aug. 22.—The Paris police recently arrested three men, each of whom pretended to be an angel and have robbied Noah's ark. There was a semblance of truth in their statements, as each had a bag in which there was a parrot, several chickens, a cat, a dog, some pigeons, and a duck. They happened to be inmates of an insane asylum who had escaped over the walls and gone on a promenade through Paris.

A CLERGYMAN MARRIED.

A Recent Event at Fakenham Village.

Albion Gazette. St. Andrew's church, Fakenham, was the scene of an exceptionally pretty wedding on Wednesday. The contracting parties were Miss Louise Loraine Dick, daughter of Alexander Dick, and Rev. John A. McConnell B.A., B.D., Kingston. The bride entered the church bearing on the arm of her brother, William Dick, by whom she was given away. The groom was supported by Rev. J. Ferguson, Brookville. The bridal party presented a very pleasing picture. The bride looked charmingly beautiful, dressed in white silk organza over tulle, and wearing a large chiffon hat trimmed with plumes and carrying a shower bouquet of cream roses.

The bride and groom were very becomingly attired in pearl grey silk, over pink silk with touches of pink and black picture hat. The church was very prettily adorned for the occasion with festoonings of sweet peas and smilax together with a wealth of potted flowers. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. R. Young, Miss Morland, Kingston.

Pretended Lover Robs Girl. Paris, Aug. 22.—A thief, who had made love to a young girl, to rob her, has just been arrested by the Paris police. He asked the girl to put on her finest jewels, and having proposed to marry her, lured her to his room. Once there he seized a revolver, snatched her hand, and took her to the river to commit suicide, when two policemen caught her and took her to her mother in the abbreviated costume.

MORE TESTIMONY FOR MUNYON.

We have suffered terribly from Rheumatism for five years, and I was so badly affected I had to go on crutches. I tried many advertised remedies and physicians, but it was no use. I steadily became worse. My joints and feet swelled up and I would have frightful pains. I secured a vial of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure at the free distribution held at the Evening News office, and I am now completely cured. I haven't an ache or a pain, and I feel better than I have for the last ten years.—Joseph Smith, 119 Church street, Toronto.
