Just previous to the game a mamoth baseball bat, seven feet long eight inches in diameter and appr priately inscribed and decorated, w presented by A. E. Elmer, Kingsto on behalf of his comrades to May James F. Pappa, through the offic of Alderman Peter W. Roblin. In neat little speech Mr. Elmer made th presentation and expressed the good wishes of the team for the mayor future prosperity. In the second inning Kingston wol up and fell upon Watertown's pitche with such effect that, when the smok of battle cleared, it was found the thirteen runs had been chalked dow to the credit of the men from Cana da. This was too much and the gain ended at the end of the fourth inr ing. Ex-Alderman Carson, who, whe at home, is the genial landlord of th Westbrook hotel, swatted out a two bagger in this inning and the way h got his 257 pounds around the base was a sight for sore eyes. The men from this city were fairly stout, but they were but light weights
