MEETINGS TO BE HELD

Conference Between General Assembly Committee and Queen's Trustees.

Great Affection for Queen's Throughout the Country and a Half Million Dollars Could Readily be Raised—The Burden of the Addresses Delivered.

The commission of the Presbyterian general assembly and Queen's trustees met in Convocation hall Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock to discuss the question as to whether the university should be separated from the Presbyterian church in Canada...

Dr. James Douglas, New York, said that the vital question was what shall be best for the university. The trustees were trustees of the university, and not of the church...

Dr. Charles Hamilton, M.P., the man who virtually caused the General Assembly to reconsider its decision to let Queen's go and decide to hold it, was the next speaker. He declared that the Presbyterian church did not want to run the university on any narrow lines...

Dr. W. W. Milligan, Toronto, said that he was not in favor of the separation of Queen's from the Presbyterian church. He said that the church should be united with Queen's...

THE MISSIONS IN THE PRESBYTERY OF KINGSTON, DISCUSSED

Knox Church at Outer Station and Portsmouth United Greater Support and Interest Needed For Various Schemes.

The Presbytery of Kingston met in Chalmers church yesterday at two o'clock. The members present were: Rev. Dr. McFavish, moderator; Willkins, Macgillivray, Gray, Moore, MacDonald, Dyer, Binnie, Moore, Drummond, Henry, Laird, Boyd, MacLennan, Ross, Prof. Ross, MacLennan, Heaney, Conn, McLeod, Fotheringham, Guy, R. Laird, Cumberland, and Messrs. Dixon, Russell and Adams, elders.

Dr. Warden asked Prof. Ross what effect the rally of the Presbyterians of Canada to Queen's would have upon the Presbyterian relation to Montreal, Toronto and other cities. Prof. Ross said, was not that thing, but would be a conflict and Rev. Dr. Milligan took the same view.
