HAWKEY WON

HE IS A FORMER FRONTENAC BOY

Son of a License Commissioner—In Ten Matches He Has Always Been Winner—General Sporting Notes.

Joseph Hawkey won a wrestling match in Chicago recently. A sporting paper says: "J. J. Rooney, the giant gripman, refereed the contest and he said the Canadian would be heard from when he gets a little more experience. Mr. Hawkey was born, in 1879, on a farm in the township of Kingston, county of Frontenac, Canada, the son of Thomas A. Hawkey, license commissioner of Frontenac county. He went west when only a lad of twenty years. At that time he was well-known in Kingston, Ont., as a heavyweight lifter, who had never been defeated. He began wrestling in January, 1903, and is now under the instruction of William Watson, wrestling instructor of the C.L. & A. club, of Chicago, one of the best instructors in America. That gentleman says Mr. Hawkey is the best he has ever had under his instruction. He has had ten matches since he arrived in Chicago, and always defeated his opponent. Prof. Watson says he has defeated the best local wrestlers, and after a little more experience he is going after the professionals.

The family had intercourse with the neighbors and it is feared the infection will have far-reaching results. The authorities are hopeful of confining the disease to the family.

A. O. H. CONCERT.

Celebrate The Anniversary Of Emmett.

The A.O.H. last evening held a concert and lecture in their hall on Brock street, to celebrate the Robert Emmett anniversary. There was a large attendance of members and their friends. Thomas James, president of the society, occupied the chair.

The musical part of the programme was contributed by the choir of St. Mary's cathedral and opened with a duet by Mrs. Desroches and Miss O'Sullivan. Mr. Kennedy sang "The Minstrel Boy,"; Miss O'Sullivan, "The Harp That Once Through Tara's Halls," and the choir "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Young Charms." Miss Annie Grady rendered a piano solo.

The president then introduced Rev. Father Salmon, who gave an interesting address on the life and death of Robert Emmett. Several choruses by the choir followed, and then Edward Mullen recounted a pathetic incident of 1798. The programme concluded with the singing of "God Save Ireland."

The Only One.

John Reilly, the Crimean veteran, maintains that he is the only living representative in Kingston of the battle of Balaclava, when the noble six hundred did such valiant work. He claims to be the only veteran in Kingston who has four bars to his Crimean medal.

Other Crimean veterans are: Sergt. Creeggan, T. Cambridge, James McDermott, and T. Coffey, but none of these have four Crimean bars.

A Progressive Town.

A citizen who returned to-day from Peterboro states that Kingston ought to take a leaf out of the book of progress adopted by that municipality. The Cereal Food works, the electrical works, and, in fact, all the manufacturing establishments of Peterboro, are increasing their staffs. Peterboro has a hundred men working in manufacturing plants, he says, where Kingston has one.

CUB'S FOOD.

They Thrive On Grape Nuts.

Healthy babies don't cry and the well nourished baby that is fed on Grape-Nuts is never a crying baby. Many babies who cannot take any other food relish the perfect food Grape-Nuts and get well.

"My little baby was given up by three doctors who said that the condensed milk on which I had fed it had ruined the child's stomach. One of the doctors told me that the only thing to do would be to try Grape-Nuts, so I got some and prepared it as follows: I soaked 1½ tablespoonfuls in one pint of cold water for half an hour then I strained off the liquid and mixed 12 teaspoonfuls of this strained Grape-Nuts juice with six teaspoonfuls of rich milk, put in a pinch of salt and a little sugar, warmed it and gave it to baby every two hours.

"In this simple, easy way I saved baby's life and have built her up to a strong healthy child rosy and laughing. The food must certainly be perfect to have such a wonderful effect as this. I can truthfully say I think it is the best food in the world to raise delicate babies on and is also a delicious healthful food for grown-ups as we have discovered in our family." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Grape-Nuts is equally valuable to the strong healthy man or woman.

Grape-Nuts food stands for the true theory of health.

SPENCE'S OPENING.

Fashions For Autumn and Winter —Some Beautiful Creations.

Spence & Co's autumn display of millinery was very comprehensive, and seemed highly interesting indeed to the throngs of pretty misses and matrons who visited these handsome showrooms throughout the day. There were hats in innumerable quantities and styles, fresh from the arbiters of fashion, all of which were in due course, admired by the critical connoisseurs. In the selection and arrangement of stock and decorations the usual excellent taste and discrimination was apparent, there being an entire absence of discordance or jarring effect.

The hats this year seem to tend to higher crowns and duchess shapes, while the leading colors appear to be green, varying from pale reseda to richer and darker shades of hunting green. For trimmings birds are much in favor, but ostrich feathers will no doubt be leading favorites in large hats. Fur is to be much worn, and will be combined with all kinds of materials, such as panne velvets, fancy felts, and even with chiffon.

A particularly handsome creation was a black velvet picture hat, with torpedo crown, trimmed with Yak lace medallions, and a rich flowing ostrich plume.

From a leading New York house came the cutest of green torpedo toques, adorned with Nile green wings, a perfect little beauty. Perhaps among the most interesting of the whole display, and among the first to be sold was a large white beaver hat, turned up toward the front, with straps of black velvet, and a cluster of black tips. Young girls and children's hats and bonnets there were, too, in immense variety; while not a few of the visitors embraced the opportunity of visiting the second floor, where a splendid display of German and Canadian mantles was in progress.

Seasonable weather and the excellent service, not only in the show rooms, but in the manufacturing department, both contributed towards making this one of the most successful opening days, in the history of the firm. Certainly in artistic conception and execution the models displayed left nothing to be desired.

MADE RECIPIENT

Of Several Presents From The Rebekahs.

At a meeting of Louise Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, held on Monday evening, Noble Grand Miss Ina Miller, presiding, Miss Margaret Marshall, a popular member of the lodge, who is leaving town this week, to the great regret of the whole of the lodge members, was presented with a parlor table on behalf of the lodge. Samuel Reid, another member of the lodge, made a presentation to the same young lady of a handsome chair. Mr. Bullis handed over the presents and delivered a short speech to which Miss Marshall replied. Speeches were also made by other members of the lodge and special music was given by Frank Coates. Miss Marshall is to be married on Thursday to William Coates, of Napanee.

CANCER CURED.

In Many Cases, By Persistent Use Of The X Ray.

Oft-times people ask, have any cures of cancer been effected in Kingston by means of the X-ray? The answer to this question is that many cases of that malignant disease have been perfectly cured within the past few years. A reporter interviewed a prominent Kingston doctor on the subject, and was shown photographs of patients before and after treatment. The side of one woman's nose was almost eaten away. Sixty treatments by the X-ray resulted in curing her. Another photograph showed a woman with a cancer in the side of her face. After quite a number of treatments the cancer was destroyed and the face restored to its former condition. Other pictures testified to similar cures.

Visitors To Be Entertained.

The 14th Regimental bandsmen have arranged to entertain the members of the Coldstream Guards band after the concert Thursday night. Sergt. Johnson has been in communication with the sergeant of the visiting band, and as a result the guardsmen have consented to be guests of the local bandsmen after the concert. Bandmaster Rogan sent his regrets, having already accepted an invitation to be the guest of officers of the Royal Military College.

Great Gain in Legitimate Prestige if the Church Can Put Queen's in a Good Financial Shape.

Toronto Globe.

The Presbyterian church and the cause of higher education are both to be congratulated on the outcome of the conference held at Kingston on Wednesday to consider the future of Queen's University. The decision arrived at unanimously, after a full and frank discussion, was in favor of continuing the connection between Queen's and the Presbyterian church, and of "preserving the broad Christian and liberal spirit of the institution unimpaired." A glance at the personnel of the conference will show that this resolution thoroughly commits both the university and the church, and binds each of them to make an earnest and persistent endeavor to live up to the agreement thus solemnly entered into. This is all the more necessary in view of the fact that the bill purporting to sever the connection between the university and the church was withdrawn from the House of Commons at the formal request of the general assembly last June.

If the efforts now to be put forth to relieve Queen's of her financial embarrassments are successful the gain in legitimate prestige for the Presbyterian denomination will be very great—so great as to be ample compensation for the risk already incurred and the sacrifices yet to be made. There was a time when one-half of the Presbyterians were enthusiastically devoted to the university, while the other half looked askance at it. But for the unfortunate and perhaps unnecessary disruption of 1844, such a state of mixed feelings would probably never have arisen, and but for the sectarian character retained by the provincial university till 1849, Queen's would probably never have been established. All these things have now become matters of history. The university has taken root and developed on its merits in spite of the secularization of King's College, and the union of a generation ago has lately obliterated the cleavage caused by the disruption in the parent Church of Scotland. The present situation is what offers the opportunity and imposes the duty, and it is well for the church that it has embraced the one and undertaken the other.

From the standpoint of higher education the action of the conference is wholly commendable. The alternative of the adopted line of action was to allow Queen's to sink into the position of a quasi-provincial institution. With the University of Toronto on its hands the legislature would never have made up its mind to deal liberally by a second seat of learning, and Queen's would have been hampered by administrative interference without any adequate compensation for the inevitable humiliation. Queen's has won for herself, in the face of formidable difficulties, a high reputation for learning and culture. In some departments she has no superior in the world to-day, and in one she has probably no equal. If she is now enabled to carry on her work as she has been doing she may attain to still higher levels and win for herself a still more enviable reputation. Her late principal was more than a tower of strength to her—he was a titanic academical force. His successor has been too short a time in office to enable one to speak of what he has accomplished, but there is every reason to believe that if he is properly sustained in the discharge of his difficult duties Queen's will lose none of its lustre under his regime.

METHODIST GATHERINGS.

In Harrowsmith, On Tuesday Last.

The financial meeting of the Kingston district opened in Methodist church, Harrowsmith, on Friday, September 18th. In connection therwith a convention of Sunday school workers was held in the afternoon. The chairman of the district, Rev. Dr. Antliff, presided. The chairman in his address gave the keynote to the meeting which was marked by a deep devotional spirit. Rev. I. Wheatley read a crisp and concise paper on "The Teachers' Mission" and a bright suggestive address was given by Rev. G. C. Wood, on "The Pastor's Opportunity in The Sunday School." A recommendation was ordered to be sent to the secretary of the book committee, asking that a Teachers' Reading Club be formed—similar to the Guardian Reading Club and a list of books prepared helpful for Sunday school teachers.

In the evening the annual meeting of the District Epworth League was held in the same place. The chair was taken by the pastor, Rev. W. F. Perley. An interesting paper on "The Value of the E.L. to the Church" was read by Rev. Gore A. Bell, and Rev. Thomas Brown, B.D., of Kingston, gave an inspiring account of the district convention. The very large audience present evidenced the fact that the Epworth League is not a declining force in Methodism. The following are the district officers elected for the ensuing year: Honorary president, Rev. Dr. Antliff; president, Rev. T. Brown, Kingston; first vice-president, Percy W. Brown, Sydenham; second vice-president, Miss Anglin, Kingston; third vice-president, Miss Hoopins, Kingston; fourth vice-president, A. Milne, Kingston; secretary-treasurer, Miss Marshall, Kingston; representative on the E. L. Board, Rev. E. Crummy; auditor, W. D. Graves.

MERIT MAKES IT FAMOUS.

The Only Remedy in the World Except a Surgical Operation That Will Certainly Cure any Form of Piles.

The study of physicians, the experience for years expended in one direction, the pretensions of quacks, have been for years expended in one direction; to find a pile cure that would cure.

The results have been a number of harmless and in most cases useless ointments, suppositories and even internal remedies, which the public have weighed in the balance of experience and found wanting; nealy all of them gave some relief, but nothing approaching a radical cure resulted from these preparations.

The remedy required is one which will immediately stop the pain so severe in many cases of piles, and then by contracting the small blood-vessels (capillaries) to their normal size, produces a radical cure by reducing and finally absorbing the tumors and healing the inflamed, raw mucous surface.

Until a few years ago, no such remedy had been produced, but at that time a suppository was placed upon the market, which has since proven itself to be the long-sought permanent cure for this common and distressing trouble; it has rapidly become famous throughout the United States and Canada, and is now sold by all druggists under the name of Pyramid Pile Cure.

It is now the best known, because its merit and safety have advertised wherever used. It has been advertised by word of mouth, from one sufferer to another; people who have tried everything else, even submitting to painful and dangerous surgical operations without avail have finally found that piles can be cured without pain and without expense, practically, as the Pyramid Pile Cure is sold for the nominal price of 50c. and $1 per package.

The Pyramid instantly stops all pain and at the same time contains no cocaine, morphine or narcotics; the acids and healing properties contained in the remedy speedily remove, cause a healthful, natural contraction and absorption of the tumors. It will cure any form of rectal trouble except cancer and advanced fistula, which, by the way nearly always results from neglecting proper and timely treatment of piles.

A book on cause and cure of piles sent free by addressing Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.
