A HAPPY DAY. For Miss Ruth Bryan, To Get Away. Local Cheese Exporters Take Exception to Remarks Made by Daniel Derbyshire, of Brockville, and Make Denial. Daniel Derbyshire's remarks in the Montreal Gazette, to the effect that Kingston cheese buyers could afford to give a higher price for cheese because they secured a big rebate, has aroused the ire and indignation of Kingston exporters. An indignation meeting was held Thursday, when the following letter was drafted and copies sent to the different newspapers for publication. The local buyers more particularly desired the Montreal Gazette to publish it, as it was in that paper that Mr. Derbyshire's statement is said to have first appeared.

MISS RUTH BRYAN. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 2.—This was a happy day for Miss Ruth Bryan. In the first place it was her eighteenth birthday, the day on which she becomes her own mistress, and naturally a day of rejoicing for any young woman. But a still more potent cause contributed to the happiness of Miss Bryan. It was the eve of her wedding day, for to-morrow she is to become the bride of William Homer Leavitt, an artist who came out from the east and won the heart of the fair western girl while painting the portrait of her father, Col. Bryan, the First President of the State.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. Help Out The Committee. Kingston, Oct. 2.—(To The Editor): In view of the fact that the citizens in general were royally entertained by the old boys' home coming demonstration, the committee finds itself, I understand, somewhat in the lurch, in carrying a basket of pink and white carnations, was the flower girl. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls and to the bridesmaid a pearl pin.

DRUGGERS TAKE THE MATTER UP. Paris, Oct. 2.—The racing world is greatly agitated about the question of alleged drugging of race horses. It is to be especially expected, the public here attributing their remarkable successes to this practice. Pending a report by the veterinary surgeons appointed by the stewards of the French Jockey Club to investigate the matter, the press is tabling on the subject. The racing world is greatly agitated about the question of alleged drugging of race horses.

Y. W. G. A. Will Open October 1st. Ignorant Of Nature's Laws. If not ignorant, stupid—else why attempt to treat catarrh, bronchitis and other ailments, with snuffs, tablets or atomizers? Snuffs can't cure, for the disease is carried to the lungs, and you breathe, through the lungs, the snuff, which is carried to the lungs, the snuff, which is carried to the lungs.

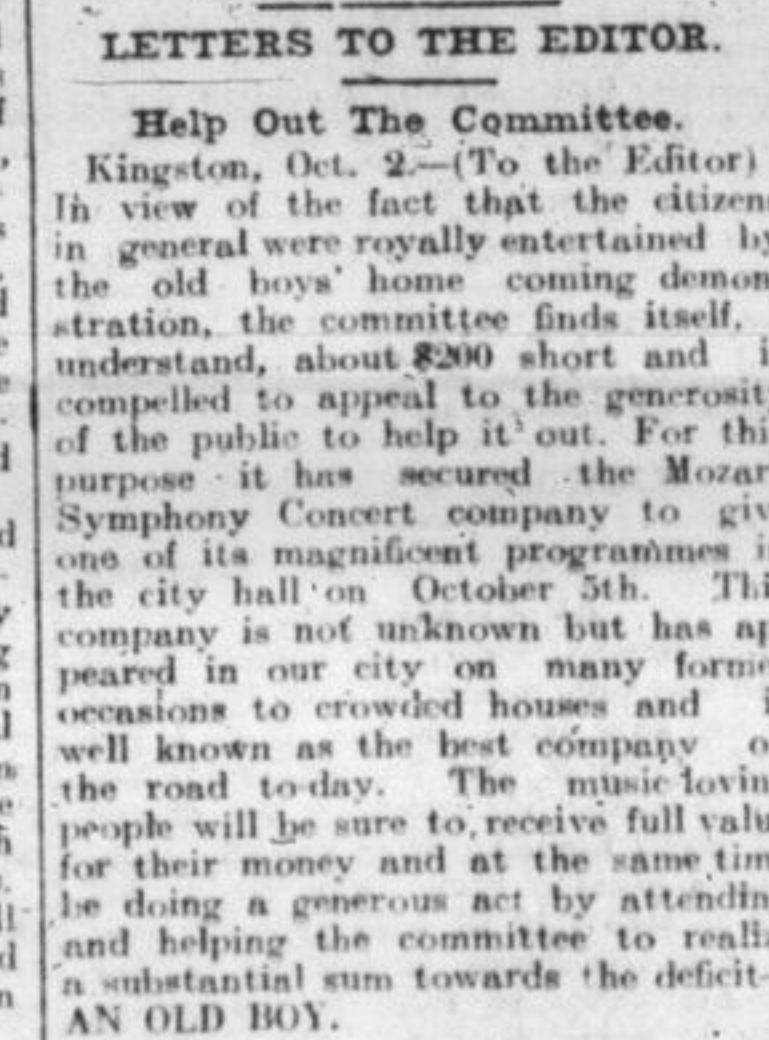

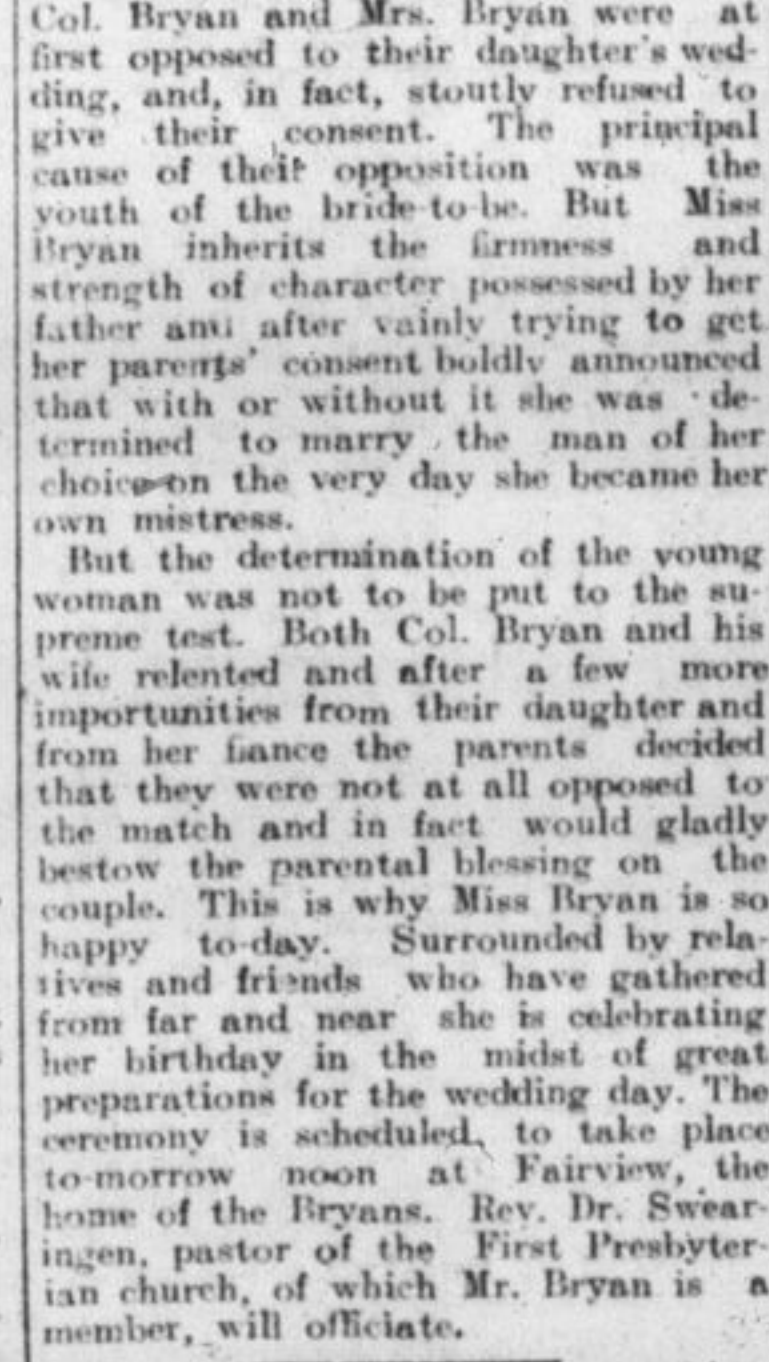

ARRIEN—AINSLIE. A Marriage Ceremony on Wednesday Evening.
