DIED IN SYRACUSE.

Robert King, Former Kingstonian, Accidentally Killed.

The sad intelligence reached the city on Thanksgiving day of the accidental death of Robert King, Syracuse, a former well-known Kingstonian. The deceased was born and educated here, and for three years was chief engineer of the Light, Heat & Power company's plant. In 1896 left for Syracuse to accept a position as chief engineer for the Rapid Transit company. The news of his sudden demise came as a great shock to his many friends and relatives in Kingston. The remains will arrive on the noon boat on Saturday and will be interred at Cataraqui cemetery under the auspices of Kingston lodge, No 59, I.O.O.F., of which the deceased was a highly-esteemed member for years. A wife and several children are, by Mr. King's death, left without a pro-tector. William King, carpenter at the local street railway barns, is
