COLLEGE INFLUENCE ABROAD.

Has a college, in its teachings and ideals, any direct bearing on political life? Surely, the college graduate is a man of advanced thought.

The college graduate, if true to his better nature, if devoted to the objects that make for nobility of character, will not condescend to things of low estate.

WITH A HAT PIN

WOMAN FOUGHT A MAN OF SERMONS.

Rev. Robert MacWilliams is Again in Trouble—Is Charged With Assault—A Handful of Chestnuts in the Cause.

New York, Oct. 17.—Again has Rev. Robert MacWilliams become the central figure in a sensation in Vineland, N.J. This time the cause of it is declared to have been a few chestnuts resting innocently on the roadside near his home.

The girl says she told the excited clergyman that the chestnuts were public, and refused to go. The minister insisted and she drew her hatpin as a weapon of defence.

Rev. Mr. MacWilliams went to Vineland several years ago from a place near Troy, where he resigned his charge of a Baptist church, and, buying a country home, sought to regain his failing health in raising poultry.
