CHOKED TO DEATH. A Patient In The Hospital Took His Life. Montreal, Nov. 2.—Joseph Duplessis, a thirty-year-old patient in the Notre Dame Hospital who had been brought to that institution on Saturday night from his home at 419 Champlain street, suffering from delirium tremens, choked himself to death yesterday, with one of the straps that had been used to secure him to the cot in the hospital, while the orderly attending to him, was absent from the room. Duplessis succeeded in getting the strap of his right hand and placing it around his neck tightened it until he choked. He was not dead when the orderly returned to the room, and the physician worked over him for half an hour to try and save his life, but their efforts were fruitless.

GREAT CRASH And Many Were Killed in Collision. FOOTBALLERS WERE GOING TO SCENE OF A MATCH. There Was a Compact With a Switch Engine—A Confused Mass of Wreckage in Which Students Were Mixed With Quite a Few Dead. Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—A special train on the Big Four bearing 964 Lafayette passengers, including several hundred students of Purdue University, was wrecked to-day near Riverside Park at the edge of this city. Fifteen dead had been taken from the wreck, and forty passengers were injured, twenty-four of them seriously. Among the dead are several members of the Purdue University football team, which was to play Indiana University for the state championship here this afternoon. The special train bore the Lafayette rooters, numbering nearly one thousand. It consisted of twelve coaches, and was running as the first section at high speed. At a gravel pit switch near Eighteenth street, a switch engine with a couple of coal cars collided with the passenger. The passenger engine and first three coaches were almost totally destroyed. The first coach was crushed to splinters, the second telescoped and thrown down an embankment fifteen feet high, while the third coach was thrown across the track. There is confusion as to what caused the accident, each engineer insisting that he had the track, and did not know of the other train. A deep cut prevented a clear view of the track. The crash of the two trains threw the coal cars through the first two coaches, in which were many of the players and substitutes. The engine, two coal cars and the first three coaches were crushed into a confused mass of wreckage. Under this pile of debris were fifty or more students of the university. Following is the list of dead: Charles Furr, Butler, Ind., substitute. Charles Furr, Veedersburg, Ind., guard. E. C. Robertson, Indianapolis, assistant coach, and former captain. Walter L. Roush, Pittsburg, Pa., substitute. R. J. Powell, Casper, Christ, Texas, end. W. D. Hamilton, Lafayette, centre. Gabriel S. Drollinger, Lafayette, Ind., substitute. Samuel Squibb, Lawrenceburg, Kan., substitute. Jay Hamilton, Huntington, Ind., substitute. N. R. Howard, Lafayette, Ind. Bert. Price, Spencer, Ind., substitute. J. C. Coates, Berwick, Pa.

Another Death. Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—William Bailey, of New Richmond, Ind., substitute player on the Purdue University football team, died to-day as a result of the Big Four wreck, Saturday. This is the sixteenth death. There are still lying in the hospital thirty-four victims of the wreck, thirty-three students of Purdue. Fifteen are in a serious condition.

FEARS BLOCKADE. Alexieff Removes Headquarters to Vladivostok. Pekin, Nov. 2.—The fact that Vice-roy Alexieff has removed his headquarters from Port Arthur to Vladivostok has caused great surprise in Pekin. It is generally conjectured that he is unwilling to risk passing the winter at a port which the Japanese undoubtedly would make a strenuous attempt to blockade in the event of war, thereby preventing the government from communicating with his viceroy. The Chinese government is greatly disturbed at the re-occupation of Mukden, and the Russian ultimatum by Russian troops. The foreign legations are appealing to friendly foreign legations for help and advice, admitting its own helplessness in the matter.

NEWSPAPER FOR WOMEN. Has Been Established in London. MAY BE TRUCE In Fiscal Campaign in Leeds. FREE TRADERS SEE DANGER OF ISSUE COMING EARLY TO A HEAD. Confident Enough of Goodness of Doctrine to Prefer Postponement—Chamberlain's Scheme Grows in Favor. New York, Nov. 2.—The Sun's London cable says: There is some prospect of a truce in the fiscal campaign at Leeds within the unionist party. The expected strength of Mr. Chamberlain's popular support has demonstrated to the free traders of both parties the danger of allowing the question to come to an issue in the early spring as would happen according to the present trend of developments. On the other hand, Mr. Chamberlain's followers do not desire a snap judgment from the country. They are sufficiently confident of the soundness of their doctrine to prefer the postponement of a general election for two years, in order to get a well-considered decision. A proposal made to both sides by influential business men that the whole subject be referred to a royal commission, has been received with considerable mutual favor. It is represented by the proposers of this scheme that on a subject of such vast importance, no detailed legislation should be adopted, until there has been mature consideration by experts, and a sufficient lapse of time to allow the business interests that would be affected to prepare to meet the new conditions. The free traders believe, keeping the history of royal commissions in mind, the proposed compromise will really result in shelving the whole question, so far as practical politics is concerned, for an indefinite number of years. The protectionists, on the other hand are willing to risk this, for they argue that the whole subject will be sufficiently strong to compel any commission to report, and the government to refer the question to the country at the end of the two years.

Duty Calls Him From Pulpit. Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Rev. J. A. THE SENIOR DOWIE. Insists He Is Father Of Pretending Elijah. Chicago, Nov. 2.—A despatch from Essex, Iowa, says: John Murray Dowie, crushed by the attack upon him by his son, John Alexander Dowie, says: "The statement that I am not the father of John Alexander Dowie is the greatest myth ever uttered by the mouth of man. It is scandalous that my son should repudiate me after I have done so much for him. He is my son, and was born in lawful wedlock. No one can deny it. The records may be had at the great register offices, Princess street, Edinburgh, Scotland. I have always lived a quiet, peaceable Christian life, and it breaks my heart to have this trouble come toward the end."

HAS NOT RESIGNED. Rumors And Prospective Change Cause Perturbation. New York, Nov. 2.—In a special cable from London, the New York Herald has the following: Rumor that Lord Roberts had resigned the command-in-chief, were current at the service clubs during the week. It was stated in addition to the fact already mentioned in these despatches, that Lord Roberts, financial secretary to the war office, was persona ingratis to Lord Roberts, the prospective changes in importance, and that it was at least very doubtful if Lord Roberts would continue to hold his present position under the new conditions of affairs.
